Brettell,Paul Hayes Tucker,Natalie Henderson Lee,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2009 Robert Lehman 1891 1969 one of the foremost art collectors of his generation embraced the work of both traditional and modern masters This volume catalogues 130 nineteenth and twentieth century paintings that are now part of the Robert Lehman Collection at The Metropolitan Museum of Art The majority of the works are by artists based in France but there are also examples from the United States Latin America and India reflecting Lehman s global interests The catalogue opens with outstanding paintings by Ingres Theodore Rousseau and Corot among other early nineteenth century artists They are joined by an exemplary selection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist works by Degas Renoir Sisley Pissarro Seurat Signac Van Gogh C zanne and Gauguin Twentieth century masters represented here include Bonnard Matisse Rouault Dal and Balthus There are also newly researched modern works by Vicente do Rego Monteiro Kees van Dongen Dietz Edzard and D G Kulkarni dizi Robert Lehman s cultivated taste for nineteenth century French academic practitioners and his intuitive eye for emerging young artists of his own time are documented and discussed Three hundred comparative illustrations supplement the catalogue entries as do extensively researched provenance information exhibition histories and references The volume also includes a bibliography and indexes Dictionary Of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook,2005-05-15 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought Impressionism John I.

Clancy,2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet C zanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history s most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes Modern Art on Display K. Porter

Aichele,2016-05-19 Modern Art on Display The Legacies of Six Collectors is structured as a sequence of case studies that pair collectors of modern art with artists they particularly favored Duncan Phillips and Augustus Vincent Tack Albert Barnes and Chaim Soutine Albert Eugene Gallatin and Juan Gris Lillie Bliss and Paul C zanne Etta Cone and Henri Matisse G David Thompson and Paul Klee The case studies are linked by a thematic focus on the integral relationship between the collectors acquired knowledge about the work they amassed and their innovative display models This focus brings a new perspective to the history of collecting and interpreting modern art in America for nearly half a century 1915 1960 By examining the books the collectors themselves read and analyzing archival photographs of their displays the author makes a case for the historical significance of how the collectors presented the art they acquired before their collections were institutionalized The
