Great Things Happen A Personal Memoir:

Great Things Happen Remigius F. McCoy, Rene Dionne, Joan Cameron Dewart, 1988-01-01 An Ethnographic Study of Northern Ghanaian Conflicts A.K. Awedoba, 2010-10-20 Conflict in Northern Ghana appears to be increasing in amplitude and frequency and its effects are getting more devastating It is the view of this book that the Government of Ghana and civil society organisations involved in aspects of conflict management have approached peace issues in the region with an inadequate understanding of the local issues that divide and unite the people or using sufficient resources to preempt conflict In 2003 The Mole V summit was held in Damongo to discuss strategic directions for comprehensive development and poverty reduction in Northern Ghana as a mechanism for supporting conflict management It is the aim of this publication to contribute to the proposed plan by suggesting past and current conflict management resources and mechanisms which could be employed The suggestions are informed by surveys which are outlined in the book of particular conflicts in the three northern Regions of Ghana between 2006 and 2008 their histories causes and effects and their resolution Kaleidoscope Catechesis Anthony Y. Naaeke, 2006 Kaleidoscope Catechesis is both a rhetorical and a pastoral effort to communicate the Gospel message cross culturally particularly in Africa It analyzes the rhetorical dynamics of cross cultural communication within the specific context of missionary catechesis in the Diocese of Wa in Ghana and offers concrete pastoral communication strategies to be used for effective catechesis and evangelization This book will appeal to a wide variety of people seminarians in Africa priests pastoral workers students of rhetoric and cross cultural communication The Church-as-family and Ethnocentrism in Sub-Saharan Africa Gerald K. Tanye, 2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background New Scholarship on Ghanaian Literatures, Languages and Cultures Dannabang Kuwabong, Jemima Asabea Anderson, Helen Yitah, Nicholas G. Faraclas, 2024-03-18 This volume showcases new research on popular academic topics in Ghana Its wide range of focus across disciplines includes topics such as pidgin performing apologies and politeness music the argument for adopting geographical indications GI policies for Ghana's unique agricultural products and the poetics of names among many others It will appeal particularly to students pursuing degrees in Africana and Ghanaian studies An Ethnographic Study of Northern Ghanaian Conflicts A. K. Awedoba, 2009 Conflict in Northern Ghana appears to be increasing in amplitude and frequency and its effects are getting more devastating It is the view of this book that The Government of Ghana and civil society organisations involved in aspects of conflict management have approached peace issues in the region with an inadequate understanding of the local issues that divide and unite the people or using sufficient resources to prevent conflict. In 2003 The Mole V summit was held in Damongo to discuss strategic directions for comprehensive development and poverty reduction in Northern Ghana as a mechanism for supporting conflict management. It is the aim of this publication to contribute to the proposed plan by suggesting past and current conflict management resources and mechanisms which could be employed. The suggestions are informed by surveys which are outlined in the book of particular conflicts in the three northern Regions of Ghana between 2006 and 2008 their histories, causes and efforts and their resolution.

Ethnicity in Ghana NA NA, 2016-04-30 Although African ethnicity has become a highly fertile field of enquiry in recent years, most of the research is concentrated on southern and central Africa and has passed Ghana by. This volume extends many of the distilled insights but also modifies them in the light of the Ghanaian evidence. The collection is multidisciplinary in scope and spans the pre-colonial, colonial and post-colonial contexts. A central contention of the volume is that while there were significant regional variations, ethnicity was not purely a colonial invention. The boundaries of 'we' groups have constantly mutated from pre-colonial times while European categorization owed much to indigenous ways of seeing. The contributors explore the role of European administrators and recruitment officers as well as African cultural brokers in shaping new identities. The interaction of gender and ethnic consciousness is explicitly addressed. The volume also examines the formulation of the national question in Ghana today in debates over language policy and conflicts over land and chieftaincy.

