Bulletin - Association Des Cartothèques Et Archives Cartographiques Du Canada ,2005 Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel John Russell,2000 Nonfiction novels have usually been associated with the new journalism writers of the 1960s such as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer and Truman Capote Yet this form has long commanded a key position in the literary canon as John Russell now reveals Russell identifies eleven major works not usually thought of as nonfiction novels such as Isak Dinesen s Out of Africa and E E Cummings s The Enormous Room to create a new definition of the genre He shows that journalistic writing is characterized by a reporter s proprietary stance which undermines reciprocity with subjects while true nonfiction novels feature greater reciprocity and also employ such techniques as circular narrative and bricolage Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel contributes to ongoing explorations of literary forms and offers wise commentary on how writing about real life can become art In the Kacch Kevin McGrath,2015-01-06 This personal narrative about life in a remote desert region of western India tells of how love of place and love of person find their equilibrium in a world far removed from modernity Yet this small distant land of kingship and pastoral life is rapidly being eroded by the new India of commerce and industrialization The author describes how an ancient society is transformed by the culture of consumption where the lyrical beauty of balance exchange and loyalty is translated into a single market economy The people and places of post Partition Kacch where even the land and value systems of a lately independent India now appear in a nostalgic light are described in detail This is a record of private emotion and physical terrain of traditions and of profound social practice Military Review ,1994 Professional Journal of the United States Army ,1994 Australian Aboriginal Studies ,2005 Making Scenes Iain Davidson, April Nowell,2021-04-13 Dating back to at least 50 000 years ago rock art is one of the oldest forms of human symbolic expression Geographically it spans all the continents on Earth Scenes are common in some rock art and recent work suggests that there are some hints of expression that looks like some of the conventions of western scenic art In this unique volume examining the nature of scenes in rock art researchers examine what defines a scene what are the necessary elements of a scene and what can the evolutionary history tell us about storytelling sequential memory and cognitive evolution among ancient and living cultures The Coming Singularity Gary A. Freitas,2022-08-31 As we approach 2050 it is projected that human consciousness will encounter a superior intelligence for the very first time artificial machine intelligence It is important for us to understand the evolutionary impact of this event but also that we are being altered from the inside out for the singularity to arise Are we ready Will we be adaptive How will we change The Coming Singularity explores the psychological impact of the changes coming our way and the many adaptations we will have to make We are transitioning to a world of one degree of separation with only the illusion of privacy autonomy and anonymity All of us are undergoing a transition to an electronic identity one that can reach back and change the real you The question going forward will be who is the real you A cluster of psychological symptoms are evolving from our technology interface Identity

Diffusion Its key feature is the de realization of life Direct brain to technology interfaces will soon render our brains an open source forum We need to discuss who is in there and why The impact of e technology on human identity will be profound but it is also a prerequisite for machine intelligence to arise We need to discuss this We humans reside in complex dynamical networks The goal of artificial intelligence will be to evolve and stabilize these networks And we may not be the priority

Nomad's Land Andrea E. Duffy,2019-12-01 During the nineteenth century the development and codification of forest science in France were closely linked to Provence s time honored tradition of mobile pastoralism which formed a major part of the economy At the beginning of the century pastoralism also featured prominently in the economies and social traditions of North Africa and southwestern Anatolia until French forest agents implemented ideas and practices for forest management in these areas aimed largely at regulating and marginalizing Mediterranean mobile pastoral traditions These practices changed not only landscapes but also the social order of these three Mediterranean societies and the nature of French colonial administration In Nomad s Land Andrea E Duffy investigates the relationship between Mediterranean mobile pastoralism and nineteenth century French forestry through case studies in Provence French colonial Algeria and Ottoman Anatolia By restricting the use of shared spaces foresters helped bring the populations of Provence and Algeria under the control of the state and French scientific forestry became a medium for state initiatives to sedentarize mobile pastoral groups in Anatolia Locals responded through petitions arson violence compromise and adaptation Duffy shows that French efforts to promote scientific forestry both internally and abroad were intimately tied to empire building and paralleled the solidification of Western narratives condemning the pastoral tradition leading to sometimes tragic outcomes for both the environment and pastoralists

Here Igor writes in his diary on January 3 1989 The Holy Vvedensk monastery The blessed Optina Desert always hoping for the mercy of the Mother of God on the banks of the river flowing into the eternal life nurtured a wonderful tree of old age and you became like a city to him who descended from heaven where God dwells from men taking away every tear from their eyes let us also rejoice brethren we will praise Christ the King and our God and we will glorify the Lady of the world the Most

Pure Virgin as a haven for salvation has been given to us and instructors the reverend fathers Why is there so much misunderstanding of the spiritual word in people It is difficult for people to penetrate into the meaning of the word Igor writes it is difficult to familiarize with the power of the word and thus the consciousness of the truth is difficult only by the action power of sin This is a consequence of the fall the transgression of God s commandment Adam did not listen to the word that is he rejected himself from understanding the meaning as if he was separated from him and the instantly formed gap filled sin The way of restoring the possibility of listening to the Word and comprehending Him and joining Him is the meaning of our labors There is no final finishing or maybe it was not necessary for him the diary was not intended for prying eyes But now we are reading these penitential appeals to the Lord of extraordinary spiritual beauty Where will I receive tears if not from You O God it says there Where am I going on the day of sorrow if not to Your temple Master Where will I find consolation if not in Thy words Holy One Do not reject me Lord and now remember me Having a divine mind as if a God given infant You have abhorred the pagan delights you wise But having fallen in love with parental piety Ascend by virtue as on a ladder from strength to strength You have acquired the grace of God Akathist to the Holy Great Martyr Demetrius Thessalonian wonderworker Ikos 2

