Great White Lie:

White Lies and Other Fictions, Plus Two Seán Virgo, 1989 White Lies Ann Bausum, 2025-08-12 This powerful and unflinching examination of racism in America by award winning historian Ann Bausum deconstructs the warped history of the Civil War for teen readers perfect for fans of STAMPED JUST MERCY and ACCOUNTABLE Warning This is not your average U S history book After the Civil War the Confederates may have laid down their arms but they were far from accepting defeat By warping the narrative around what really happened during and after the Civil War they created an alternate history now known as the Lost Cause These lies still manifest today through criticism of Critical Race Theory book banning unequal funding for education and more This book sets the record straight and explains the true history of the Civil War and its complex and far reaching aftermath Written by historian and award winning author Ann Bausum WHITE LIES is an impeccably researched chronicle filled with photos robust back matter additional resources and more that fans of Howard Zinn s A Young People s History of the United States will enjoy An American Health Dilemma W. Michael Byrd, Linda A. Clayton, 2001-12-21 First published in 2002 An American Health Dilemma is the story of medicine in the United States from the perspective of people who were consistently officially mistreated abused or neglected by the Western medical tradition and the US health care system It is also the compelling story of African Americans fighting to participate fully in the health care professions in the face of racism and the increased power of health corporations and HMOs This tour de force of research on the relationship between race medicine and health care in the United States is an extraordinary achievement by two of the leading lights in the field of public health Ten years out it is finally updated with a new third volume taking the story up to the present and beyond remaining the premiere and only reference on black public health and the history of African American medicine on the market today No one who is concerned with American race relations with access to and quality of health care or with justice and equality for humankind can afford to miss this powerful resource From Words to Fixed Expressions Ewa Komorowska, Magdalena Lisiecka-Czop, Danuta Stanulewicz, 2025-07-14 The volume examines lexical and idiomatic phenomena in various Indo European languages covering a wide range of linguistic and interdisciplinary studies while addressing both single language issues and contrastive perspectives The key topics include vocabulary and in particular phraseology in Slavic Germanic and Romance languages across different areas of linguistic communication It explores the role of vocabulary in general as well as in therapeutic and specialised communication e g mathematical or mathematically motivated phraseology and legal terminology and in language acquisition The volume also concentrates on proverbs and idiomatic expressions The Man Who Never Returned Peter Quinn, 2022-02-08 Peter Quinn s The Man Who Never Returned is a noir ish stylized detective narrative set in 1950s New York It follows Fintan a retired detective turned private investigator who has been given the job of finding Judge Crater who just went missing in 1930 Based on a real story it is quite an intriguing tale that was even more so for people living at the time The famous missing person case is comparable to the Amelia Earhart missing person case though it could have been an even more interesting one It was alleged that the missing judge may have had information about underhanded dealings in the New York judiciary It was believed that if such information came to light Franklin D Roosevelt then governor of New York would have had a hard time becoming the president of the United States There were also rumors that the judge who was a known ladies man had either decided to disappear or had fallen afoul of the mafia Featuring hardboiled characters and a beautiful re creation of New York from the 50s it is quite a compelling read Mistress of everything Sarah Carter, Maria Nugent, 2016-07-01 Mistress of everything examines how indigenous people across Britain s settler colonies engaged with Queen Victoria in their lives and predicaments incorporated her into their political repertoires and implicated her as they sought redress for the effects of imperial expansion during her long reign It draws together empirically rich studies from Canada Australia New Zealand and Southern Africa to provide scope for comparative and transnational analysis The book includes chapters on a Maori visit to Queen Victoria in 1863 meetings between African leaders and the Queen s son Prince Alfred in 1860 gift giving in the Queen s name on colonial frontiers in Canada and Australia and Maori women s references to Queen Victoria in support of their own chiefly status and rights The collection offers an innovative approach to interpreting and including indigenous perspectives within broader histories of British imperialism and settler colonialism Heritage and History in the China-Australia Migration Corridor Denis Byrne, Ien Ang, Phillip Mar, 2023-03-03 Heritage and History in the China Australia Migration Corridor traces the material and social legacy of migration from China to Australia from the 1840s until the present day The volume offers a multidimensional examination of the material footprint of migration as it exists at either end of the migration corridor stretching between Zhongshan county in south China and Australia Spanning the fields of heritage studies migration studies and Chinese diaspora history Denis Byrne Ien Ang Phillip Mar and the other contributors foreground a transnational approach to the history and heritage of migration one that takes account of the flows of people ideas objects and money that circulate through migration corridors forming intricate ongoing bonds between those who migrated to Australia and their home villages in China This is an excellent new addition to the growing literature on the history heritage and archaeology of the Chinese diaspora and transnational Chinese migration This book is poised to be a major contribution to the history and heritage of the Chinese diaspora Barbara L Voss Stanford University The quality of the research and writing is very high and the theoretical framing is sophisticated and original This book makes a much needed contribution to overseas Chinese heritage studies Chinese Australian history transnational theory and migration history It also provides a model for how to work respectfully and successfully with descendants and community Sophie Loy Wilson University of Sydney Dying Breath Wendy Corsi Staub, 2019-09-24 A SEASIDE RETREAT It s summer on the Jersey Shore Children play on the beach Husbands are off working in the city And the surf echoes in the night Here in this perfect place a serial killer has no worries in the world except choosing the next victim HAS JUST BECOME Cam Hastings has come to Long Beach Island with her teenage daughter and the hope that maybe she can save her failed marriage Cam has never stopped loving her husband Mike nor has she been able to outrun her flaws and demons a vanished mother a lost sister and the ugly visions she has of missing children A KILLER S FAVORITE PLAYGROUND Now Cam is about to step over the edge For once she will act on one of her visions and then face the consequences For a killer has just struck again And for Cam and the people she loves most fear has come home for good

A Soldier's Daughter Nupur Luthra, This is the life story of a young girl who happens to be an army officer s daughter Brought up in the secluded army quarters she somehow prefers to lead a normal civilian life In spite of her parents both army officers insistence she opts out of any profession remotely related to Army Navy or Air force From schooling to college to professional life she is perennially confused if she belongs to the elite army circle or the mundane civilian world Having a first hand experience of living both lives she narrates the exciting events from her dual life From the best of both lives to the worst she gives an unbiased account of what it is to be a part of the army and yet live the life of a civilian An interesting account of a young girl who reveals what it is to live two lives at once Warfare and Tracking in Africa, 1952-1990 Timothy J Stapleton, 2015-10-06 During the decolonization wars in East and Southern Africa tracking became increasingly valuable as a military tactic Drawing on archival research and interviews Stapleton presents a comparative study of the role of tracking in insurgency and counter insurgency across Kenya Zimbabwe and Namibia

Faith in Unions David Isiorho, 2022-09-07 Faith in Unions is a personal account representing a critique of Whiteness and Black marginality in the Faith Workers Trade Union In short it is a Black theology critique of the way Muslim and Hindu faith workers have been treated in the British Labour movement This book clearly has things to say about discriminatory practices which puts the discussion about Englishness and Britishness into a wider context I am suggesting a political agenda associated with English ethnicity as the mode of involvement to explain policies that are likely to result in racialised religious exclusion Faith in Unions gives focus to Muslim and Hindu workplace groupings within the Faith Workers Branch and the opposition to their formation from Anglican and Methodist Christian members I am concerned with the struggle for faith recognition within a discriminatory and institutionally racist union structure This book offers an explicit exploration of what I mean by the racialised other in the context of the British Labour movement In this we need to understand the ways historical Christianity has defined Black identities My conclusion hopefully will start a wider discussion of Englishness and English exclusivity

Would I Lie to You? Judi Ketteler, 2021-01-26 What would it mean to commit to unconditional honesty and what impact might that have on our lives Inspired by her popular New York Times article How Honesty Could Make You Happier award winning journalist Judi Ketteler takes a deep dive into the hard truths about honesty from the personal to the political We re incensed by politicians who lie and corporations that cheat but when it comes to our own honesty choices we often barely notice So what happens when we do notice Judi Ketteler thought of herself as an honest person And yet she knew it wasn t the whole story How often was Judi engaging in the same dishonest behavior she was condemning in others