Writing and Colonialism in Northern Ghana Sean Hawkins, 2002-12-15 This book presents a new perspective on colonialism in Africa. Drawing on work from a variety of subjects and disciplines from the ancient Mediterranean to colonial Spain and from anthropology to psychology, the author argues that colonialism in Africa needs to be understood through the medium of writing and the particular world it belonged to. Focusing on the LoDagaa of northern Ghana and their relationship with British colonialism, Hawkins describes colonialism as an encounter between a world of experience, a world of knowledge, practice and speech and the world on paper, a world of writing rules and a linear concept of history. The various ways in which the world on paper affected the LoDagaa are examined thematically. The first four chapters explore how writing imposed a form of historical consciousness on different aspects of LoDagaa culture, identity, politics and religion that was alien to them. The second half of the book examines how both the British colonial state and its postcolonial successor, the Ghanaian state, attempted to regulate indigenous forms of knowledge, gender relations and social reckoning through courts. This ambitious and richly detailed book will appeal to scholars and general readers interested in African history, British colonialism and cultural and postcolonial studies.

Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon, Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history. Unprecedented in scale, DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa, from Sierra Leone to Somalia. It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918

Critical Essays on Dagaaba Rhetoric Anthony Y. Naaeke, 2010 Rhetoric prepares the ground for action It is essential to social change and social stability Hence the essays in this book will introduce the reader to the cultural narratives of the Dagaaba of Ghana and show how community beliefs and values are enacted in ritual celebrations as well as in advocacy campaigns and social movements Critical Essays on Dagaaba Rhetoric is a pioneering effort in expanding the scope of rhetoric beyond the mainstream of the discipline As an entry point into Dagaaba rhetoric this book will be a stimulus for further research on Dagaaba rhetoric

Problems and Prospects of the Search for a Catholic Spiritual Tradition in the Ghanaian Catholic Pastoral Ministry Norbert Okoledah, 2005 Today Christianity has become the most popular and fast growing religion in Ghana Paradoxically the Christian Church in whatever form it has taken has for a complexity of reasons basically remained a weak church with a weak foundation This book discusses from a theologico cultural anthropological perspective some of the ecclesial and social processes and factors that the author believes are responsible for the creation of this paradox in the case of the Ghanaian Catholic Church and demonstrates how they influence the search for a Catholic spiritual tradition in it

The Impact of Climate Change on Drylands A.J. Dietz, R. Ruben, A. Verhagen, 2006-04-11 Sahelian West Africa has recovered from the disastrous droughts of the 1970s and 1980s People have learned to adapt to risk and uncertainty in fragile dryland environments They as well as global change scientists are worried about the impact of climate change on these West African drylands What do the experiences of the last thirty years say about the preparedness for higher temperatures lower rainfall and even more variability Detailed studies on Dryland West Africa as a whole and on Burkina Faso Mali and Northern Ghana in particular show an advanced coping behaviour and increased adaptation but also major differences in vulnerability and coping potential Climate change preparedness programmes have only just started and require more robust support and more specific social targeting for a population which is rapidly growing even more rapidly urbanising and further integrating in a globalised economy This book is the first of its kind with a comprehensive analysis of climate change experiences in West African drylands with attention for pathways of change and the diversity of adaptation options available This book is of interest to scientists studying global and climate change especially dealing with issues of adaptation Social scientists economists geographers and policy makers concerned with West Africa should also read this book

Of Life and Health Alexis Bekyane Tengan, 2018-12-17 An anthropological study of the health system of the Dagara people of northern Ghana and southern Burkina Faso Of Life and Health develops a cultural and epistemological lexicon of Dagara life by examining its religious ritual and artistic expressions Consisting of ethnographic descriptions and analyses of six Dagara cultic institutions each of which deals with different aspects of sustaining and transmitting life the volume gives a holistic account of the Dagara knowledge system

