The Great Dimestore Centennial Don Byrd, 2002 P BOOK JACKET Great Dimestore Centennial Don Byrd, 1984-11-01 The Great Dimestore Centennial Don Byrd, 1986 Syncopations Jed Rasula, 2004-05-18 An analysis of the sustaining vitality behind contemporary American poetry from 1975 to the 2003 these 12 essays examine both exemplary innovators and the social context in which innovation is resisted acclaimed or taken for granted This Compost Jed Rasula, 2012-09-01 Poetry for Jed Rasula bears traces of our entanglement with our surroundings and these traces define a collective voice in modern poetry independent of the more specific influences and backgrounds of the poets themselves In This Compost Rasula surveys both the convictions asserted by American poets and the poetics they develop in their craft all with an eye toward an emerging ecological worldview Rasula begins by examining poets associated with Black Mountain College in the 1950s Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Robert Duncan and their successors But This Compost extends to include earlier poets like Robinson Jeffers Ezra Pound Louis Zukofsky Kenneth Rexroth and Muriel Rukeyser as well as Clayton Eshleman Gary Snyder Michael McClure and other contemporary poets Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson also make appearances Rasula draws this diverse group of poets together uncovering how the past is a compost fertilizing the present He looks at the heritage of ancient lore and the legacy of modern history and colonial violence as factors contributing to ecological imperatives in modern poetry This Compost restores the dialogue between poetic language and the geophysical biological realm of nature that so much postmodern discourse has sought to silence It is a fully developed carefully argued book that deals with an underrepresented element in modern American culture where the natural world and those who write about it have been greatly neglected in contemporary literary history and theory The Poetics of the Common Knowledge Don Byrd, 1994-01-01 The Poetics of the Common Knowledge focuses on Descartes Hegel Freud and the information theorists on the one hand and the poets of the American avant garde on the other This book is a call literally for a new poetry a new making that manifests the possibility for sense making in a postmodern condition without universals or absolutes In such a poetry fragmentation bespeaks not brokenness but the richness of the world apprehended without the habits of recognition Reading the Modernist Long Poem Brendan C. Gillott, 2020-12-10 How do readers approach the enigmatic and unnavigable modernist long poem Taking as the form s exemplars the highly influential but critically contentious poetries of John Cage and Charles Olson this book considers indeterminacy the fundamental feature of the long poem by way of its analogues in musicology mycology cybernetics and philosophy It addresses features of these works that figure broadly in the long poem tradition such as listing typography archives mediation and mereology while articulating how both poets broke with the longform poetic traditions of the early 1900s Brendan C Gillott argues for Cage s and Olson s centrality to these traditions in developing critiquing and innovating on the longform poetics of the past their work revolutionized the longform poetry of the 20th and 21st centuries Industrial Poetics Joe Amato, 2006-04 Through a

dizzying array of references to subjects ranging from engineering to poetry on the job experiences in academia and industry conflicts between working class and intellectual labor the privatization of universities and the contradictions of the modern environment Joe Amato's Industrial Poetics mounts a boisterous call for poetry communities to be less invested in artistic self absorption and more concerned about social responsibility's Amato focuses on the challenges faced by American poets in creating a poetry that speaks to a public engineered into complacency by those industrial technologies practices and patterns of thought that we cannot seem to do without he brings readers face to face with the conflicting realities of U S intellectual academic and poetic culture Formally adventurous and rhetorically lively Industrial Poetics is best compared with the intellectually exploratory speculative risky polemical work of other contemporary poet critics including Kathleen Fraser Joan Retallack Bruce Andrews Susan Howe and Allen Grossman Amato uses an exhilarating range of structural and rhetorical strategies conventionally developed argument abruptly juxtaposed aphorisms personal narrative manifesto like polemic and documentary reportage With a critic's sharply analytical mind a poet's verve and a working class intellectual's sense of social justice Amato addresses the many nonliterary institutions and environments in which poetry is inextricably embedded By connecting poetry to industry in a lively demonstration against the platitudes and habitudes of the twentieth century Amato argues for a reenergized and socially forceful poetics an industrial poetics rough edges and all Jed Rasula writes I can't say I pay much attention to talk radio but this is what I imagine it might be like if the deejay were really smart enviably well read yet somehow retained the snarling moxie of the am format A Nomad Poetics Pierre Joris, 2003-11-05 In his first collection of critical essays Joris maps the success and limitations of contemporary avant garde poetics This investigation leads him to envision a nomadic poetics as a strategy for new poetic work for translation and fundamentally for an ethics of early 21st century life Hambone, 1985 Shell Game Jerry Martien, 1996 Investigates the nature of money by looking at how the Island of Manhattan was purchased in 1627 through an exchange of shells or beads which the author believes probably did not hold the same significance for both parties in the transaction Sulfur California institute of technology, Eastern Michigan university, 1987 The Poetics of Embodiment Jed Rasula, 1989 Access, 1988 Under Virga Joe Amato, 2006 Poetry An ingenious gathering of poignant leapfrogging a muscular memorializing a sly haunting This is the book that everything Amato says it is and is not It bounces on water refuses to be paraphrased and invites itself to dinner Buy it by the case while there's still time Cole Swensen Joe Amato is the author of Symptoms of a Finer Age and Bookend Anatomies of a Virtual Self His poems and critical essays have appeared in numerous journals including 88 Chain Jacket Bombay Gin Denver Quarterly New American Writing Postmodern Culture Notre Dame Review Nineteenth Century Studies and electronic book review He teaches writing and literature at Illinois State University North Country Joseph Bruchac, 1986 The Archive Newsletter Archive for New Poetry (University of California, San Diego), 1987 The AWP Official Guide to Writing Programs David W.
