Healing the Unaffirmed: Recognizing Deprivation Neurosis Conrad W. Baars, 1976 Healing the Unaffirmed Conrad W. Baars, Anna A. Terruwe, 1979-09-01 Why do so many neurotics fail to respond to psychiatric therapy Because not all neuroses are caused by childhood repression of emotions The authors have shown convincingly that certain neurotic symptoms develop only when a person has been deprived of affirming love Since these unaffirmed deprivation neurotics too often misdiagnosed as schizophrenic have never repressed their feelings analytic therapies are to no avail Shock therapies or major tranquilizers often worsen their suffering What the unaffirmed needs is affirmation therapy which entails more than giving TLC The discovery of this well defined syndrome of deprivation neurosis is most important In our permissive rarely repressing society the number of classical neurotics is steadily declining That of unaffirmed neurotics however is increasing at an alarming rate Unaffirmed parents rear unaffirmed children who commit suicide or fight back by self affirmation which is futile and leads to the corruption of society Recognizing the deprivation neurosis is the first step in correcting through affirmation many grave individual and global ills Feeling and Healing Your Emotions Conrad W. Baars, 2010

Understand Your Emotions Do you know what is meant by mental health Do you merely cope with your emotions or can you use them for your benefit Are you sure you are leading your children to emotional maturity Feeling and Healing Your Emotions offers guidelines for emotional and spiritual wholeness In simple question and answer format readers learn that all emotions are positive aspects of our nature and that a fully developed emotional life can strengthen one's spiritual life Feeling and Healing Your Emotions shows how humanistic psychology often fails to treat the whole person by ignoring his spiritual dimension Further it shows how the Bible is perfectly consistent with a psychology that combines findings in modern clinical psychiatry with centuries old Christian beliefs about the body mind and spirit Healing the Eight Stages of Life Matthew Linn, Sheila Fabricant, Dennis Linn, 1988 A practical and prayerful guide to healing the hurt that may have occurred in the eight stages of life as described by psychologist Erik Erikson Psychic Wholeness and Healing, Second Edition Anna A. Terruwe, Conrad W. Baars, 2016-03-30 As noted psychiatrists authors and lecturers Baars and Terruwe excitingly blend medieval and classical notions of the human psyche together with modern clinical discoveries as they probe the topic of psychic wholeness and healing The authors explore the entire human psyche including man's spiritual dimension which is an area totally ignored by most modern psychiatrists creating in modern man an ever deepening sense of frustration in searching for effective psychiatric treatment for his emotional turmoil The books numerous detailed clinical case histories clarify the authors therapeutic principles The following questions among many others are considered in this work How best

The De-Judaization of the Image of Jesus of Nazareth (The Virgin Mary) at the Time of the Holocaust: Ensoulment and the Human Ovum Thomas Alexander Blüger, 2021-03-09 Thomas has been researching his family's Jewish background for the last thirty years Herein he investigates how his Jewish grandparents and aunt defined as a nonprivileged Mischling survived the war while living in the heart of Nazi Germany This led Thomas to research Hitler's fear of having partial Jewish ancestry and expanded into a full blown study of following Christianity's understanding of the Jewish identity of Jesus of Nazareth throughout history Not leaving matters here Thomas outlines how Marian dogmatic theology used at the time of the Shoah brought to conclusion the Church's long journey in defining the time of ensoulment as articulated in the papal document Ineffabilis Deus promulgated by Pius in 1854 This happened twenty seven years after the discovery of the human ovum in 1827 by Karl Ernst von Baer Years later with the emergence of Nazi racial ideology many anti Christian Christians attempted to invert Christianity's core message of salvation through faith toward biological ends This would not do Roman authorities had consistently held throughout the centuries that faith is about salvation and not about biology According to that same end the ideal of ensoulment since the time of the Church's renewed understanding of it beginning in 1854 and indeed as it was first articulated through the writings of Aristotle and received into Christianity through the writings of Saint Augustine and later Thomas Aquinas was newly preserved within the confines of Western civilization This is the first book the author knows of that follows Augustine's concept of ensoulment as well as Aquinas's thinking on the matter while linking these to Karl Ernst von Baer's discovery of the human ovum in 1827 up until the events of Shoah and beyond This study is phenomenological in nature in that it does not follow Jesus of Nazareth the Virgin Mary throughout history but rather follows the image of Jesus of Nazareth the Virgin Mary a monumental difference This study supports the Second Vatican Council the Church's latest and ongoing efforts in affirming the Jewish identities of both Jesus of Nazareth and the Virgin Mary John Paul II's call for a purification of memory beginning in a year of Jubilee as well as the many present efforts in Catholic Jewish relations This study builds upon the author's past article Following the Virgin Mary through Auschwitz Marian Dogmatic Theology at the Time of the Shoah published in Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History Vol 14 winter 2008 No 3 pp 1-24

