During the nineteenth century there was a huge increase in the level and types of gambling in Thailand Taxes on gambling became a major source of state revenue with the government establishing state run lotteries and casinos in the first half of the twentieth century Nevertheless over the same period a strong anti gambling discourse emerged within the Thai elite which sought to regulate gambling through a series of increasingly restrictive and punitive laws By the mid twentieth century most forms of gambling had been made illegal a situation that persists until today This historical study based on a wide variety of Thai and English language archival sources including government reports legal cases and newspapers places the criminalization of gambling in Thailand in the broader context of the country s socio economic transformation and the modernization of the Thai state Particular attention is paid to how state institutions such as the police and judiciary and different sections of Thai society shaped and subverted the law to advance their own interests Finally the book compares the Thai government s policies on gambling with those on opium use and prostitution placing the latter in the context of an international clampdown on vice in the early twentieth century Blue Ribbon Friends Allison Estes,1996 Young horse lovers rejoice Minstrel Books is proud to launch a new series of exciting and meaningful friendship stories in horse intensive settings Unlike other horse series whose stories rarely get out of the barn the Short Stirrup Club offers adventures that roam as far as horses and friendships naturally take each other The first book introduces Megan Morrison and her twin brother Max and their horses Pixie and Popsicle at Thistle Ridge Farm The Wildflower Pony Anne Eliot Crompton,1996 Alice is surprised when her pony Lucky has a foal and she must care for them both on her own to keep the birth a secret from her family The Publishers Weekly ,1996 The Pioneer Mail and Indian Weekly News ,1919 Chambers's Journal ,1912
