Unconditional Carrie Swift,2013-07-29 Escaping England to nurse a broken heart Elise has found a degree of peace of mind in the south of France looking after two endearing donkeys who have also had a rough start to life Her empathy with their suffering and her ability to throw herself into her work of rebuilding their trust and hers has been a healing process for both her and her animals She has found after long years alone a kind of meditational contentment in her solitude and in the quiet pace of life that the countryside and her animals offers her She has begun to feel as though the village is her home and is just starting to open herself up to the possibility of a new relationship So when her last tourist booking of the season arrives she is not expecting it to be anything but a late opportunity to make a little money before the winter sets in Little does she realise that there is only so far you can run from a situation you left unresolved before it will come looking for you

The Only Way Home Liz Byron,2020-02-01 On a warm day in May 2004 Liz Byron set off from Cooktown with her two companions donkeys Grace and Charley on a self imposed challenge to walk 2500 kilometres of the Bicentennial National Trail over 9 months This epic journey was a rite of passage to mark leaving 40 years of marriage and embarking on life as a single woman at the age of 61 She foresaw that self reliance physical stamina and route finding would be challenges but couldn't have known how the outback environment in Queensland was to test her to the limit Years of drought had left much of her route a dusty wasteland without food or water for her animals Years of suffering from childhood abuse and a family tragedy had left her unwilling to ask for help Walking became a meditation an exercise in being in the moment even when that moment was 43 degrees or she hadn't eaten for 7 hours In her moving memoir Liz reveals how she healed herself step by step on the way to her new home in northern NSW by learning to trust her intuition the wisdom of her animals and the kindness of strangers

Road to Rouen Ben Hatch,2013-05-23 Ben Hatch is on the road again Commissioned to write a guidebook about France despite not speaking any French he sets off with visions of relaxing chateaux and refined dining Ten thousand miles later his family's been attacked by a donkey had a run in with a death cult and after a near drowning and a calamitous wedding experience involving a British spy his own marriage is in jeopardy A combination of obsessions about mosquitoes French gravel and vegetable theme parks mean it's a bumpy ride as Ben takes a stand against tyrannical French pool attendants finds himself running with the bulls in Pamplona and almost starring in a snuff movie after a near fatal decision to climb into a millionaire's Chevrolet Blazer Funny and poignant Road to Rouen asks important questions about life marriage and whether it's ever acceptable to tape baguette to your children's legs to smuggle lunch into Disneyland Paris
