Mann, 2012-03-01 This encyclopedia is the most up to date concise clear and affordable guide to all aspects of science fiction from its background to generic themes and devices from authors established and new to films Science fiction has evolved into one of the most popular cutting edge and exciting fiction genres with a proliferation of modern and classic authors themes and ideas movies TV series and awards Arranged in an A-Z format and featuring a comprehensive index and cross referencing system The Mammoth Encyclopedia of Science Fiction is also the most accessible and easy to use encyclopedia of its kind currently available New Boundaries in Political Science Fiction Donald M. Hassler, Clyde Wilcox, 2008 This book offers an interpretation of the evolution of a growing genre in literary film and television As a follow up to their 1997 collection Political Science Fiction Hassler and Wilcox have assembled twenty four noted international scholars representing diverse fields of inquiry to assess the influential voices and trends from the past decade in New Boundaries in Political Science Fiction The terrors and technologies that permeate our daily lives have changed radically in the past decade further highlighting the underlying speculations on our contested future that remain the core of this genre In surveying the vast expanse of politically charged science fiction of recent years the editors posit that the defining dilemma for these tales rests in whether identity and meaning germinate from progressive linear changes or progress or from a continuous return to primitive realities of war death and the competition for survival The discussion of political implications ranges among writers from H G Wells Robert A Heinlein Ursula Le Guin and Isaac Asimov to more radical recent voices such as Iain M Banks William Gibson Joanna Russ Philip K Dick and China Mieville While emphasizing the literature the collection also addresses political science fiction found on film and television from the original Star Trek through the newest incarnation of Battlestar Galactica Cosmos 1999 - The Third Year of Space 1999 John K. Balor, 2019-07-10 What does Gerry Anderson's television series SPACE 1999 have in common with Carl Sagan's award winning television documentary COSMOS Not very much one might expect but this book documents an Online Alpha discussion where fans of the science fiction series discuss and debate differences and similarities from a wide range of perspectives some of them arguing that two series may be so closely connected that it might be natural to think of COSMOS as the third year of SPACE 1999 This book is written on an idealistic basis It is sold at the lowest price the publisher was willing to accept A free e book version can be downloaded at www.lulu.com Science-fiction, the Early Years Everett Franklin Bleiler,1990 In this volume the author describes more than 3000 short stories novels and plays with science fiction elements from earliest times to 1930 He includes imaginary voyages utopias Victorian boys books dime novels pulp magazine stories British scientific romances and mainstream work with science fiction elements Many of these publications are extremely rare surviving in only a handful of copies and most of them have never been described before Science Action Labs Science Fun (ENHANCED eBook) Edward Shevick,1998-03-01 Activities to Encourage Students to Think and Solve Problems These easy to use hands on explorations are just what you need to get your science curriculum and your students into action Science Fiction Film Directors, 1895-1998 Dennis Fischer,2011-07-01 This enormous and exhaustive reference book has entries on every major and minor director of science fiction films from the inception of cinema circa 1895 through 1998 For each director there is a complete filmography including television work a career summary a critical assessment and behind the scenes production information Seventy nine directors are covered in especially lengthy entries and a short history of the science fiction film genre is also included