Assembling the Centre: Architecture for Indigenous Cultures Janet McGaw, Anoma Pieris, 2014-11-13 Metropolitan Indigenous Cultural Centres have become a focal point for making Indigenous histories and contemporary cultures public in settler colonial societies over the past three decades While there are extraordinary success stories there are equally stories that cause concern award winning architecturally designed Indigenous cultural centres that have been abandoned centres that serve the interests of tourists but fail to nourish the cultural interests of Indigenous stakeholders and places for vibrant community gathering that fail to garner the economic and politic support to remain viable Indigenous cultural centres are rarely static They are places of emergence assembled and re assembled along a range of vectors that usually lie beyond the gaze of architecture How might the traditional concerns of architecture site space form function materialities tectonics be reconfigured to express the complex and varied social identities of contemporary Indigenous peoples in colonised nations This book documents a range of Indigenous Cultural Centres across the globe and the processes that led to their development It explores the possibilities for the social and political project of the Cultural Centre that architecture both inhibits and affords Whose idea of architecture counts when designing Indigenous Cultural Centres How does architectural history and contemporary practice territorialise spaces of Indigenous occupation What is architecture for Indigenous cultures and how is it recognised This ambitious and provocative study pursues a new architecture for colonised Indigenous cultures that takes the politics of recognition to its heart It advocates an ethics of mutual engagement as a crucial condition for architectural projects that design across cultural difference The book s structure method and arguments are dialogically assembled around narratives told by Indigenous people of their pursuit of public recognition spatial justice and architectural presence in settler dominated societies Possibilities for decolonising architecture emerge through these accounts Aboriginal Dreaming Paths and Trading Routes Dr Dale Kerwin, 2011-12-07 Highlights the contribution Aboriginal people made in assisting European explorers surveyors and stockmen to open the country for colonisation and explores the interface between Aboriginal possession of the Australian continent and European colonisation and appropriation Roads in the Deserts of Roman Egypt Maciej Paprocki, 2019-07-19 Egypt under the Romans 30 BCE 3rd century CE was a period when local deserts experienced an unprecedented flurry of activity In the Eastern Desert a marked increase in desert traffic came from imperial prospecting quarrying activities and caravans transporting wares to and from the Red Sea ports In the Western Desert resilient camels slowly became primary beasts of burden in desert travel enabling caravaneers to lengthen daily marching distances across previously inhospitable dunes Desert road archaeology has used satellite imaging landscape studies and network analysis to plot desert trail networks with greater accuracy however it is often difficult to date roadside installations and thus assess how these networks evolved in scope and density in reaction to climatic social and technological change Roads in the Deserts of Roman Egypt examines evidence for desert roads in Roman Egypt and assesses Roman influence on the road density in two select desert areas the central and southern section of the Eastern Desert and the central Marmarican Plateau and discusses geographical and social factors influencing road use in the period demonstrating that Roman overseers of these lands adapted remarkably well to local desert conditions improving roads and developing the trail network Crucially the author reconceptualises desert trails as linear corridor structures that follow expedient routes in the desert landscape passing through at least two functional nodes attracting human traffic be those water sources farmlands mines quarries trade hubs military installations or actual settlements The route of least resistance across the desert varied from period to period according to the available road infrastructure and beasts of burden employed Roman administration in Egypt not only increased the density of local desert node networks but also facilitated internodal connections with camel caravans and transformed the Sahara by establishing new or embellishing existing nodes effectively funnelling desert traffic into discernible corridors Significantly not all desert areas of Egypt are equally suited for anthropogenic development but almost all have been optimised in one way or another with road installations built for added comfort and safety of travellers Accordingly the study of how Romans successfully adapted to desert travel is of wider significance to the study of deserts and ongoing expansion due to global warming

Narrative and Narration Warren Buckland, 2020-12-15 From mainstream blockbusters to art house cinema narrative and narration are the driving forces that organize a film Yet attempts to explain these forces are often mired in notoriously complex terminology and dense theory Warren Buckland provides a clear and accessible introduction that explains how narrative and narration work using straightforward language Narrative and Narration distills the basic components of cinematic storytelling into a set of core concepts narrative structure processes of narration and narrative agents The book opens with a discussion of the emergence of narrative and narration in early cinema and proceeds to illustrate key ideas through numerous case studies Each chapter guides readers through different methods that they can use to analyze cinematic storytelling Buckland also discusses how departures from traditional modes such as feminist narratives art cinema and unreliable narrators can complicate and corroborate the book's understanding of narrative and narration Examples include mainstream films both classic and contemporary art house films of every stripe and two relatively new styles of cinematic storytelling the puzzle film and those driven by a narrative logic derived from video games Narrative and Narration is a concise introduction that provides readers with fundamental tools to understand cinematic storytelling
