Great Light Cage:

Elizabeth Bishop and Her Art Lloyd Schwartz, Sybil P. Estess, 1983 As the first book length collection to focus on Elizabeth Bishop this book has become an essential resource on this poet now recognized as one of America's greatest artists whose poetry as Harold Bloom says in his foreword stands at the edge where what is most worth saying is all but impossible to say The volume includes major essays by David Kalstone Helen Vendler and Robert Pinsky among others a chronology of short articles and reviews poems memoirs and memorials many by major poets among them Bishop's three most notable supporters Marianne Moore Robert Lowell and Randall Jarrell and an illuminating selection of work by Bishop herself some of which is unavailable anywhere else Publisher's description The Great Light Cage Robert Flanagan, 2000 This volume brings together the poems from Robert Flanagan's earlier books Body 1970 Incisions 1972 Gravity 1978 and On the Ground 1990 and a number of new poems We find a continuity a flow between the various poems and the different books There is a consistency in language and style a marvellous coherence The individual poems are self contained and yet echo other poems Each book folds into the next There is an urgency apparent here an organic process at work The Cambridge

Companion to Elizabeth Bishop Angus Cleghorn, Jonathan Ellis, 2014-02-17 Elizabeth Bishop is increasingly recognized as one of the twentieth century's most important and original poets Initially celebrated for the minute detail of her descriptions what John Ashbery memorably called her thinginess Bishop's reputation has risen dramatically since her death in part due to the publication of new work including letters stories and visual art as well as a controversial volume of uncollected poems drafts and fragments This Companion engages with key debates surrounding the interpretation and reception of Bishop's writing in relation to questions of biography the natural world and politics Individual chapters focus on texts such as North and South Questions of Travel and Geography III while offering fresh readings of the significance of Nova Scotia Massachusetts and Brazil to Bishop's life and work This volume explores the full range of Bishop's artistic achievements and the extent to which the posthumous publications have contributed to her enduring popularity Three Plays of Maureen known in the past but highly deserving of attention The anthology confers legitimacy on the Objectivist poets the so called Proletariat poets of the 1930s famous poets who fell into neglect or were the victims of critical backlash Edna St Vincent Millay poets whose true worth has only become clear with the passing of time Weldon Kees Among poets missing from Richard Ellmann's 1976 volume but published here are W H Auden Charles Bukowski Donald Justice Carolyn Kizer Kenneth Koch Stanley Kunitz Emma Lazarus Mina Loy Howard Moss Lorine Niedecker George Oppen James Schuyler Elinor Wylie and Louis Zukosky Many more women are represented outstanding poets such as Josephine Jacobsen Josephine Miles May Swenson Numerous African American poets receive their due and unexpected figures such as the musicians Bob Dylan Patti Smith and Robert Johnson have a place in this important work This stunning collection redefines the great canon of American poetry from its origins in the 17th century right up to the present It is a must have anthology for anyone interested in American literature and a book that is sure to be consulted debated and treasured for years to come Record of the Great Exhibition 1862 Weltausstellung (1862, London), 1862 Deep Skin Peggy Anne Samuels, 2010 Elizabeth Bishop who constructed poems of crystalline visual accuracy is often regarded as the most painterly of twentieth century American poets In Deep Skin Peggy Samuels explores Bishop's attraction to painters who experimented with dynamic interactions between surface and depth She tells the story of the development of Bishop's poetics in relation to her engagement with mid century art particularly the work of Paul Klee Kurt Schwitters and Alexander Calder Contemporary conversations about the visual arts circulating among art historians and reviewers shaped Bishop's experience and illuminated aesthetic problems for which she needed to find solutions The book explores in particular the closest intellectual context for Bishop her friend Margaret Miller who worked as a research associate and later associate curator at the Museum of Modern Art Samuels traces a complex and rich four way metaphor in her portrait of Bishop's methods surface of verse surface of painting skin and interface between mind and world The visual arts helped Bishop to develop a new model for lyric the surface of verse becomes a threshold that opens in two directions to nature and to the interior of the poet Bishop's poetics is very much about the touch of the materials of the mind and world inside the materiality of verse Translating and revising some of the concepts from the visual arts in her own linguistic medium she begins to experiment with modulation absorption and incorporation across multiple registers of experience Elizabeth Bishop Susan McCabe, 2010-11-01 Reports of the Late John Smeaton John Smeaton, 1812 Reports of the Late Mr. John Smeaton, F.R.S.
