Storming the Eagle's Nest Jim Ring, 2013-09-03 From the Fall of France in June 1940 to Hitler's suicide in April 1945 the swastika flew from the peaks of the High Savoy in the western Alps to the passes above Ljubljana in the east. The Alps as much as Berlin were the heart of the Third Reich. Yes, Hitler declared of his headquarters in the Bavarian Alps, "I have a close link to this mountain. Much was done there, came about and ended there; those were the best times of my life. My great plans were forged there. With great authority and verve." Jim Ring tells the story of how the war was conceived and directed from the Fuhrer's mountain retreat, how all the Alps bar Switzerland fell to Fascism and how Switzerland herself became the Nazi's banker and Europe's spy centre. How the Alps in France, Italy and Yugoslavia became cradles of resistance, how the range proved both a sanctuary and a death trap for Europe's Jews and how the whole war culminated in the Allies' descent on what was rumoured to be Hitler's Alpine Redoubt, a Bavarian mountain fortress.

In Red Storm on the Reich, Christopher Duffy uncovers a military campaign of unprecedented scale and ferocity during which thirty million lives were lost, a deadly harvest in which the slaughter and suffering of German civilians reached unfathomable dimensions. By quoting extensively from the memoirs of Soviet and German commanders and the diaries of infantrymen, Red Storm on the Reich brings to life not only the Russian military assault on the lands of Germany but also the human drama behind what can only be called epic sieges of the fortress cities of Danzig, Kolberg and Breslau.
