The Politics of Economic Adjustment Stephan Haggard, Robert R. Kaufman, 2018-06-05 In the 1980s some developing countries adopted orthodox market oriented policies in response to international economic crises others experimented with alternative programs and still others failed to develop coherent adjustment strategies of any sort Building on the case studies in Economic Crisis and Policy Choice these essays offer comparative analysis of these divergent experiences with macroeconomic stabilization and structural adjustment Barbara Stallings and Miles Kahler explore the external pressures on governments Peter Evans and John Waterbury examine the role of the state in the adjustment process Evans through the lens of earlier historical experience with economic restructuring Waterbury by focusing on the politics of privatization Joan Nelson analyzes the politics of income distribution in the adjustment process and Haggard and Kaufman investigate the political correlates of inflation and stabilization A final essay assesses the prospects for combining market oriented reforms with political democratization

Economic Adjustment and Growth Delano Villanueva, Roberto S Mariano, Diwa C Guinigundo, 2023 This book focuses on conceptualizing the process of economic adjustment and growth and testing it with empirical methods The critical components of a successful economic growth strategy include physical financial and educational infrastructures supported by macro financial stabilization policies and structural reforms With this in mind the authors begin with a review of the neoclassical growth model before delving into more specialized topics such as endogenous growth adaptive inflationary expectations learning by doing optimal saving and sustainable foreign debt The final chapter presents Philippines as a case study and narrates the evolution of a successful strategy of adjustment and growth practiced by an emerging market economy that had shown stellar pre pandemic growth performance low and stable inflation and a sustainable external current account position

Modelling Macroeconomic Adjustment with Growth in Developing Economies Sushanta K. Mallick, 2018-08-13 First published in 1999 this influential volume explores Macroeconomic Adjustment with a particular focus on India Its inspiration originated from the introduction of stabilisation and structural adjustment policies in India in 1991 Mallick examines the application of this policy package by the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank to Developing Economies First looking at the initial conditions and generators of imbalances the appropriate policy framework for India's initial conditions and structural characteristics is considered While the effectiveness of the IMF had been strongly criticised Mallick explains how it could be used more effectively He argues that the programs applied are often contradictory and using India as an example examines the effects of policy reform on its trade sector the repercussions on the direct economy and the costs associated with such policies in restoring stability and future economic growth with particular support for the Vector Autoregression VAR framework Mallick forwards a new structural model for policy purposes evaluated for overall performance and optimal control
