Great White Hope:

Ebony ,1969-06 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      Rocky Marciano Russell Sullivan,2002-08 This is a book about the life career and impact of Rocky Marciano the legendary heavyweight boxing champion who also stands as a powerful symbol of his times the early 1950s or the Age of Simplicity      Ebony ,1980-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      Ebony ,2005-01 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      Merriam-Webster's Dictionary of Allusions Elizabeth Webber, Mike Feinsilber, 1999 A guide to references commonly used in speech and writing Explains more than 900 allusions Entries include examples from today's leading media A must for serious readers language lovers and ESL students      Prefiguring Postblackness Carol Bunch Davis, 2015-11-23 Prefiguring Postblackness explores the tensions between cultural memory of the African American freedom struggle and representations of African American identity staged in five plays between 1959 and 1969 during the civil rights era Through close readings of the plays their popular and African American print media reviews and the cultural context in which they were produced Carol Bunch Davis shows how these representations complicate narrow ideas of blackness which often limit the freedom struggle era to Martin Luther King's nonviolent protest and cast Malcolm X's black nationalism as undermining the civil rights movement's advances These five plays strategically revise the rhetoric representations ideologies and iconography of the African American freedom struggle subverting its dominant narrative This revision critiques racial uplift ideology's tenets of civic and moral virtue as a condition of African American full citizenship The dramas also reimagine the Black Arts movement's restrictive notions of black authenticity as a condition of racial identity and their staged representations construct a counter narrative to cultural memory of the freedom struggle during that very era In their use of a postblack ethos to enact African American subjectivity the plays envision black identity beyond the quest for freedom anticipating what blackness might look like when it moves beyond the struggle The plays under discussion range from the canonical Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun and Amiri Baraka's Dutchman to celebrated yet understudied works Alice Childress's Wine in the Wilderness Howard Sackler's The Great White Hope and Charles Gordone's No Place to Be Somebody Finally Davis discusses recent revivals showing how these 1960s plays shape dimensions of modern drama well beyond the decade of their creation      America in the Round Donatella Galella, 2019-03-15 2020 Barnard Hewitt Award honorable mention Washington D C's Arena Stage was the first professional regional theatre in the nation's capital to welcome a racially integrated audience the first to perform behind the Iron Curtain and the first to win the Tony Award for best regional theatre This behind the scenes look at one of the leading theatres in the United States shows how key financial and artistic decisions were made using a range of archival materials such as letters and photographs as well as interviews with artists and administrators Close ups of major productions from The Great White Hope to Oklahoma illustrate how Arena Stage navigated cultural trends More than a chronicle America in the Round is a critical history that reveals how far the theatre could go with its budget and racially liberal politics and how Arena both disputed and duplicated systems of power With an innovative in the round approach the narrative simulates sitting in different parts of the arena space to see the theatre through different lenses economics racial dynamics and American identity

Invented Lives, Imagined Communities William H. Epstein, R. Barton Palmer, 2016-06-06 How Hollywood biopics both showcase and modify various notions of what it means to be an American Biopics films that chronicle the lives of famous and notorious figures from our national history have long been one of Hollywood's most popular and important genres offering viewers various understandings of American national identity Invented Lives Imagined

