Green,2009 This pioneering book reveals how the music classroom can draw upon the world of popular musicians informal learning practices so as to recognize and foster a range of musical skills and knowledge that have long been overlooked within music education It investigates how far informal learning practices are possible and desirable in a classroom context how they can affect young teenagers musical skill and knowledge acquisition The annual report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills 2010/11 Great Britain: Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills,2011-11-22 Ofsted today publishes the Annual Report 2010 11 drawing on over 31 000 inspection visits across the schools early years children s social care and learning and skills sectors in England Launched by Her Majesty s Chief Inspector Miriam Rosen this in depth analysis provides an insight into the quality of those services for children and learners what is working well and what needs to improve The report highlights how an inadequate inspection judgement whether for a children s home or a school a college or a nursery can be an important catalyst for change For example the total number of schools in a category of concern that is judged to be in special measures or being given a notice to improve reduced from 553 at the end of last year to 451 at the end of August 2011 Over a fifth of schools judged inadequate at their previous inspection were found to be good or better when inspected again this year In addition schools are now emerging from special measures faster than the previous year after an average of 18 months rather than 20 In inspections of local authorities children s social care where Ofsted completed the second full year of unannounced inspection of contact referral and assessment arrangements weaknesses identified the previous year had been addressed in the great majority of cases

The Chinese Dream and Zhejiang's Practice—General Report Volume Yingqiu Liu,Qunhui Huang,Jinling Wang,2019-07-03 The book is the first and general report of a series of six that reviews the practice of China Dream policy by the Zhejiang provincial government China Dream is one of the most important state policies established by the present Chinese government and how to convert this abstract national strategy to concrete practice is still much of a challenge for local governments The book summarizes the six facets of government administrative practices in economics politics culture society ecology and construction of the Party It serves as the skeleton of the series and outlines the whole structure It will help scholars and political practitioners worldwide better understand the statecraft of China and the practice China has experienced Progress, Change and Development in Early Childhood Education and Care Elizabeth Coates,Dorothy Faulkner,2017-10-02 In 2000 the Millennium Development Goals set out targets aimed at creating a safer more prosperous and more equitable world If these goals were to be achieved children s lives would indeed be transformed In this collection achievements against these targets are identified with each contributor examining the progress made in early years provision in Australia China England Greece the Netherlands Portugal South Africa and Sweden They highlight the priorities and agendas of their respective governments and focus on the trends and issues which are particularly relevant to each situation thereby revealing the social and educational inequalities that persist across countries A common theme running through this volume concerns the political tensions that arise when governments and educators hold fundamentally different views about the nature and purpose of early years education and the needs of children and families It is clear that although the past two decades have seen many changes in attitude towards the importance of the early years of life politically economically and environmentally much still remains to be done if the Millennium Development Goals for young children and their families are to be fully met Despite this this volume demonstrates that those who work in this area continue to experience a deep concern for the well being of young children which transcends cultures frontiers and political and sectarian divides This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Early Years Education
