Head Above Water Flamingo:

The Dialectics of Diaspora: Memory, Location and Gender Mar Gallego Durán, 2011-11-28 Aquest llibre reflecteix l'evolució en el camp dels estudis diaspòrics. Els articles han estat agrupats en dues seccions. La primera té com objectiu les experiències dels africans diaspòrics, la segona secció amplia el radi de recerca i se centra en les representacions literàries de la diàspora dels asiàtics americans, porto-riquenys i als anglo-europeus. De la mateixa manera, un aspecte no menys interessant d'aquest llibre són les múltiples maneres en les quals s'han tornat a teoritzar les idees de Paul Gilroy i a aplicar-se a una infinitat d'escrits. De fet, els articles testimonien la diàspora com una experiència que potencialment pot com a aix succeeix afectar a tot el món pel que la diàspora es converteix en una representació metonímica de la pròpia experiència.

Crisis and Creativity in the New Literatures in English, 2022-07-11 Afroeuropa@ns Marta Sofía López, 2009-03-26 The essays in this groundbreaking collection constitute a pioneering attempt at establishing a comparative agenda for the study of black literatures and identities in the context of the European Union. Drawing from a wide variety of critical perspectives and methodologies from Postcolonial or Diaspora Studies to Sociology or Ethnography, contributors to the volume analyze black diasporic communities and their cultural productions in Spain, Portugal, France, Italy, Germany and the United Kingdom, paying particular attention to women afrospanic writers.

Writing Across Cultures Omar Sougou, 2021-10-25 This is a timely and comprehensive study combining various critical approaches to the fiction of Buchi Emecheta one of Africa's most illustrious and contentious women writers Feminist Showalter Cixous Kristeva and postcolonial approaches writing back are taken to Emecheta's texts to illuminate the personal political and aesthetic ramifications of the production of this born writer Poststructural programmes of analysis are shown to be less relevant to this writer's fiction than Marxist and Bakhtinian perspectives Emecheta is shown to be a bridge builder between two cultures and two worlds in narratives both challenging and popular characterized by ambiguity ambivalence and double voiced discourse all of which evince the writer's determination to expose imaginatively the colonial heritage of centre periphery conflicts cultural corruption ethnic discrimination gender oppression and the migrant experience in multiracial communities

Writing Diaspora Yasmin Hussain, 2017-03-02 Issues of cultural hybridity diaspora and identity are central to debates on ethnicity and race and over the past decade have framed many theoretical debates in sociology cultural studies and literary studies However these ideas are all too often considered at a purely theoretical level In this book Yasmin Hussain uses these ideas to explore cultural production by British South Asian women including Monica Ali Meera Syal and Gurinder Chadha Hussain provides a sociological analysis of the contexts and experiences of the British South Asian community discussing key concerns that emerge within the work of this new generation of women writers and which express more widespread debates within the community In particular these authors address issues of individual and group identity and the ways in which these are affected by ethnicity and gender Hussain argues that in exploring the different dimensions of their cultural heritage the authors she surveys have created changes within the meaning of the diasporic identity articulating a challenge to the notion of Asianness as a homogenous and simple category In her examination of the process through which a hybridized diasporic culture has come into being she