Communities provides the first full length examination of US biopics focusing on key releases in American cinema while treating recent developments in three fields cinema studies particularly the history of Hollywood national identity studies dealing with the American experience and scholarship devoted to modernity and postmodernity Films discussed include Houdini Patton The Great White Hope Bound for Glory Ed Wood Basquiat Pollock Sylvia Kinsey Fur Milk J Edgar and Lincoln and the book pays special attention to the crucial generic plot along which biopics traverse and showcase American lives even as they modify the various notions of the national character A provocative critically astute study this collection examines the biopic as a reflexive refractive modernist film genre Admirably researched essays provide close compelling readings of chosen films while exploring the multilayered matrices of historical fact biographical and autobiographical literature popular media representations and cultural histories shaping not only the lives and narratives of the performers artists and political historical figures represented but also the practices of the filmmakers as they worked within or on the margins of the Hollywood industry Cynthia Lucia Rider University The volume s greatest strengths include its range its variety of ideas on the significance of the biopic and its research definitive in several cases into the relation between historical figures and their cinematic counterparts James Morrison author of Passport to Hollywood Hollywood Films European Directors The Boxing Filmography Frederick V. Romano, 2004-09-10 The love affair between boxing and Hollywood began with the dawn of film As early as the days of Chaplin the boxing film had assumed its place as a subgenre and over the decades it has taken the forms of biographies dramas romances comedies and even musicals and westerns Such well known pictures as The Champ Body and Soul Don King Only in America Girl Fight The Irish in Us The Kid from Brooklyn Somebody Up There Likes Me Raging Bull each of the Rocky movies and When We Were Kings are just a few examples of the feature films included in this filmography Thoroughly researched this work examines 98 boxing films from the 1920s through 2003 Each entry provides basic filmographic data the film s studio its genre its length cast and credits a detailed synopsis of the film illuminating commentary on the boxing sequences and excerpts from contemporary reviews Most entries also summarize the making of the film with particular attention to the training of the actors for the boxing scenes The filmography also includes information on studio publicity releases and advertisements press books and exhibitor campaign materials for each film Jet, 1977-04-28 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news The White Savior Film Matthew Hughey, 2014-04-14 The cinematic trope of the white savior film think of Sandra Bullock in The Blind Side Kevin Costner in Dances with Wolves or Tom Cruise in The Last Samurai features messianic characters in unfamiliar or hostile settings discovering something about themselves and their culture in the process of saving members of other races from terrible fates In The White Savior Film Matthew Hughey provides a cogent multipronged analysis of this subgenre of films to investigate the underpinnings of the Hollywood constructed images of idealized and often idealistic white Americans Hughey considers the production distribution and consumption of white savior films to show how the dominant messages of sacrifice suffering and redemption are perceived by both critics and audiences Examining the content of fifty films nearly 3 000 reviews and interviews with viewer focus groups he accounts for the popularity of this subgenre and its portrayal of racial progress The White Savior Film shows how we as a society create and understand these films and how they reflect the political and cultural contexts of their time

The Statues and Legacies of Combat Athletes in the Americas C. Nathan Hatton,David M. K. Sheinin,2024-05-15 The violence of combat sports left a mark on how fans and communities remembered athletes As individual endeavors combat sports have often produced more detailed emotionally poignant and deeply personal stories of triumph than those associated with team sports Commemorative statues to combat athletes are therefore unique as historical markers and sites of memory These statues tell remarkable stories of the athletes themselves but also the people and communities that planned and built them the cities and towns that memorialized them the fans who followed them and the evolution of memory and place in the decades that followed their inauguration Edited by C Nathan Hatton and David M K Sheinin The Statues and Legacies of Combat Athletes in the Americas brings together an interdisciplinary team of scholars from across North America to interrogate the intimate and layered meanings attached to these monuments to the lives and legacies of combat athletes

Boxing in Black and White Andrew Lindsay,2004-07-27

Professional sports in America offer numerous examples of equal opportunity and broken down racial barriers These developments call for pride and celebration Yet skin color continues to have an influence in how Americans experience sport From Al Campanis statement about the under representation of blacks in baseball front offices to the almost exclusively white ownership of professional teams one sees that sports though admirably more equitable than other societal institutions are hardly a colorblind American pursuit Choosing the racially charged sport of boxing for investigation the author has compiled dozens of statistics measuring whether or not America s racial majority still yearns for a white champion a Great White Hope Drawing upon data from The Ring Magazine and its annual record books this study endeavors to bolster or refute the popular perception in boxing circles that white fighters of lesser ability are helped along to their sports elite level as a result of being promotional gold in the eyes of the public

