Great Critics An Anthology Of Literary C:

The Great Critics James Harry Smith, Edd Winfield Parks, 1960 Great Critics James Harry Smith, Edd Winfield Parks, 1957 The Great Critics, an Anthology of Literary Criticism Compiled and Edited by James Harry Smith and Edd Winfield Parks. Revised and Enlarged Edition James Harry Smith, The Great Critic James Harry Smith, 1951 Literary Criticism: A Short History William K. Wimsatt, Jr., Cleanth Brooks, 2021-03-23 First published in 1957

Literary Criticism A Short History traces our aesthetic heritage from its classical origins up to the contemporary state of criticism in the English speaking world Divided into four volumes each book adopts a fair and objective position in the presentation of various critical positions and each critical theory is considered not only in competition with other critical theories but also in vital dialectic with the creative literature of its own time Volume Four focuses on Modern criticism and covers tragedy and comedy symbolism I A Richards critical theory the semantic principle Eliot and Pound fiction and drama and myth and archetype The Literary Criticism of Henry James Mohammad Hanief, 1990 The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson, 1940 American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse J. Donald Ragsdale, 2009-01-14 In American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse Professor Ragsdale assesses American museums as means of visual persuasion He demonstrates that museums their contents and their manners of display are as capable of influencing visitors as speeches or advertisements and that an awareness of their social influence provides an insight into the cultural roles of museums The book considers a diverse array of museums ranging from such national cultural icons as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Art Institute to such city museums as the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Los Angeles Country Museum of Art and includes separate chapters on museums devoted to modern and contemporary art and to the specialized collections of individual connoisseurs In addition to these primarily art museums Professor Ragsdale assesses museums devoted to collections such as the National Air and Space Museum and to commemoration and remembrance such as the National World War II Museum and the US Holocaust Memorial Museum American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse makes an important contribution to the theory of persuasion and to visual communication art history and museology It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotic theory of C S Peirce In so doing it demonstrates that museum buildings the art and other objects contained within them and the spaces used for display may all be thought of in terms of means of social influence Translation Daniel Weissbort, Ástráður Eysteinnsson, 2006

Translation Theory and Practice A Historical Reader responds to the need for a collection of primary texts on translation in the English tradition from the earliest times to the present day Based on an exhaustive survey of the wealth of available materials the Reader demonstrates throughout the link between theory and practice with excerpts not only of significant theoretical writings but of actual translations as well as excerpts on translation from letters interviews autobiographies and fiction The collection is intended as a teaching tool but also as an encyclopaedia for the use of translators and writers on translation It presents the full panoply of approaches to translation without necessarily judging between them but showing clearly what is to be gained or lost in each case Translations of key texts such as the Bible and the Homeric epic are traced through the ages with the same passages excerpted making it possible for readers to construct their own map of the evolution of translation and to evaluate in their historical contexts the variety of approaches The passages in question are also accompanied by ad verbum versions to facilitate comparison The bibliographies are likewise comprehensive The editors have drawn on the expertise of leading scholars in the field including the late James S Holmes Louis Kelly Jonathan Wilcox Jane Stevenson David Hopkins and many others In addition significant non English texts such as Martin Luther s Circular Letter on Translation which may be said to have inaugurated the Reformation are included helping to set the English tradition in a wider context Related items such as the introductions to their work by Tudor and Jacobean translators or the work of women translators from the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries have been brought together in collages marking particularly important moments or developments in the history of translation This comprehensive reader provides an invaluable and illuminating resource for scholars and students of translation and English literature as well as poets cultural historians and professional translators

Psychological Constructs and the Craft of African Fiction of Yesteryears Linus Tongwo Asong, 2012 The novel remains the most popular genre in the African literary landscape In the very large body of criticism that has been devoted to the craft of African fiction this very stimulating study of six African novels will hold its own distinctive place for a long while It brings to African critical thought not only an exceptional acumen of interpretation and analysis but something much more important to most of the previous serious literary study than mere technical dissection a keen sense of the experience and imaginative truth that make Asong s selected African texts living books as well as authentic record of human and moral values Many of Asong s perceptions are not only critically shrewd but humanly searching alert to aesthetic quality and invention No one interested in creative criticism of African fiction will read this book without finding its approach a challenge to his or her own reading of African fiction and a stimulus to understanding the growth and enduring richness of the best of the African novel The book balances nicely in its choice of three texts in English and three in French the two dominant colonial languages in Africa South of the Sahara Even more interesting is the fact that although all the French texts have been translated into English Asong opts to treat the three in the original language in which they were conceived and executed a decision which keeps the reader as close as possible to the original idiom

Literary Criticism Allan H. Gilbert, 1967 This anthology of literary criticism is no simple collection of fragments from great critics It is in a way a documentary history of literary taste or better a documentary history of the taste of literary critics It contains material that is inaccessible in many university libraries and an index which ties together the various selections and gives the book a unity which most anthologies unfortunately lack Cover