Human Dignity and Human Security in Times of Terrorism Christophe Paulussen, Martin Scheinin, 2019-12-09 In this book it is explained that despite a current drop in the number of deaths terrorism should still be considered a serious and widespread problem However the responses to this phenomenon are often more problematic from a long term perspective With the human rights framework under serious pressure this edited volume offers a timely important and critical in depth analysis of human dignity and human security challenges in the lead up and in the responses to current forms of terrorism It aims to map how human dignity and human security can be secured and how law can constitute a source of trust at a time when Europe and the rest of the world continue to be plagued by terrorism The authors are both established names and upcoming talent in this fastchanging and exciting field of law They thoroughly analyse a variety of topical subjects in more conceptual chapters for example calling for the humanisation of the security discourse and in highly practical contributions in which for instance the Kafkaesque situation in which rendition and torture victim Abu Zubaydah still finds himself today is considered This book which focuses on but is not limited to the situation in Western countries aims to inspire not only academics through further theorisation on the sometimes elusive but important concepts of human dignity and human security but also practitioners working in the field of countering terrorism It will hopefully convince them even more that following a human rights approach will be indispensable in securing human dignity and human security for all Even or in fact especially in times of terrorism Christophe Paulussen is a Senior Researcher in the Research Department of the T M C Asser Instituut in The Hague The Netherlands and Martin Scheinin is Professor of International Law and Human Rights in the Department of Law of the European University Institute EUI in Florence Italy

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Affirmation and Healing Within Spiritual Direction Cynthia Herman, 2020-05-26 ABSTRACT Key to the process of spiritual growth is the knowledge that human beings long for love They desire to know their worth and value This seeking leads to a desire for a relationship with God In order to grow in faith to a deeper relationship with God it is important to first have a strong sense of one s own worth as a basis for growth This involves an accurate self perception and a loving self acceptance Affirmation can help to develop a loving self acceptance where one can experience feel and see one s worth Affirmation is a gift of love from one person to another where one receives oneself as one experiences one s own goodness and dignity from the other and one learns one is lovable Another key to spiritual growth is self knowledge Self acceptance and self knowledge are the beginning of the spiritual life Developing emotional awareness leads to greater self knowledge Emotions need to be listened to and interpreted as part of the development of self knowledge and self acceptance This emotional awareness is the beginning of understanding the negative patterns of behavior that comes out of one s woundedness With the healing presence of Christ through prayer one can experience God s love for them in one s woundedness and know that God dwells within and desires to transform and heal wounds with his love This affirms one in one s worthiness enabling one to be able to open to receive love and then return love In spiritual direction one seeks a relationship with God It is a sacred time of growth conversion and transformation It is a time when one looks at a relationship with self others and God One is empowered by the grace of God to enter this process and continue the development of these relationships The ministry of spiritual direction is called to be the sacred place where humanity in their fullness meets their God and accepts his mercy When one surrenders to this grace one is surrendering to love mercy and affirmation One s self image and relationship with others and God are touched and experienced in a new light
