Economics Ecology And The Roots Of Western Faith Perspectives From The Garden:

Economics, Ecology, and the Roots of Western Faith Robert R. Gottfried, 1995-09-06 Environmentalists have turned to Eastern religion Deep Ecology and Native American religion for alternatives to the Western view that humans should dominate nature In Economics Ecology and the Roots of Western Faith Robert R Gottfried persuasively demonstrates that the ancient Hebrew worldview found in the Torah and the New Testament is remarkably green Drawing on these insights from ancient Western thought and economic understanding of ecosystems and natural processess Gottfried analyzes the prerequisites for maintaining or improving human welfare and ecological vitality in terms of land economics and What is Mission? J. Andrew Kirk, How should today s Church shape its response to the Gospel How can management we set about making disciples of all nations in our post Christian multifaith world What does mission mean in our times Here is a book that addresses these issues and many more with honesty and openness It strips mission of its old associations with colonialism and militarism It looks anew at the underlying theology reminding us that our task is God's mission not a human construct It explores key aspects of contemporary mission from the familiar such as the relation of mission to evangelism and to people of other faiths to the unusual and thought provoking such as mission and the environment justice for the poor and the overcoming of violence Students of mission and Christians who wish to engage with today s world to integrate faith and life will find here an inclusive comprehensive and lucid presentation of all the relevant discussions Ecotheology and Nonhuman Ethics in Society Melissa Brotton, 2016-11-30 This book promotes Christian ecology and animal ethics from the perspectives of the Bible science and the Judeo Christian tradition In an age of climate change how do we protect species and individual animals Does it matter how we treat bugs How does understanding the Trinity and Christ's self emptying nature help us to be more responsible earth caretakers What do Christian ethics have to do with hunting How do the Foxfire books of Southern Appalachia help us to love a place Does ecology need a place at the pulpit and in hymns How do Catholic approaches past and present help us appreciate and respond to the created world Finally how does Jesus respond to humans nonhumans and environmental concerns in the Gospel of Mark The Integrated Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Environmentalism S. Steiner-Aeschliman, 1999 The theory and data of environmental science suggest that growth in rates of population consumption and environmental degradation as a result of the activities of industrialized societies has created an ecological crisis to which modern societies must adapt However adaptation is problematic Max Weber studied adaptive social change during the industrial revolution The evolution of this new way of life was initially problematic because individuals who established industrialism were socialized under feudalism In this dissertation I consider The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism as a theoretical treatise framed by modern human ecology in order to study social change in the context of the ecological crisis of industrialism The Protestant Ethic is known for describing how religious ideas influenced the unfolding of modern capitalism in the West However there is nothing inherent in Protestantism that requires linkage to industrialism I argue that Protestantism has evolved and that it need not necessarily promote environmental exploitation although under industrialism it has I identify a green subculture within Protestantism and consider how Protestantism s weakness may also be its strength The very sociological structure that in the absence of ecologically realistic norms permits widespread ecosystem degradation by industrial capitalism may also generate ecologically realistic norms for a natural capitalism Weber contended that rationality was problematic because it paradoxically results in a dual crisis of management and meaning where human agency becomes imprisoned as if in an iron cage The irrational continuation of environmentally degrading social practices eventually contributes to a legitimation crisis People turn to religion as an alternative authority If science and religion converge on environmental values they might catalyze social change unless they are too distorted by ideological bias Adaptive social change only occurs if ethical and ecological values are in accordance with the sustainability of ecosystems Hence to adapt to the ecological crisis sociocultural systems require socialization into ecological realism because ecologically rational societies may still be maladaptively organized around environmentally unsustainable trajectories The Audacious Great Singing School Adventure Robert Gottfried, 2021-04-15 Ever wonder why many people feel closer to God in nature than anywhere else Does God love everything or only humans Why did God become a human And what's God up to anyway Starting with an eternal jazz trio that decided before time began that it would love to share the joy of Music making with others the Audacious Great Singing School Adventure explores these and other theological themes in a playful imaginative re casting of the Gospel story It also serves as an entertaining source of inspiration and insight for those just getting into spirituality as well as for those seeking to deepen their spiritual journey While orthodox in content the fable presents Christianity in a fresh way relevant to a world in environmental and social upheaval Those interested in what Christianity has to say to such a world will find this engaging musical story enlightening regardless of their own faith perspectives while those identifying themselves as Christians will find their faith deepened and enlivened A discussion guide to the fable is available for free download Nurturing the Soil-feeding the People Winfried Scheewe, 2000

Civilizing the Wilderness A.A. den Otter,2012-07-02 In this collection of essays A A den Otter explores the meaning of the concepts civilizing and wilderness within an 1850s Euro British North American context At the time den Otter argues these concepts meant something quite different than they do today Through careful readings and researches of a variety of lesser known individuals and events den Otter teases out the striking dichotomy between civilizing and wilderness leading readers to a new understanding of the relationship between newcomers and Native peoples and the very lands they inhabited Historians and non specialists with an interest in western Canadian native settler and environmental economic history will be deeply rewarded by reading Civilizing the Wilderness The Transfiguration of Christ and Creation John Gatta,2011-01-01 The biblical story of Jesus Transfiguration on a high mountain bristles with meanings germane to present day concerns and spiritual longings Together with its later artistic representations this episode from the synoptic gospels seizes the imagination as an icon of mystical hope beauty and possibility What might such an iconic episode long honored liturgically in the Eastern church disclose not only about Jesus but also about the prospect of seeing our human nature transformed And as interpreted by Christian tradition since the patristic era what might it tell us about the worth of envisioning not just a conservation or preservation of natural resources but a transfiguration of all creation and about how this feast of beauty could re energize current discussions of Christianity's relation to environmental attitudes and policy Such questions are addressed in this book through an original blend of personal reflection with commentary on relevant theological and Living Countertestimony Walter Brueggemann, 2012-10-11 This volume scriptural texts literary works music and art invites readers to get up close and personal with one of the most respected and beloved writers of the last four decades Carolyn J Sharp has transcribed numerous table conversations between Walter Brueggemann and his colleagues and former students in addition to several of his addresses and sermons from both academic and congregational settings The result is the essential Brueggemann readers will learn about his views on scholarship faith and the church get insights into his contagious charisma grace and charity and appreciate the candid reflections on the fears uncertainties and difficulties he faced over the course of his career Anyone interested in Brueggemann's work and thoughts will be gifted with thought provoking inspirational reading from within these pages Living in an Icon Robert Gottfried, Frederick W. Krueger, 2019-08-17 Helps bridge the gap between love of God and love of nature Many people experience God most strongly in nature but do not know how to incorporate this experience into their spiritual life Others question whether Christianity has room for nature at all and seek alternatives elsewhere often leaving Christianity entirely This book addresses this crucial issue by providing a resource for fostering a closer relationship with God and creation With a step by step approach this book provides a framework integrating asceticism with the contemplation of nature Each chapter contains a take it home section for applying the lessons learned outdoors to everyday life connecting God and nature as seamless components of spirituality Topics include gratitude delight appreciation wonder discernment reverence mortality love beauty humility silence and hope
