Healing The Wounds Promise Of Ecofeminism:

Healing the Wounds Judith Plant, 2008-04-01 Twenty five activist authors including Ursula LeGuin Vandana Shiva Margot Adler and Joanna Macy strive to unite the visions and energies of the feminist and ecological perspectives. Healing the Wounds draws together the personal, political and spiritual into one enlivening whole. This is the book and these are the practitioners that started the movement.

Healing the Wounds Judith Plant, 1989 Perspectives on the New Age James R. Lewis, J. Gordon Melton, 1992-01-01 This book begins with a comprehensive historical section that places the New Age within the context of its predecessor movements. It then focuses on specialized aspects of this subculture from essays on the convergence of New Age spirituality with women's spirituality to an essay on how Evangelical Christians have responded to the movement. The book also examines the international impact of the New Age.

Ecofeminist Natures Noel Sturgeon, 2016-01-08 Examining the development of ecofeminism from the 1980s antimilitarist movement to an internationalist ecofeminism in the 1990s, Sturgeon explores the ecofeminist notions of gender, race and nature. She moves from detailed historical investigations of important manifestations of US ecofeminism to a broad analysis of international environmental politics.

Introducing Ecofeminist Theologies Heather Eaton, 2005-02-07 This book is about ecofeminism and its encounter with theology, predominantly that of Christian theology in Euro-western contexts. It introduces and explores ecofeminism and the encounter. The goal is to understand the significance and implications of ecofeminism and its contribution and challenge to theology. A further goal is to assist ecofeminist theology or theologies to be more effective in preventing ecological ruin, assisting women's struggles for freedom and supporting the flourishing of all life on earth. Ecofeminism represents ways of discerning associations of many kinds between the feminist and ecological movements and between the oppression and domination of both women and the earth. Ecofeminism is an insight referring to critical analyses, political actions, historical research, intuitions and ideals. The ecological crisis is creating a pivotal moral and religious challenge and new contexts for theology. There is a renewed spiritual sensitivity towards the natural world. We are in a time of a spiritual awakening wherein the earth and all life are experienced as sacred where it is possible to experience awe and wonder and encounter the ineffable. Ecofeminist theologies are at the intersection of these ideas and experiences. They are the efforts of particular people who see and experience possibilities for greater life, more justice and freedom. They do not accept that injustice and ecological ruin are inevitable. Ecofeminist efforts are directed towards reducing further ecological and social devastation and awakening consciousness to the immense beauty and elegance of all life on this fragile yet awesome blue-green planet.

Encyclopedia of Political Economy: A-K Phillip Anthony O'Hara, 1999 Based on developments in political economy since the 1960s, this text is a compendium of the main principles, concepts, problems, institutions, schools and policies associated with political economy. It is a comprehensive introduction to the field.

Ecofeminist Philosophy Karen Warren, 2000-10-11 A philosophical exploration of the nature, scope and significance of ecofeminist theory and practice.

