Great Moments In Cinema Part 3:

The Instrumentalist ,1997      The LEGO Movie Dana Polan,2020-11-10 What happens when we set out to understand LEGO not just as a physical object but as an idea an icon of modernity an image maybe even a moving image To what extent can the LEGO brick fit into the multimedia landscape of popular culture especially film culture today Launching from these questions Dana Polan traces LEGO from thing to film and asserts that The LEGO Movie is an exemplar of key directions in mainstream cinema combining the visceral impact of effects and spectacle with ironic self awareness and savvy critique of mass culture as it reaches for new heights of creativity Incorporating insights from conversations with producer Dan Lin and writer directors Phil Lord and Chris Miller Polan examines the production and reception of The LEGO Movie and closely analyzes the film within popular culture at large and in relation to LEGO as a toy and commodity He identifies the film's particular stylistic and narrative qualities its grasp of and response to the culture industry and what makes it a distinctive work of animation within the seeming omnipresence of animation in Hollywood and reveals why the blockbuster film in all its silliness and seriousness stands apart as a divergent cultural work      Tracking King Kong Cynthia Marie Erb,2009 Studies the cultural impact and audience reception of King Kong from the 1933 release of the original film until today

The Philosophy of Documentary Film David LaRocca,2016-12-20 The spirit that founded the volume and guided its development is radically inter and transdisciplinary Dispatches have arrived from anthropology communications English film studies including theory history criticism literary studies including theory history criticism media and screen studies cognitive cultural studies narratology philosophy poetics politics and political theory and as a special aspect of the volume theorist filmmakers make their thoughts known as well Consequently the critical reflections gathered here are decidedly pluralistic and heterogeneous inviting not bracketing or partitioning the dynamism and diversity of the arts humanities social sciences and even natural sciences in so far as we are biological beings who are trying to track our cognitive and perceptual understanding of a nonbiological thing namely film whether celluloid based or in digital form these disciplines so habitually cordoned off from one another are brought together into a shared conversation about a common object and domain of investigation This book will be of interest to theorists and practitioners of nonfiction film to emerging and established scholars contributing to the secondary literature and to those who are intrigued by the kinds of questions and claims that seem native to nonfiction film and who may wish to explore some critical responses to them written in engaging language