Philosophical Foundations of the African Humanities through Postcolonial Perspectives, 2019-03-19 Philosophical Foundations of the African Humanities through Postcolonial Perspectives critiques recent claims that the humanities especially in public universities in poor countries have lost their significance defining missions methods and standards due to the pressure to justify their existence The predominant responses to these claims have been that the humanities are relevant for creating a world culture to address the world s problems This book argues that behind such arguments lies a false neutrality constructed to deny the values intrinsic to marginalized cultures and peoples and to justify their perceived inferiority These essays by scholars in postcolonial studies critique these false claims about the humanities through critical analyses of alterity difference and how the Other is perceived defined and subdued Contributors Gordon S K Adika Kofi N Awoonor E John Collins Kari Dako Mary Esther Kropp Dakubu James Gibbs Helen Lauer Bernth Lindfors J H Kwabena Nketia Abena Oduro Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Ol f mi T w Alexis B Tengan Kwasi Wiredu Francis Nii Yartey Women Do More Work than Men Ini Dorcas Dah, 2018-10-26 Hospitable Linguistics Nicholas G. Faraclas, Anne Storch, Viveka Velupillai, 2025-03-12 Challenging the boundaries of linguistics as a field and transgressing the limitations of genre in writing about language this book explores the possibilities of what the authors call a hospitable linguistics It offers a critical discussion of how linguistics endeavors to domesticate subdue and integrate both people and languages into existing academic structures and theories and how as a discipline academic linguistics has barely begun to move beyond its colonial patriarchal and conservative foundations In this book leading figures in their fields reflect on their own and others practices and experiences in three key areas the agency and power of refugees and migrants Indigenous people s in hospitable responses to strangers and hospitable language as expressed through art music and artefacts As a whole the book represents a crucial intervention in attempts to fashion a new more integrative responsible and respectful linguistics that makes way for the ideas of people who are often the object of study Making a Difference Solomon Sumani Sule-Saa, 2023-02-20 How did two very different language communities encounter and make early choices about Christianity This book is a historical record of the Dagomba and Konkomba people groups of Northern Ghana as they embraced the Bible translated into their mother tongues Author Dr Sumani Sule Saa employs Professor Lamin Sanneh s groundbreaking hermeneutic of mission as translation as a grid to examine the effect of Bible translation on the lives of these two very important language groups Sule Saa first presents a brief history of the Dagomba and Konkomba and describes their very different societal structures He analyses early Christian mission involvement and documents the role of two Bible translation agencies among these people groups Through a number of case studies he illustrates the positive impact of the Bible in their mother tongues Woven throughout Dr Sule Saa discusses to what degree the Christian faith has been indigenised into the ethos and behaviour of the Dagomba and Konkomba Theological students and those interested in missions will find this book relevant as it deals with missiological issues and serves as a reference on the establishment of Christianity among the Dagomba and Konkomba Its multi disciplinary approach will also appeal to a wider audience Interconnectivity, Subversion, and Healing in World Christianity Afe Adogame, Aminta Arrington, 2023-07-13 The rise of Christianity around the world has been the impetus for much religious and social change The interconnectivity of religious centers has resulted in theological dialogue and innovation The subversion of long held categories of culture gender race spirituality theology and politics has naturally occurred along with the transgressing of borders and boundaries Yet at the same time there has been occasion for healing through intercultural experiences of forgiveness peacemaking and reconciliation Stimulated by the work and mentorship of Joel Carpenter who has done much to expand the study of world Christianity less through focusing on his own research and writing and more through amplifying the voices of others the international contributors to this volume from all six continents promote a deeper understanding of World Christianity through the exploration of such related themes Whether discussing primal spirituality in northeast India white supremacy in South Africa evangelical women and civic engagement in Kenya or Calvinism in Mexico the contributors draw upon ethnographic case studies to more deeply understand interconnectivity subversion and healing in World Christianity Their essays provoke a reorientation of Christian thought within the study of World Christianity enriching the current discourse and promoting vistas for further interdisciplinary studies Better Than Any Dream: a Personal Memoir Paul F.