This book presents the key issues concepts and arguments which motivate and sustain ecofeminism from a western philosophical perspective     A Political Theology of Nature Peter Scott,2003-03-06 This book argues that the modern separation of humanity from nature can be traced to the displacement of the triune God Locating the source of our current ecological crisis in this separation Peter Scott argues that it can only be healed within theology through a revival of a Trinitarian doctrine of creation interacting with political philosophies of ecology Drawing insights from deep ecology ecofeminism and social and socialist ecologies Scott proposes a common realm of God nature and humanity Both Trinitarian and political the theology of this common realm is worked out by reference to Christ and Spirit Christ s resurrection is presented as the liberation and renewal of ecological relations in nature and society the movement of the Holy Spirit is understood as the renewal of fellowship between humanity and nature through ecological democracy and the Eucharist is proposed as the principal political resource Christianity offers for an ecological age     She is Everywhere! Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum,2005 She Is Everywhere An Anthology of Writing in Womanist Feminist Spirituality Perhaps the first womanist feminist anthology which includes women s voices from many cultural and spiritual traditions across the globe from past to present This book will be enormously useful and stimulating to women s studies classes and the emerging vibrant study of women s spirituality By venerating Her I am able to salute the divinity in all women and myself Luisah Teish We are at the brink of new age which will be defined by new concepts in science religion and the reclamation of the values of the Dark Mother Necia Harkless In my micro geography she is everywhere in a sweat lodge in Indian Canyon or in the Guadalupe chapel in San Juan Bautista in a field of blue corn in Aromas protected with corn dollies or in the Rodriguez Street Laundry in Watsonville Jennifer Colby In bringing memories of Her to the surface I feel reborn reconnected to the Earth reunited with my Great Mother Sandy Miranda Traveling to lands and sacred sites where evidence of the Goddess is irrefutable gives me a new spark and added hope Sardinia herself is the Great Mother Leslene della Madre The more women s voices I heard the more I came to see the Sacred Feminine as immanent the more I saw women who seemed to be filled with joy even in the midst of adverse circumstances Deborah Grenn     Green Delusions Martin W. Lewis,1992 Scholars politicians and activists worldwide are finally recognizing the severity of the global environmental crisis yet serious threats to the environmental movement remain Anti environmentalists dismiss the very idea of a crisis as a mirage Much less obvious however is the more subtle threat masquerading under the mantle of environmentalism itself It is this threat that Green Delusions addresses Writing from the standpoint of a committed environmentalist Martin W Lewis contends that many of the most devoted and strident greens those who propose a radical environmentalism unwittingly espouse an ill conceived doctrine that has devastating implications for the global ecosystem In this book he distinguishes the main variants of eco extremism exposes the fallacies upon which such views ultimately flounder and demonstrates that the policies advocated by their proponents would if enacted result in unequivocal ecological disaster At once polemic and prescriptive Green Delusions is an impassioned attempt to defend the environmental movement against extremist ideas that would lead to self defeating political strategies      Agency, Health And Social Survival Caroline New,2015-01-28 This text addresses the interface of sociology and psychology which it argues is the key to political change Offering a comparison of a range of psychotherapeutic theories of human nature including those of Freud and Anna Freud Klein and Kleinians and Lacan humanistic psychology and feminist trans cultural and other radical psychotherapies the book focuses on each theory's psychological concept of health and its political implications      Globalization and Corporate Citizenship: The Alternative Gaze Malcolm McIntosh,2017-09-08 The theory and practice of corporate citizenship and CSR have many alternative perspectives to the business as usual gaze The essays in this volume encapsulate the essence of these alternative ideas and embrace the idea that progressive ways and means of this century do not lie in mainstream capitalist thinking These pieces ask critical questions about the way we see the relationship between capitalism business models and society a subject not often discussed in non academic literature Globalization and Corporate Citizenship The Alternative Gaze features contributions and new analysis from Klaus M Leisinger Chris Laszlo David Cooperrider Simon Zadek Sandra Waddock and others This title is one of a two volume set a collection of seminal and thought provoking essays drawn from the Journal of Corporate Citizenship's archive accompanied by new analysis and reflection from the original authors Written by some of the most widely recognized academic and business pioneers and leaders of the corporate responsibility and global sustainability movement the volumes make essential reference texts for anyone interested in the radically awakening new global political economy      The Voice of the Earth Theodore Roszak,2001-01-01 What is the bond between the human psyche and the living planet that nurtured us and all of life into existence What is the link between our own mental health and the health of the greater biosphere In this bold ambitious philosophical essay Publishers Weekly historian and cultural critic Roszak explores the relationships between psychology ecology and new scientific insights into systems in nature Drawing on our understanding of the evolutionary self organizing universe Roszak illuminates our rootedness in the greater web of life and explores the relationship between our own sanity and the larger than human world The Voice of the Earth seeks to bridge the centuries old split between the psychological and the ecological with a paradigm which sees the needs of the planet and the needs of the person as a continuum The Earth's cry for rescue from the punishing weight of the industrial system we have created is our own cry for a scale and quality of life that will free us to become whole and healthy This second edition contains a new afterword by the author      Utopian Bodies and the Politics of Transgression Lucy Sargisson,2002-01-22 What do we want What do we believe to be wrong with the world How can we best change it How should we live Given the world as it is how can we best achieve our dreams and desires Utopian Bodies is quite simply a new approach to thinking about theory Using the dominant themes of green and feminist politics this fascinating and original text creates a new notion of utopian thought and life transgressive utopianism This new concept is not a blueprint for an ideal polity instead it demonstrates an approach to the world that is both idealistic and pragmatic focussing on bodies of thought in relation to bodies of people communities Also spanning philosophy political theory and deconstruction this book is especially relevant today as the millennium marks a time of resurgence in utopian studies Gendering Green Criminology Emma Milne, Pamela Davies, James Heydon, Kay Peggs, Tanya Wyatt, 2025-04-15 The first volume in green criminology devoted to gender this book investigates gendered patterns to offending victimisation and environmental harms The collection advances debate on green crimes and climate change and will inspire students and researchers to foreground gender in reducing the challenges affecting our planet s future Environment and Social Theory John Barry, 2007-01-24 This thematic rather than theorist centred approach is an essential guide to the way in which the environment and social theory relate to one another including examinations of the works of the key theorists including Marx Mill Habermas and Adorno Interpretive Research Humanities and Social Sciences Neşe ŞENEL, Ecevit BEKLER, Merve YORULMAZ KAHVE, Ragıp MUHAMMED, Arzu DEVECİ TOPAL, Şebnem KOLTAN YILMAZ, Damla Til ÖĞÜT ,Gülden GÜVENÇ, Selmin ERDİ GÖK, Emine ÖZTÜRK ,Ersin SAVAŞ, Büşra Meltem TÜRKMEN, Melda AKBABA, Melih AYDIN, Musa OFLAZ, Seçil GÜRÜN KARATEPE, Nursel AYDINTUĞ MYRVANG, Tuğba YEĞİN, Salih DİNÇEL, Ahmet Bahadır ŞİMŞEK, Zekiye GÖKTEKİN, Ahmet YÜCEL, Abdurrahman KARAMAN, 2022-10-15 Interpretive Research Humanities and Social Sciences Livre de Lyon

