Healing Practices In The South Pacific:

Healing Practices in the South Pacific Claire D. Parsons, 1985-01-01 The Pacific Islands Moshe Rapaport, 1999
Academic survey of the Pacific Islands Includes maps photographs tables diagrams atlas and detailed index Body, Self, and Society Anne E. Becker, 2013-11-25 Anne E Becker examines the cultural context of the embodied self through her ethnography of bodily aesthetics food exchange care and social relationships in Fiji She contrasts the cultivation of the body self in Fijian and American society arguing that the motivation of Americans to work on their bodies shapes as a personal endeavor is permitted by their notion that the self is individuated and autonomous On the other hand because Fijians concern themselves with the cultivation of social relationships largely expressed through nurturing and food exchange there is a vested interest in cultivating others bodies rather than one s own Birthing in the Pacific Vicki Lukere, Margaret Jolly, 2001-11-30 This collection explores birthing in the Pacific against the background of debates about tradition and modernity A wide ranging introduction and conclusion together with case studies from Papua New Guinea New Caledonia Vanuatu Fiji and Tonga show how simple contrasts between traditional and modern practices technocratic and organic models of childbirth indigenous and foreign approaches and notions of before and after can be potent but problematic The difficulties entailed confront public health programs concerned with practical issues of infant and maternal survival in developing countries as well as scholarly analyses of birthing in cross cultural contexts The introduction analyzes central concepts and themes questions of survival safety and well being the significance of postures practices and sites the role of midwives traditional birth attendants and nurses and the role of men in birthing and reproduction Contributors four anthropologists a historian and a community health worker offer insights into the ways mothers midwives and nurses relate the traditional and the modern and how ideas of tradition and modernity have shaped representations of Pacific childbirth The conclusion provides researchers with a guide to relevant literature from several disciplines As a whole the collection warns against either a celebration of emancipation through biomedicine or a recuperative romance about women s past powers in reproduction Contributors Ruta Fiti Sinclair Margaret Jolly Vicki Lukere Shelley Mallett Helen Morton Christine Salomon Anti-Fertility Plants of the Pacific RC Cambie, AA Brewis, 1997-01-01 There is a growing appreciation of traditional medical systems as a source of considerable knowledge of the medicinal properties of plants Traditional medicines have the potential to offer leads to identifying potentially valuable chemicals that can be developed into new and more effective drugs including safer contraceptives The Pacific region is an excellent arena in which to search for such chemicals as the area contains plant species not found elsewhere there is every indication that many of the plants used more generally in traditional Pacific medicine may be efficacious of 74 plants surveyed in one study 86% showed pharmacological activity and in many Pacific traditions knowledge of medicinal use is transmitted between generations as part of an inherited body of ethnomedical knowledge This book documents all the available information on plants that have been used traditionally for anti fertility and fertility purposes in the Pacific region and indicates which of these plants hold the most promise for providing new anti fertility agents It also records instances in which the plant has been used outside the region Samoan Medical Belief and Practice Cluny Macpherson, La'ava Macpherson, 1990 This is the first comprehensive study of Samoan music Cluny and La'ava Macpherson have carried out intensive investigation into the practice and beliefs of contemporary indigenous healers or fof in Western Samoa to produce a fascinating and thorough study They explain convincingly why traditional Samoan medicine and its skilled practitioners continue to flourish alongside Western medical practice both in Samoa and in Samoan immigrant communities Back cover A History of Medicine: Primitive and ancient medicine Plinio Prioreschi, 1996 Tonga Martin Daly, 2009-02-04 Praise for the first edition Tonga is unique among bibliographies in its perception and understanding and in its affection for Tonga and its people Daly's work stands on exceptionally sound foundations His summaries are excellent indeed but Daly writes always with the authority of first hand knowledge with a keen eye for the essential and the ability to interpret and clarify obscurities A trustworthy introduction to Tonga in all its diversity a splendid point de d part for all layman or scholar needing a reliable guide to the essential literature about this remarkable Polynesian kingdom Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies The book is so arranged that it is easy to locate any of the items listed I found myself spending pleasant hours perusing Daly's comments on the different publications I hope the rumor of a second revised edition of this bibliography is true Journal of the Polynesian Society Tonga is a fascinating and subtle combination of a traditional Polynesian kingdom the only one to survive the impact of colonization in the nineteenth century and remain independent and a thoroughly Christian country This comprehensive bibliography is a selective guide to the most significant and accessible English language books papers and articles on every aspect of the kingdom's history culture arts politics environment and economy It is a much updated and expanded edition of the original version that was published in 1999 as part of the World Bibliographical Series with the addition of more than 200 new entries Each of the approximately 600 described and annotated items is organized under broad subject headings and indexed by author title and subject In addition and new to this edition all known Ph D theses although not annotated are shown within their appropriate subject categories and indexed Also new is a section on the most important Tonga related websites A general introduction describes the Tongan kingdom its history and society and its current situation Tonga A New Bibliography will be an invaluable resource for anyone with a serious interest in Tonga and an indispensable volume for academic libraries reference collections and policy makers focused on the Pacific islands Perspectives on the Bird's Head of Irian Jaya, Indonesia , 2023-07-31 The Bird's Head Peninsula of Irian Jaya has long been an area neglected by New Guinea Studies Only in the late seventies interest began to focus more intensively on this scientifically important border area between Austronesian and Papuan languages and cultures In the early nineties this led to the creation in The Netherlands of the Irian Jaya Studies programme ISIR which organizes and coordinates multi disciplinary research on the Bird's Head

