Seeing through the Lies Vonda Skelton, 2008-02-01

We have been seduced by half truths and whole lies since time began. Remember the garden. In Seeing through the Lies, author and speaker Vonda Skelton humorously addresses the disappointments women experience as they search for truth while believing a lie. Each chapter opens with amusing anecdotes from real life and ends with answers and guidance straight from God's Word. Exploring topics such as pride, fear, motherhood and the busyness of life, this book offers practical steps for peeling away the layers of deceit and finding the joy of living in real truth. Through honesty and humility, Vonda takes women on a hilarious journey through all things female and brings them to a soul searching point of decision. Readers will identify with both the positive and negative examples of women in the Bible and will be encouraged by Scripture as well as quotes from notable men and women. Each chapter ends with five steps for exposing the lie and embracing the truth of God's Word.

The Cultural Roots of Strategic Intelligence Gino LaPaglia, 2019-11-20

Strategic Intelligence is a form of meaning that promises the possibility of strategic advantage, dignity, the achievement of objective and the fulfillment of potential in hostile environments. In The Cultural Roots of Strategic Intelligence, Gino LaPaglia demonstrates that the strategic aspect of reason arising in human experience is encoded as value and born by culture as a strategic resource has been encoded as values that have been memorialized in culturally authoritative sources in various Eurasian cultures for thousands of years. These sources have validated a strategic orientation in the world, legitimized the strategist as a heroic identity and transmitted a coherent world view that enables the practitioner of strategy to overcome asymmetric threat. By excavating the provenance of strategic thought expressed in the cultural identity of the strategist in the most culturally authoritative mythological, literary, philosophical and religious sources and excavating the underlying strategic values expressed in cultural products, LaPaglia demonstrates that the strategic aspect of human rationality is one of the most basic structural dynamics of human meaning and that the transmission of this strategic way of being and acting in
