Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1992 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70

Alternatives to Social Security James Midgley,Michael W. Sherraden,1997-04-22 Few days pass without front page newspaper articles about the disarray in the American social security system and the oncoming crisis of exploding costs and imbalance between workers and retirees New proposals to address these issues constantly surface from presidential candidates Congress and interest groups Yet few recognize that in the second half of the twentieth century there has been a global expansion of social security systems and there may be lessons to be learned from other societies This collection of essays is designed to examine the diverse approaches developed in Australia Britain Chile Hong Kong Kenya and Singapore By analyzing different approaches and different degrees of success those debating public policy may find alternatives that can be adapted to meet American social needs Midgley and Sherraden have drawn together experts on the systems developed in Australia Britain Chile Hong Kong Kenya and Singapore they explore the different approaches and the different degrees of success these societies have confronted An international perspective can enhance understanding of the problems and offer a sound basis for evaluating policy proposals that may reform the social security system Scholars researchers policymakers and the reading public will find this a stimulating collection As Senator John Breaux notes This book is essential reading for anyone serious about addressing the inevitable problems that will face the U S Social Security system

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1984 The Political Economy of Privatisation in Singapore Linda Low,1991 Taxation And Economic Development Among Pacific Asian Countries Richard A Musgrave,Ching-Huei Chang,John Riew,Gerardo Sicat,2019-09-05 An array of case studies exploring evolving tax policy and economic development in Pacific Asian countries Southeast Asian Economic Development Hal Hill,1993

The Political Economy of a City-state Revisited Linda Low,2006 The book gives an insight of how Singapore is government made in its growth and development It uses a political economy approach to analyse how a small open city state through market supporting public policies has managed to overcome many economic and socio political odds Singapore Changes Guard Garry Rodan,1993 Singapore Changes Guard offers a comprehensive critical analysis of a fascinating juncture in this city state s development Social Insecurity in the New Millennium Linda Low,Tar Choon Aw,2004 The Central Provident Fund CPF which used to work for Singapore as a distinctive national social security and welfare protection scheme has come up against a myriad of challenges in a world more volatile uncertain disruptive and risky than it was at the time of its inception Without some form of redistribution the CPF model has become inadequate in the provision of social welfare safety and protection The aim of the book is to review the origin and evolution of the CPF and the role it plays in both the social security and political economy of Singapore The authors maintain that the CPF is still a cornerstone in the growth and development of Singapore and that even though it is past its golden age the next page in its history can still be illustrious

Professionals at the Crossroads in Singapore Linda Low,1996 Books about Singapore ,1996 The Political Economy of a City-state Linda Low,1998 It uses a political economy approach to analyse how Singapore made its growth and development Malaysia@50: Economic Development, Distribution, Disparities Jomo Kwame Sundaram,Chong Hui Wee,2013-09-16 Malaysia has grown and changed a great deal since it was formed on 16 September 1963 It was then seen as an unlikely nation hastily put together as a federation of British controlled territories in the region Brunei s refusal to join at the eleventh hour and Singapore s secession before its second birthday only seemed to confirm such doubts Yet it has not only survived but even thrived often cited as a developing country worthy of emulation Ruled by the same ruling coalition since the mid 1950s it has been tempting to emphasize continuities and there certainly have been many Looking back at its last half century this volume first considers changes in development policy in response to national as well as international developments The remaining three parts consider how public policy has been influenced by and has in turn influenced economic distribution public finance and economic federalism Besides the familiar focus on ethnic disparities regional and other distribution issues are considered The discussion of government taxation as well as spending also focuses on distribution implications Although constitutionally a federation Malaysia has been more centralized than most federal states The way forward requires greater sensitivity to the complex political economy of Malaysia s unlikely but nonetheless resilient federation and ruling coalition This book is published and distributed worldwide by World Scientific Publishing Co Pte Ltd except Malaysia Think Tanks and Governance in the Asia-Pacific Region John W. Langford,K. Lorne Brownsey,1991

Resources in Education ,2001 The Economics of Centralism and Local Autonomy P. Bryson,2010-10-17 A comparative analysis of the process of public sector transition from central planning to market democracy It is the story of the difficulties and complexities of moving to a system of greater autonomy for the subnational governments of the Czech and Slovak Republics including the future of fiscal policies after the global recession Migrant Workers in Asia Nicole Constable,2013-09-13 This book provides rich and provocative comparative studies of South and Southeast Asian domestic workers who migrate to other parts of Asia These studies range from Hong Kong Macau and Singapore to Yemen Israel Jordan and the UAE Conceptually and methodologically this book challenges us to move beyond established regional divides and proposes new ways of mapping inter Asian connections The authors view migrant workers within a wider spatial context of intersecting groups and trajectories through time Keenly attentive to the importance of migrants of diverse nationalities who have labored in multiple regions this book examines intimate connections and distant divides in the social lives and politics of migrant workers across time and space Collectively the authors propose new themes new comparative frameworks and new methodologies for considering vastly different degrees of social support structures and political activism and the varied meanings of citizenship and state responsibility in sending and receiving countries They highlight the importance of formal institutions that shape and promote migratory labor advocacy for workers or curtail workers rights as well as the social identities and cultural practices and beliefs that may be linked to new inter ethnic social and political affiliations that traverse and also transform inter Asian spaces and pathways to mobility This book was published as a special issue of Critical Asian Studies Chinese Global Production Networks in ASEAN Young-Chan Kim,2015-12-11 This volume examines the role of Chinese businesses and industries in Asian production networks By presenting different case studies of the Asian region the contributors illustrate how China successfully exports the Chinese business model based on Chinese ethics social networks and production integration The contributors also discuss topics such as the implications and ramifications of global product sharing within Asia the prospects of free trade agreements in Asia the economic advantages of Chinese family lineage and Guanxi an influential Chinese network collaboration of overseas Chinese with mainland Chinese as well as direct Chinese business involvement and investment in other Asian countries Systems Thinking Analyses for Health Policy and Systems Development Jo. M. Martins,Indra Pathmanathan,David T. Tan,Shiang Cheng Lim,Pascale Allotey,2021-08-26 Health systems are fluid and their components are interdependent in complex ways Policymakers academics and students continually endeavour to understand how to manage health systems to improve the health of populations However previous scholarship has often failed to engage with the intersections and interactions of health with a multitude of other systems and determinants This book ambitiously takes on the challenge of presenting health systems as a coherent whole by applying a systems thinking lens It focuses on Malaysia as a case study to demonstrate the evolution of a health system from a low income developing status to one of the most resilient health systems today A rich collaboration of multidisciplinary academics working with policymakers who were at the coalface of decision making and practitioners with decades of experience provides a candid analysis of what worked and what did not The result is an engaging informative and thought provoking intervention in the debate This title is Open Access Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988
