Beyond Uncle Tom's Cabin Sylvia Mayer, Monika Mueller, 2011-08-05 Ever since feminist scholarship began to reintroduce Harriet Beecher Stowe's writings to the American literary canon in the 1970s critical interest in her work has steadily increased Beyond Uncle Tom's Cabin The Writings of Harriet Beecher Stowe edited by Sylvia Mayer and Monika Mueller shows that during her long writing and publishing career Stowe was a highly prolific writer who targeted diverse audiences dealt with drastically changing economic commercial and cultural contexts and wrote in a diversity of genres

Liberty and Insanity in the Age of the American Revolution Sarah L. Swedberg, 2020-12-04 In Liberty and Insanity in the Age of the American Revolution Sarah L. Swedberg examines how conceptions of mental illness intersected with American society law and politics during the early American Republic Swedberg illustrates how concerns about insanity raised difficult questions about the nature of governance Revolutionaries built the American government based on rational principles but could not protect it from irrational actors that they feared could cause the body politic to grow mentally or physically ill This book is recommended for students and scholars of history political science legal studies sociology literature psychology and public health

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship
