Foreign Aid and State Building in Interwar Romania Doina Anca Cretu, 2024-12-10 The decades following World War I were a period of political social and economic transformation for Central and Eastern Europe This book considers the role of foreign aid in Romania between 1918 and 1940 offering a new history of the interrelation between state building and nongovernmental humanitarianism and philanthropy in the interwar period Doina Anca Cretu argues that Romania was a laboratory for transnational intervention as various state builders actively pursued accessed and often instrumentalized American assistance in order to accelerate reconstructive and modernizing projects after World War I At its core this is a study of how local views ambitions and practical agendas framed trajectories of humanitarian and philanthropic endeavors in postimperial Central and Eastern Europe Conversely it is a reflection on the ways that architects and practitioners of foreign aid sought to transfer notions of democracy civilization and modernity within shifting local and national contexts in the aftermath of the war and after the collapse of European empires At the intersection of the history of interwar Europe and international philanthropy and humanitarianism this book's innovative and explicitly transnational approach provides a new framework for understanding the contours of European nationalism in the twentieth century

Kaufmann,2022-06-02 A few of the fortifications and fortified lines of the world wars are well known and have often been written about illustrated and studied But they tend to distract attention from the wide range of fixed defenses constructed across Europe on an enormous scale after the Franco Prussian War of 1870 71 during a period of insecurity and aggression That is why this new highly illustrated study which covers the entire continent is so valuable The authors examine the major fortified positions and describe their strategic purpose their design and construction and the role they played in military planning and operations The outstanding contribution of the major military architects of the time is a key theme The work of S r de Rivi res Brialmont and others had a major influence on the course of the First World War and on the fortifications built before and during the Second World War Their approach is visible in the designs for the Maginot Line the East and West walls of Germany the Vallo Alpino in Italy the Soviet Stalin and Molotov lines the Mannerheim and Salpa lines of Finland the Greek Metaxas Line the Bene Line of Czechoslovakia as well as the defenses built by the Dutch and Scandinavians The breadth of the coverage the degree of detail and the numerous illustrations make the book essential reading and reference for anyone who has a special interest in the world wars and the history of fortifications Scenario Designer's Handbook

Bucharest Diary Alfred H. Moses,2018-07-17 An insider s account of Romania s emergence from communism control In the 1970s American attorney Alfred H Moses was approached on the streets of Bucharest by young Jews seeking help to emigrate to Israel This became the author s mission until the communist regime fell in 1989 Before that Moses had met periodically with Romania s communist dictator Nicolae Ceausescu to persuade him to allow increased Jewish emigration This experience deepened Moses s interest in Romania an interest that culminated in his serving as U S ambassador to the country from 1994 to 1997 during the Clinton administration The ambassador s time of service in Romania came just a few years after the fall of the Berlin Wall and the subsequent collapse of communism in Eastern Europe During this period Romania faced economic paralysis and was still buried in the rubble of communism Over the next three years Moses helped nurture Romania s nascent democratic institutions promoted privatization of Romania s economy and shepherded Romania on the path toward full integration with Western institutions Through frequent press conferences speeches and writings in the Romanian and Western press and in his meetings with Romanian officials at the highest level he stated in plain language the steps Romania needed to take before it could be accepted in the West as a free and democratic country Bucharest Diary An American Ambassador's Journey is filled with firsthand stories including colorful anecdotes of the diplomacy both public and private that helped Romania recover from four decades of communist rule and eventually become a member of both NATO and the European Union Romania still struggles today with the consequences of its history but it has reached many of its post communist goals which Ambassador Moses championed at a crucial time This book will be of special interest to readers of history and public affairs in particular those interested in Jewish life under communist rule in Eastern Europe and how the United States and its Western partners helped rebuild an important country devastated by communism

Romanian Crucible Gheorghe Buzatu, Kurt Treptow, 2023-02-21 The trial of Corneliu Zelea Codreanu leader of the Legionary Movement in Romania marked a critical moment in the history of the country between the two World Wars It destroyed the last vestiges of democracy and laid the groundwork for the establishment of the royal dictatorship by Carol II Romanian Crucible presents the transcript of the trial for the first time in English translation edited and accompanied by an introductory study by two leading specialists on Romanian history Gheorghe Buzatu and Kurt W Treptow The book also contains a series of appendixes which include journal entries from Codreanu in prison A New Europe, 1918-1923 Bartosz Dziewanowski-Stefańczyk, Jay Winter, 2022-03-03 This set of essays introduces readers to new historical research on the creation of the new order in East Central Europe in the period immediately following 1918 The book offers insights into the political diplomatic military economic and cultural conditions out of which the New Europe was born Experts from various countries take into account three perspectives They give equal attention to both the Western and Eastern fronts they recognise that on 11 November 1918 the War ended only on the Western front and violence continued in multiple forms over the next five years and they show how state building after 1918 in Central and Eastern Europe was marked by a mixture of innovation and instability Thus the volume focuses on three kinds of narratives those related to conflicts and violence those related to the recasting of civil life in new structures and institutions and those related to remembrance and representations of these years in the public sphere Taking a step towards writing a fully European history of the Great War and its aftermath the volume offers an original approach to this decisive period in 20th century European history
