Film Music: A History James Wierzbicki, 2009-01-21 Film Music A History explains the development of film music by considering large scale aesthetic trends and structural developments alongside socioeconomic technological cultural and philosophical circumstances The book's four large parts are given over to Music and the Silent Film 1894 1927 Music and the Early Sound Film 1895 1933 Music in the Classical Style Hollywood Film 1933 1960 and Film Music in the Post Classic Period 1958 2008 Whereas most treatments of the subject are simply chronicles of great film scores and their composers this book offers a genuine history of film music in terms of societal changes and technological and economic developments within the film industry Instead of celebrating film music masterpieces it deals logically and thoroughly with the complex machine whose smooth running allowed those occasional masterpieces to happen and whose periodic adjustments prompted the large scale twists and turns in film music's path
