The Wrong Kind of Jew Hen Mazzig, 2022-11-07 When people ask what I m passionate about Judaism likely comes first If you ask where I m from the answer is Israel so usually a dead giveaway But if you dive into my ethnicity or race I will tell you that my family comes from North Africa and the Middle East Tunisia and Iraq to be more specific So you re Arab people often ask And I respond no I m a Jew I m Mizrahi The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa are known as Mizrahim But few people Jewish and non Jewish alike know of us There are many reasons for that one of which is that for too many Mizrahim are the wrong kind of Jew We re not only unfamiliar but our culture shatters stereotypes and unspoken rules We break the expectations many hold about Jews and race the Middle East and religion and even politics and oppression Because of my Mizrahi heritage I don t fit into what many people see as the secular cultural tenets of Judaism I like bagels but I don t consider them my cuisine I don t have opinions on Katz Deli or whether or not they are better than Langers What kind of meat is Pastrami I m still not sure My grandma doesn t make matzo ball soup when I m sick or even on the holidays Instead she s making a stew that most of my Jewish friends can t pronounce Yes my grandparents were in the Holocaust Can t get more Jewish than that right But their streets were never lined with swastikas or German soldiers No one scrawled Jude on their homes or businesses They didn't survive Auschwitz or Dachau or Buchenwald They were due to be sent to Nazi camps with unknown names Their neighbors were shot and raped in antisemitic riots which most people even most synagogues don't commemorate For some I'm not just the wrong kind of Jew I'm a bad Jew I'm bad at meeting expectations of what Jewish looks like sounds like thinks like and means But I have the audacity to know that I am a bad Jew and feel good about it
