

Sonnet

This fire burns all the brighter for the rain
With which it dances deep into the night,
And through their interactions they explain
The beauty of the darkness to the light
That streaks a thousand colours through the air
In patterns that are fading as they're formed,
Whose meanings land before we are aware
Of what it is inside us that's been warmed.
This moment holds a lifetime in its glove,
It touches what has been and what will be,
And here and now we celebrate the love
Of those who stand firm long enough to see,
Within each instant flashing before their eyes,
Love's past, love's future lighting up the skies.