This expansive three volume set investigates racial representation in film providing an authoritative cross section of the most racially significant films actors directors and movements in American cinematic history Hollywood has always reflected current American cultural norms and ideas As such film provides a window into attitudes about race and ethnicity over the last century This comprehensive set provides information on hundreds of films chosen based on scholarly consensus of their importance regarding the subject examining aspects of race and ethnicity in American film through the historical context themes and people involved This three volume set highlights the most important films and artists of the era identifying films actors or characterizations that were considered racist were tremendously popular or hugely influential attempted to be progressive or some combination thereof Readers will not only learn basic information about each subject but also be able to contextualize it culturally historically and in terms of its reception to understand what average moviegoers thought about the subject at the time of its popularity and grasp how the subject is perceived now through the lens of history      Faith Forward Volume 3 David Csinos, 2018-05-30 In one of his best known songs Bruce Cockburn sings about lovers in a dangerous time Well there s no doubt that our world is under siege and that we are living in a dangerous time With massive crises threatening life all over our planet economic crises social crises ecological crises the list goes on and on our faith can t afford to ignore the reality of our diverse and fragile world Our faith needs to move or inspire us to get our hands not just dirty but downright bruised and bloody as we work against the tremendous forces of hatred death and suffering in our world That s what this third volume in the Faith Forward series is about It s about forming Christian lovers in the dangerous time in which we live It s about dousing the flames of hatred and suffering in our world by pouring out unconditional sacrificial love It s about having rich and meaningful and difficult conversations about how we can do ministry with children youth and families in ways that have the power to heal the world How can we empower children and youth to disrupt the world with God s love How can we empower them to overturn the tables and shatter the walls and to pour out compassion and justice and love in the world This kind of ministry isn t easy or popular work And it isn t going to pack kids into our church But it s truly life and death work and we need to do it as embodiments of God s hope and healing Like the other books in this series Faith Forward Volume 3 collects the wisdom of some the leading thinkers and shakers and movers in the arena of ministry with children and youth including Alaa Basatneh Brian D McLaren Soong Chan Rah Waltrina N Middleton Daniel White Hodge Lisa and Mark Scandrette Marcia J Bunge Leslie Neugent Ivy Beckwith Eboo Patel Almeda M Wright and Amy K Butler      The Undertow Jeff Sharlet, 2023-03-21 A New York Times Bestseller Finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award in Nonfiction One of the New York Times s 100 Notable Books of 2023 One of The New Republic s Best Books of 2023 A riveting vividly detailed collage of political and moral derangement in America Joseph O Neill New York Times Book Review One of America s finest reporters and essayists explores the powerful currents beneath the roiled waters of a nation coming apart An unmatched guide to the religious dimensions of American politics Jeff Sharlet journeys into corners of our national psyche where others fear to tread The Undertow is both inquiry and meditation an attempt to understand how over the last decade reaction has morphed into delusion social division into distrust distrust into paranoia and hatred into fantasies sometimes realities of violence Across the country men of God glorify materialism a gluttony of the soul while citing Scripture and preparing for civil war a firestorm they long for as an absolution and exaltation Lies greed and glorification of war boom through microphones at hipster megachurches that once upon a time might have preached peace and understanding Political rallies are as aflame with need and giddy expectation as religious revivals At a conference for incels lonely single men come together to rage against women On the Far Right everything is heightened love into adulation fear into vengeance anger into white hot rage Here in the undertow our forty fifth president a vessel of conspiratorial fears and fantasies continues to rise to sainthood and the insurrectionist Ashli Babbitt killed on January 6 at the Capitol is beatified as a martyr of white womanhood Framing this dangerous vision Sharlet remembers and celebrates the courage of those who sing a different song of community and of an America long dreamt of and yet to be fully born dedicated to justice and freedom for all Exploring a geography of grief and uncertainty in the midst of plague and rising fascism The Undertow is a necessary reckoning with our precarious present that brings to light a decade of American failures as well as a vision for American possibility

Tales of the Tricycle Theatre Terry Stoller, 2013-12-02 Tales of the Tricycle Theatre provides an inside look at the history of the north London theatre which has achieved renown with its staging of black Irish verbatim and political drama Co published with the Society for Theatre Research the book draws extensively on archival research and interviews with actors playwrights directors designers and board members to document and celebrate the work of one of London's most artistically exciting and politically engaged theatres Terry Stoller presents the Tricycle's story giving you a front row view of the theatre's productions including the work of generations of black British writers from Mustapha Matura and Alfred Fagon to Roy Williams Kwame Kwei Armah and Bola Agbaje Irish plays ranging from Bernard Shaw's John Bull's Other Island to Brendan Behan's The Hostage its critically lauded political play cycles The Bomb A Partial History and The Great Game Afghanistan the latter performed at the Pentagon in 2011 The Tricycle Theatre has been both defiantly local and proudly international it has held a mirror up to British society and above all it has proved that political engagement is not incompatible with the highest artistic standards It has helped make my life as a critic worthwhile Michael Billington Foreword