Peninsula Within this framework study of the peninsula has reached a peak with research being conducted in the area by scientists from different disciplines anthropology archaeology ethno botany demography development administration geology and linguistics The diverse perspectives of these disciplines are subject to constant internal debate Through ISIR and other research initiatives there is a growing body of data on and insights into the various disciplines concerned with this fascinating area with each discipline developing its own specific perspectives on the Bird s Head These perspectives were presented during the First International Conference Perspectives on the Bird s Head of Irian Jaya Indonesia organized by ISIR in cooperation with the Indonesian Institute of Sciences LIPI Jakarta and the International Institute for Asian Studies ILAS Leiden and held at Leiden University 13 17 October 1997 Researchers were informed on current perspectives in many disciplines to facilitate integration of findings into wider interdisciplinary frameworks and to stimulate international debate within and between disciplines As a result of the Conference the forty two contributions in these Proceedings present a wealth of recent developments from various disciplines in New Guinea Studies

Gossip and the Everyday Production of Politics Niko Besnier, 2009-07-08 Although gossip is disapproved of across the world s societies it is a prominent feature of sociality whose role in the construction of society and culture cannot be overestimated In particular gossip is central to the enactment of politics through it people transform difference into inequality and enact or challenge power structures Based on the author s intimate ethnographic knowledge of Nukulaelae Atoll Tuvalu this work uses an analysis of gossip as political action to develop a holistic understanding of a number of disparate themes including conflict power agency morality emotion locality belief and gender It brings together two methodological traditions the microscopic analysis of unelicited interaction and the macroscopic interpretation of social practice that are rarely wedded successfully Drawing on a broad range of theoretical resources Niko Besnier approaches gossip from several angles A detailed analysis of how Nukulaelae s people structure their gossip interactions demonstrates that this structure reflects and contributes to the atoll s political ideology which wavers between a staunch egalitarianism and a need for hierarchy His discussion then turns to narratives of specific events in which gossip played an important role in either enacting egalitarianism or reinforcing inequality Embedding gossip in a broad range of communicative practices enables Besnier to develop a nuanced analysis of how gossip operates demonstrating how it allows some to gain power while others suffer because of it Throughout he is particularly attentive to the ways in which anthropologists themselves are the subject and object of gossip making his work a notable contribution to reflexive social science Written in an engaging and accessible style Gossip and the Everyday Production of Politics will appeal to students and scholars of political legal linguistic and psychological anthropology social science methodology communication conflict gender and globalization studies and
