extent to which changes of technique and the evolution of artist's material went hand in hand. Some of the unique features of the book are: A concise description of the career and general technique of the artist. Actual size details indicating the scale of the work. Diagrams showing the unpainted blank surface and subsequent sizing stages. Illustrations demonstrating the underdrawing of the work. Reproductions of the whole painting and a series of details. Extensive captions to explain the relevance of each detail. This book, compiled with the aid of a team of 14 technical consultants experienced as either picture conservators or art historians, is an invaluable tool for the appreciation and understanding of the great paintings of the past and the present.

Among the Great Masters of Painting Walter Rowlands, 1906 The Final Painting PATRICK. DE RYNCK, 2020-09-30. A selection of the last paintings of 30 of the greatest artists. Not the last painting as that is often uncertain but several carefully selected works these artists have made close the end of their lives. 30 intriguing and compelling artist biographies. Includes a wide range of artists from Giotto and Van Eyck to Kahlo, Hopper and Picasso. Includes interesting biographical information, fragments from rarely seen letters and testimonials. An intense focus on the late and final work of great painters has become a striking trend in recent years. Exhibitions have been devoted to the Late Raphael, Tintoretto, Rembrandt, Goya, Turner, Manet, Gauguin, Monet, Matisse and Pollock and fresh research has been carried out into the work these artists produced in the twilight of their careers. This has led in many cases to surprising discoveries and a renewed appreciation of the late work. The Final Painting collects these fresh insights into 30 of the world's greatest painters and their last works in a highly readable book beginning with Jan van Eyck and ending with Pablo Picasso. Besides the painters mentioned already, it includes Bellini, Titian, Caravaggio, El Greco, Rubens, Artemisia Gentileschi, Canova, Klimt, Renoir, Modigliani, Munch, Mondrian, Kahlo and Hopper. Persistent myths and clichés are challenged. Van Gogh was not the solitary figure as so often suggested; the story behind Raphael's celebrated La Fornarina was made up in the 19th century; the elderly Tintoretto did not paint many of his huge late canvases single handedly and Manet's last works are much more than the paintings of a terminal patient.

James McNeill Whistler and the Evolution of Painting from the Old Masters: Identified By Two Missing Masterpieces Angelle M. Vinet, 2017-07-12. The discovery of this masterpiece, Whistler's Portrait of William Merritt Chase along with another important Whistler painting Harmony in Black No. 10 reveals exciting new discoveries on Whistler's artistic methods from the Old Masters and the artistic truisms of the Renaissance. Documented analysis including x-ray examination, forensics and recognized paintings by Whistler's followers will confirm this portrait and Harmony in Black No. 10 with x-ray revealing two lost paintings. These Whistler paintings connect scholarship and identify paintings worthy of merit and what makes a masterpiece a masterpiece.