To answer that question she started her Honesty Journal and set out to confront her perennial fear of speaking the truth in a range of situations including with friends her kids and even inside her complicated marriage The result is a timely consideration of the joys and pains of truth in a world that seems committed to lying Hurricane Antonia Church,2024-10-29 Just when Nevada Noble begins to feel a part of the Salem Crossing community a storm on the Florida coast threatens to upend her new life Will the terrible lies she s been telling destroy her future with the man she loves Can uncovered secrets ruin lifelong friendships Unexpected romances strike like lightning sending thundering reverberations along the coastline New dangers arrive on fierce winds shaking the foundations of the community to the very core Will Neve survive the hurricane of mystery and danger blowing through town or will everything she cares about be laid to ruin as the storm tears through the lives of everyone in SX The Great White Lie Jack Gratus,1973-01-01 Anti slavery movement in Britain led by William Wilberforce Among Australia's Pioneers Margaret Slocomb,2014-07-25 The almost simultaneous abolition of the slave trade and the cessation of convict transportation to the colony of New South Walesnow eastern mainland Australiastarted a quest by the squatter pastoralists for alternative sources of cheap labor for their vast sheep runs Over a period of five years beginning from 1848 around three thousand Chinese men and boys from Fujian Province were recruited under conditions little different from the slave trade In Among Australia's Pioneers author Margaret Slocomb focuses on the experiences of approximately two hundred of these Chinese laborers between 1848 and 1853 Her research examines their working conditions during the five year indenture period and also traces the lives of several of the men who at the end of their contract chose to remain in those districts which by then had become familiar to them Perhaps they regarded themselves as pioneer immigrants Slocomb recounts the experiences of these men on the dangerous northern frontier of European settlement While some succumbed to the despair and loneliness of a shepherds life others survived their indenture and went on to play an important role in the emerging society of the new colony of Queensland They may certainly be counted among the nations pioneers Subject to Others (Routledge Revivals) Moira Ferguson,2014-08-01 First published in 1992 Subject to Others considers the intersection between late seventeenth to early nineteenth century British female writers and the colonial debate surrounding slavery and abolition Beginning with an overview that sets the discussion in context Moira Ferguson then chronicles writings by Anglo Saxon women and one African Caribbean ex slave woman from between 1670 and 1834 on the abolition of the slave trade and the emancipation of slaves Through studying the writings of around thirty women in total Ferguson concludes that white British women as a result of their class position religious affiliation and evolving conceptions of sexual difference constructed a colonial discourse about Africans in general and slaves in particular Crucially the feminist propensity to align with anti slavery activism helped to secure the political self liberation of white British women A fascinating and detailed text this volume will be of particular interest to undergraduate students researching colonial British female writers early feminist discourse and the anti slavery debate Mary Lee Geoffrey

Dennis, 2022-06-13 Mary Lee by Geoffrey Pomeroy Dennis is an insightful look into a revolution torn Europe The 19th century was certainly a time for change but for the main character of this book it certainly doesn't feel like it Tucked away in her safe English town the narrator lives her quiet life until she is thrust into adventure and is forced to learn about the harsh truths of living in the rest of the continent My Friends the MacLeans Jane Duncan, 2015-08-27 Janet what do you mean What has been going on between you and that bloody boy When Janet Alexander learns that young Roddy Maclean intends to defy his parents and become a writer not an engineer she readily helps him run away from St Jago Her impulsive action infuriates Rob and Marion Maclean and harsh words end a long friendship Interwoven with Janet's discovery of deeper currents under the placid surface of the Paradise estate are unrest among the plantation workers the convalescence of Twice Alexander and the advent of Madame Dulac's grandson Edward who falls more than a little in love with Janet Not until Roddy unexpectedly returns to the island does Janet come to know the truth about her friends the Macleans Rule of Darkness Patrick Brantlinger, 2013-01-14 A major contribution to the cultural and literary history of the Victorian age Rule of Darkness maps the complex relationship between Victorian literary forms genres and theories and imperialist racist ideology Critics and cultural historians have usually regarded the Empire as being of marginal importance to early and mid Victorian writers Patrick Brantlinger asserts that the Empire was central to British culture as a source of ideological and artistic energy both supported by and lending support to widespread belief in racial superiority the need to transform savagery into civilization and the urgency of promoting emigration Rule of Darkness brings together material from public records memoirs popular culture and canonical literature Brantlinger explores the influence of the novels of Captain Frederick Marryat pioneer of British adolescent adventure fiction and shows the importance of William Makepeace Thackeray's experience of India to his novels He treats a number of Victorian best sellers previously ignored by literary historians including the Anglo Indian writer Philip Meadows Taylor's Confessions of a Thug and Seeta Brantlinger situates explorers narratives and travelogues by such famous author adventurers as David Livingstone and Sir Richard Burton in relation to other forms of Victorian and Edwardian prose Through readings of works by Arthur Conan Doyle Joseph Conrad H Rider Haggard Rudyard Kipling John Hobson and many others he considers representations of Africa India and other non British parts of the world in both fiction and nonfiction The most comprehensive study yet of literature and imperialism in the early and mid Victorian years Rule of Darkness offers in addition a revisionary interpretation of imperialism as a significant factor in later British cultural history from the 1880s to World War I It is essential reading for anyone concerned with Victorian culture and society and more generally with the relationship between Victorian writers and imperialism and between racist ideology and patterns of domination in modern history The Equator and other Disappointments Trisha Broomfield, 2016 Trisha Broomfield's first collection explores early memories of travelling to Australia and back school friends and teenage relationships and more recent experiences of her own and others Her dry sense of humour seasons all her observations Trisha writes poetry flash fiction short stories and unfinished crime novels Her early influences include the Liverpool poets Ted Hughes and Thomas Hardy Some of her poems have been published in the Welsh literary magazine Roundyhouse Trisha was born in Lincolnshire and lived in Australia as a child travelling with her family by boat through the Suez Canal to and from Down Under Now she lives in Surrey with her husband and shares an irascible cat
