

Corporate Global Strategy

The strategic outlook multinational corporations have toward subsidiaries management. It represents how MNCs balance the potential needs of global integration and global differentiation.

Global - Standardization

- Shared resource management
- Highly centralized that leads to underestimation of local needs
- Knowledge transfer from headquarter to subsidiaries only

International

- Home country expertise
- Majority of value chain maintained at headquarters
- Technology control structured and control at headquarter

Transnational

- Knowledge and innovation is developed and dispersed within entire network
- Entire corporation regarded as network
- Each subsidiary assigned with responsibility
- Mutual development

Multinational

- Autonomous subsidiaries
- Market oriented business configuration
