Great Constitutional Swindle A Citizens View Of The Australian Constitution:

The Great Constitutional Swindle Peter Botsman, 2000 This political history describes and analyses the events leading up to federation in Australia and the development of the Australian constitution Examines the ideas of republican Andrew Inglis Clark in relation to the recent Republican referendum and discusses topics such as global citizenship and a treaty between indigenous and non indigenous Australians Includes references and an index The book originated as the backgrounders for a weekly radio discussion series on Sydney s 2BL The author is professor of public policy at the University of Queensland and executive director of the Brisbane Institute Political Loyalty and the Nation-State Andrew

Linklater, Michael Waller, 2004-06-01 Political Loyalty and the Nation State examines the gradual weakening of the state s ability to order the political allegiances of its subjects At the focal centre of the book lies the question of the extent to which it is possible to invest political principles such as the rules and procedures of democracy with a sentiment of loyalty and whether political loyalty can become merely a matter of choice and personal responsibility The authors consider theoretical issues problems of loyalty arising from population movement and case studies of conflicts of loyalty from Italy Northern Ireland and Russia It is shown that loyalty can become decoupled from state territory and nation that loyalties can be multiple and that today s loyalties reflect advanced attitudes towards difference Constitutional Law & Policy Review, 2000 The Prince's New Clothes David Burchell, Andrew Leigh, 2002 Towards the end of the 20th century Australia was swept by a mood of cynicism towards politicians and government This comprehensive collection brings together politicians policy makers and scholars to answer difficult questions in the ethical dimension of Australian politics The University of New South Wales Law Journal, 2000 Parliament and Public Opinion, 2002 Includes the following lectures National sovereignty in a globalising world Jeremy Rabkin Distrustful disenchanted and disengaged Polled opinions on politics politicians and the parties an historical perspective Murray Goot Confidence in public institutions restoring pride to politics David Zussman and more Story/telling Bronwen Ann Levy, Ffion Murphy, 2001 Story telling is an eclectic and fascinating collection of stories and stories about stories With passion and verve some of Australia s finest writers range through vast territory exploring new directions in film and media enigmas and creativity histories of mothering narratives of indigenous and migrant experience folk country and multicultural music traditions and dilemmas of interpretation These writers appreciate the power of stories for good and ill They interrogate narratives of Australia s past and present and call for new stories for changing times We hear voices raised one moment subdued the next as if we were sitting in the Forum tent at the Woodford Festival knowing that here and just beyond in paint dance music and words stories are happening in delicious abundance Accountability in Extraterritoriality Danielle Ireland-Piper, 2017-02-24 Nation states are increasingly asserting jurisdiction over criminal offenses that occur extraterritorially In some instances this can cause political tension and legal uncertainty as the principles of jurisdiction under international law do not adequately resolve competing claims In that context this book considers principles of jurisdiction and mechanisms by which to achieve jurisdictional restraint under international law including the possibilities presented by the abuse of rights doctrine A First Nations Voice in the Australian Constitution Shireen Morris, 2020-08-06 This book makes the legal and political case for Indigenous constitutional recognition through a constitutionally guaranteed First Nations voice as advocated by the historic Uluru Statement from the Heart It argues that a constitutional amendment to empower Indigenous peoples with a fairer say in laws and policies made about them and their rights is both constitutionally congruent and politically achievable A First Nations voice is deeply in keeping with the culture design and philosophy of Australia's federal Constitution as well as the long history of Indigenous advocacy for greater empowerment and self determination in their affairs Morris explores the historical political theoretical and international contexts underpinning the contemporary debate before delving into the constitutional detail to craft a compelling case for change Current Law Index ,2002 Federal Legislation Annotations ,2005

Australian Constitutional Law and Theory Anthony Blackshield, George Williams, 2002 This text contains a wide range of materials including excerpts from a spectrum of commentators and writers Many changes are incorporated in the 3rd edition such as all developments in the law since 1997 new scholarly commentary and a new section on the Fiji crisis
