Great Commanders in Action National Historical Society (Leesburg, Va.),1996 U.S. Coast Guard: America's Maritime Guardian U.S. Coast Guard,2011-09-05 Since its original printing in 2002 Pub 1 has served as the Coast Guard's capstone doctrinal publication It defines its principles and culture It describes its history missions purpose and ethos It communicates who and what the Coast Guard is and how it accomplishes its missions This May 2009 update includes data on roles and missions forces historic evolution and values The Art of Action Stephen Bungay,2011-02-16 What do you want me to do This question is the enduring management issue a perennial problem that Stephen Bungay shows has an old solution that is counter intuitive and yet common sense The Art of Action is a thought provoking and fresh look at how managers can turn planning into execution and execution into results Drawing on his experience as a consultant senior manager and a highly respected military historian Stephen Bungay takes a close look at the nineteenth century Prussian Army which built its agility on the initiative of its highly empowered junior officers to show business leaders how they can build more effective productive organizations Based on a theoretical framework which has been tested in practice over 150 years Bungay shows how the approach known as mission command has been applied in businesses as diverse as pharmaceuticals and F1 racing today The Art of Action is scholarly but engaging rigorous but pragmatic and shows how common sense can sometimes be surprising Studies in Minor Tactics, 1915 United States. Army Service Schools (Fort Leavenworth, Kan.),1915 Corps Commanders Douglas E. Delaney,2012-01-01 The five British and Canadian generals depicted in Corps Commanders were a surprisingly eclectic lot one a consummate actor one a quiet gentleman one a master bureaucrat one a brainy sort with little will and the last a brain with will to spare And yet they all fit readily into British Commonwealth armies and fought their corps in similar fashion All three Canadians controlled British formations and served under British army commanders and the two Britons worked for and led Canadians as well Such inter army adjustments were relatively simple because they all spoke the same language a common method for solving military problems and communicating solutions Like all senior commanders in the British Commonwealth they learned the language of the staff colleges at Camberley and Quetta and so did the staff officers that served them This allowed a gunner from Montreal to understand a guardsman from London with ease no small advantage when coordinating coalition battles involving tens of thousands of troops In probing how these corps commanders fought Douglas E Delaney has produced an invaluable study for anyone interested in coalition warfare interoperability or how men managed large formations in war Studies in minor tactics, 1915 United States,1918 Combat Systems and Weapons Department Management R. author French army officer Charles Ardant du Picq 1821 1870 Updated to provide a more complete and accurate biographical and historical framework for understanding its meaning and import this edition deftly translated introduced and annotated by noted military historian Roger Spiller offers a new generation of readers the benefit of Ardant du Picq s unique insight into the nature of warfare Nothing Ardant du Picq asserts can be prescribed wisely in an army without an exact understanding of its ultimate instrument man and his morale at the defining instant of combat Accordingly Battle Studies the first systematic exploration of human behavior in the extremities of combat focuses squarely on the tactical realm its author knew so well Eschewing grand military theories and strategies Ardant du Picq draws on his real world experience especially during the Crimean War and the Siege of Sebastopol where he was captured to examine what motivates a soldier to fight what creates cohesion or disorder what gives a commander tactical control and what makes reason give way to instinct in short the essence of the science of combat The London Gazette ,1916 Joint Operational Warfare Milan N. Vego,2009 Smallholder farmers and pastoralists fulfil an invaluable yet undervalued role in conserving biodiversity They act as guardians of locally adapted livestock breeds that can make use of even marginal environments under tough climatic conditions and therefore are a crucial resource for food security But in addition by sustaining animals on natural vegetation and as part of local ecosystems these communities also make a significant contribution to the conservation of wild biodiversity and of cultural landscapes This publication provides a glimpse into the often intricate knowledge systems that pastoralists and smallholder farmers have developed for the management of their breeds in specific production systems and it also describes the multitude of threats and challenges these often marginalized communities have to cope with