Traduction Harald Kittel, Juliane House, Brigitte Schultze, 2004 This series of HANDBOOKS OF LINGUISTICS AND COMMUNICATION SCIENCE is designed to illuminate a field which not only includes general linguistics and the study of linguistics as applied to specific languages but also covers those more recent areas which have developed from the increasing body of research into the manifold forms of communicative action and interaction For classic linguistics there appears to be a need for a review of the state of the art which will provide a reference base for the rapid advances in research undertaken from a variety of theoretical standpoints while in the more recent branches of communication science the handbooks will give researchers both an overview and orientation Why Write

Poetry? Jeannine Johnson, 2007 Poets have long been defending poetry in prose and essays by Sidney Shelley and others are a familiar and important part of the Anglo American literary tradition This book identifies and examines a related genre the verse defense of poetry which shares the same impulse that has led to the composition of prose essays namely the desire to protect poetry from its detractors and to promote its value as a vital human endeavor In the last century or so this impulse to engage questions of poetry's value in poems has become increasingly widespread and it has dominated the careers of at least five poets H D Wallace Stevens W H Auden Adrienne Rich and Geoffrey Hill Though these poets espouse very different aesthetic principles they like many of their contemporaries have repeatedly turned to apology in their verse At first glance this seems an odd gesture given that the readers and writers of poetry are those who least need convincing of poetry's worthiness But questioning poetry in verse is a form of lyric introspection that is productive and well suited for a modern poet characterized as one of indifference defense helps these authors make a claim for poetry's cultural relevance as well as for its private profit Jeannine Johnson is a Preceptor in Expository Writing at Harvard University Aphra Behn's English

Feminism Dolores Altaba-Artal, 1999 Behn's novels though discard Zayas's pessimistic views and supernatural accounts using wit and satire they completely subvert the original texts BOOK JACKET Literary Criticism Gay Wilson Allen, Harry

Hayden Clark, 1962 Selections from 39 critics The Reader's Adviser, 1968 Cultural Criticism Arthur Asa Berger, 1995 Arthur Asa Berger's unique ability to translate difficult theories into accessible language makes this book an ideal introduction to cultural criticism Berger covers the key theorists concepts and subject areas from literary sociological and psychoanalytical theories to semiotics and Marxism Cultural Criticism breathes new life into the discipline by making these theories relevant to students' lives The author illustrates his explanations with excerpts from classic works giving readers a sense of the important thinkers styles and helping place them in their context Berger also provides a comprehensive bibliography on cultural criticism for those who wish to explore the topics at greater length Cultural Criticism is the perfect undergraduate supplemental text for such courses as media studies literary criticism and popular culture

Words and Witness Lea Wernick Fridman, 2012-02-01 Narratives of large scale historical horror and trauma cross a terrible boundary in representation What forms are adequate to such experience What are the forms that such narratives actually take Fridman is fascinated by the boundary that separates the representable from the unrepresentable and by the sense that literary works on either side of this boundary are governed by a different dynamic and set of rules from one another Close readings of works by Aharon Appelfeld Tadeusz Borowski Paul Celan Charlotte Delbo Jerzy Kosinski Claude Lanzmann Dan Pagis Piotr Rawicz Andr Schwarz Bart and Elie Wiesel explore the inventive means by which these Holocaust writers wrestle with experiences that in a very real sense cannot be put into words A new reading of Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness sets the stage for comparative and far reaching literary insights into the notion and conception of traumatic narrative

Coming to Grips With Genesis Dr. Terry Mortenson, Thane Ury, 2008-10-01 Fourteen theological scholars address key topics related to the age of the earth which is the crucial issue of debate in the church today regarding origins Bringing to bear rigorous biblical theological and historical arguments in favor of a six day creation the global Flood and a young earth they also provide much needed critiques of a number of contemporary old earth interpretations of the book of Genesis This fresh defense of the literal history of Genesis 1-11 nicely complements other studies which focus more on the scientific evidence of young earth creationism As such this book can serve as a versatile supplement to other works but is also designed to be used as a standalone text for seminary and Bible college professors and students pastors missionaries and others who want in depth apologetic resources Coming to Grips with Genesis Biblical Authority and the Age of the Earth includes Forewords by Dr John MacArthur President of the Master's Seminary and Senior Pastor of Grace Community Church Sun Valley CA and the late Dr Henry Morris Founder and President Emeritus Institute for Creation Research Detailed analysis of the verbs of Genesis 1 A defense of the Genesis 5-11 genealogies as strict chronologies Reasons for rejecting millions of years of death and natural evil before Adam's sin Careful reflection on Jesus' teachings regarding a young earth