Nichols Bill Nichols,1985 The Spectator ,1920 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Survival of Soap Opera Sam Ford,Abigail De Kosnik,C. Lee Harrington,2010-11-03 The soap opera one of U S television s longest running and most influential formats is on the brink Declining ratings have been attributed to an increasing number of women working outside the home and to an intensifying competition for viewers attention from cable and the Internet Yet soaps influence has expanded with serial narratives becoming commonplace on most prime time TV programs The Survival of Soap Opera investigates the causes of their dwindling popularity describes their impact on TV and new media culture and glean lessons from their complex history for twenty first century media industries The book contains contributions from established soap scholars such as Robert C Allen Louise Spence Nancy Baym and Horace Newcomb along with essays and interviews by emerging scholars fans and Web site moderators and soap opera producers writers and actors from ABC s General Hospital CBS s The Young and the Restless and The Bold and the Beautiful and other shows This diverse group of voices seeks to intervene in the discussion about the fate of soap operas at a critical juncture and speaks to longtime soap viewers television studies scholars and media professionals alike Australian Cinema After Mabo Felicity Collins, Therese Davis, 2004-10-27 Publisher Description Goodbye Cinema, Hello Cinephilia Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2010-10-15 1 Position Papers 2 Actors Actors Writers Directors Filmmakers 3 Films 4 Criticism Cinema's Original Sin Paul McEwan, 2022-12-13 For over a century cinephiles and film scholars have had to grapple with an ugly artifact that sits at the beginnings of film history D W Griffith s profoundly racist epic The Birth of a Nation inspired controversy and protest at its 1915 release and was defended as both a true history of Reconstruction although it was based on fiction and a new achievement in cinematic art Paul McEwan examines the long and shifting history of its reception revealing how the film became not just a cinematic landmark but also an influential force in American aesthetics and intellectual life In every decade since 1915 filmmakers museums academics programmers and film fans have had to figure out how to deal with this troublesome object and their choices have profoundly influenced both film culture and the notion that films can be works of art Some critics tried to set aside the film s racism and concentrate on the form while others tried to relegate that racism safely to the past McEwan argues that from the earliest film retrospectives in the 1920s to the rise of remix culture in the present day controversies about this film and its meaning have profoundly shaped our understandings of film race and art The ^ASublimity of Document Scott MacDonald, 2019-07-01 The Sublimity of Document Cinema as Diorama is a collection of in depth substantive interviews with filmmakers devoted to documenting places and events that most of us never get to see often places and events that have considerable influence on our lives British Crime Cinema Steve Chibnall, Robert Murphy, 2005-07-27 This is the first substantial study of British cinema s most neglected genre Bringing together original work from some of the leading writers on British popular film this book includes interviews with key directors Mike Hodges Get Carter and Donald Cammell Performance It discusses an abundance of films including acclaimed recent crime films such as Shallow Grave Shopping and Face early classics like They Made Me A Fugitive acknowledged classics such as Brighton Rock and The Long Good Friday 50s seminal works including The Lavender Hill Mob and The Ladykillers A Film-Philosophy of Ecology and Enlightenment Rupert Read, 2018-10-17 Inspired by the philosophy of Wittgenstein and his idea that the purpose of real philosophical thinking is not to discover something new but to show in a strikingly different light what is already there this book provides philosophical readings of a number of arthouse and Hollywood films Each chapter contains a discussion of two films one explored in greater detail and the other analyzed as a minor key which reveals the possibility for the book's ideas to be applied across different films registers and genres The readings are not only interpretive but they offer a way of thinking and feeling about with and through films which is genuinely transformative Rupert Read's main contention is that certain films can bring about a change in how we see the world He advocates an ecological approach to film philosophy analysis arguing that film can re shape the viewer's relationship to the environment and other living beings The transformative wake up call of these films is enlightenment in its true sense The result is a book that ambitiously aims to change though film how we think of ourselves and our place in the world at a time when such change is more needed than ever before

Screened Stages Rachel Joseph,2024-02-28

This book is devoted to tracing the variety of ways that theatre theatricality and performance are embedded in Hollywood cinema as screened stages A screened stage is the literal or metaphorical appearance of a stage on screen When the Hollywood style emerged in cinema history it traumatically severed the entwined relationship between film and theatre The book makes the argument that cinema longs for theatre after that separation The histories of stage and screen persistently crisscross one another making their separation problematic The screened stage from the end of the nineteenth century until now offers a miniaturized version of cinema and theatre history Moments of the stage within the screen compress historical styles and movements into saturated representations on film Such examples overflow the cinematic screen into singular manifestations of presentness Screened stages uncover what it means to be simultaneously present and absent This book would be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre film dance and performance

The Cinema of Jia Zhangke Cecilia

Mello,2019-07-25 Shortlisted for the BAFTSS 2020 Award for Best Monograph Despite his films being subjected to censorship and denigration in his native China Jia Zhangke has become the country's leading independent film director internationally

Seen as one of world cinema's foremost auteurs he has played a crucial role in documenting and reflecting upon China's era of intense transformations since the 1990s Cecilia Mello provides in depth analysis of Jia's unique body of work from his early films Xiao Wu and Platform to experimental quasi documentary 24 City and the audacious Mountains May Depart Mello suggests that Jia's particular expression of the realist mode is shaped by the aesthetics of other Chinese artistic traditions allowing Jia to unearth memories both personal and collective still lingering within the ever changing landscapes of contemporary China Mello's groundbreaking study opens a door into Chinese cinema and culture addressing the nature of the so called impure cinematographic art and the complex representation of China through the ages Foreword by Walter Salles