Human Behavior and the Social Environment, Macro Level Katherine Van Wormer, Fred Besthorn, 2017-02-10 A timely revision in this global age Human Behavior and the Social Environment Macro Level develops a sophisticated and original view of the cultural global spiritual and natural worlds that people inhabit and explores the impact of these worlds on human behavior An ecosystems sustainability framework emerges as a key characteristic of contemporary practice What is sustainable social work What are the characteristics of a sustainable community How is the present exploitation of environmental resources unsustainable for future generations In accordance with the 2015 Council on Social Work Education CSWE standards attention is paid to environmental justice as well as diversity and difference Human Behavior and the Social Environment, Macro Level Katherine S. Van Wormer, Fred H. Besthorn, Thomas Keefe, 2007 Each person is a unique individual yet we all are also defined by groups those we belong to and those we are excluded from voluntarily or involuntarily In the second half of the Human Behavior and the Social Environment sequence Katherine van Wormer Fred Besthorn and Thomas Keefe take a stimulating new approach to exploring this macro view of humanity and demonstrating how each component of society from the single person to the sprawling organization is part of a dynamic whole Their collaboration has produced a remarkable volume that will help students recognize and consider interactions between and among individuals and social systems and thereby develop into truly effective social workers Outlines theoretical concepts and practice implications in each chapter Highlights the importance of the natural environment and ecology the community of the earth to human and group behavior Sets forth a refined understanding of the role of spirituality the community of faith in people's lives Focuses on evidence based theory and research Teaches from a global cross cultural perspective highlighting themes of empowerment and social justice Features dynamic readings and personal narratives that highlight each chapter's topic Accompanied by an online instructor's manual with Power Points for lecture presentations chapter summaries key terms suggested classroom activities and a test bank with essay and multiple choice questions Also available is a companion volume Human Behavior and the Social Environment Micro Level which offers an eye opening view of how biological psychological and cultural forces influence individuals behavior Mother / Nature Catherine M. Roach, 2003-01-30 This brief but ambitious book explores our relationship with nature through the imagery we use when we talk about Mother Nature Employing the critical tools of religious studies psychology and gender studies Catherine M Roach examines the various manifestations of nature as mother and what that idea implies for the way we approach the natural world Part One Nature as Good Mother discusses the notion that nature is or is like a beneficent and nurturing mother who provides and maintains life In studying the green slogan Love Your Mother Roach questions the effects for women and for the environment of imputing female gender to nature She asks us to look at the associations that motherhood and mothering carry within a culture still shaped by patriarchy She notes the danger of such an apparently pro environmental slogan if mother evokes the bountiful self sacrificing provider who herself requires no care Part Two Nature as Bad Mother looks at the contrary notion of nature as a violent threatening and wrathful mother This image arises most often when humans and technology are depicted as masters of unruly nature Here Roach draws on theological reflection to analyze this ambivalence toward nature manifested in a fantasy that casts humans as gods She explores the contributions of eco theology and eco psychology to a heart of darkness perspective Finally Part Three Nature as Hurt Mother looks at possibilities and pitfalls of environmental healing inherent in the image of nature as a mother we have wounded and now seek to heal
