Eco's Chaosmos Cristina Farronato,2003 While Umberto Eco's intellectual itinerary was marked by his early studies of post-Crocean aesthetics and his spectacular concentration on linguistics information theory structuralism semiotics cognitive science and media studies what constitutes the peculiarity of his critical and fiction writing is the tension between a typically medieval search for a code and the hermeneutic representative of deconstructive tendencies This tension between cosmos and chaos order and disorder is reflected in the word chaosmos In this brilliant assessment of the philosophical basis of Eco's critical and fictional writing Cristina Farronato explores the other distinctive aspect of Eco's thought the struggle for a composition of opposites the outcome deriving from his ability to elicit similar contrasts from the past and re play them in modern terms Focusing principally on how Eco's scholarly background influenced his study of semiotics Farronato analyzes The Name of the Rose in relation to William of Ockham's epistemology C S Peirce's work on abduction and Wittgenstein's theory of language She discusses Foucault's Pendulum as an explicit comment on the modern debate on interpretation through a direct reference to Early Modern hermetic thought correlates The Island of the Day Before as a postmodern mixture of science and superstition and reviews Baudolino as an historical fantastic novel that once again situates the Middle Ages in a postmodern context Eco's Chaosmos demonstrates how Eco's use of semiotic theory is important for an understanding of the postmodern aspects of today's literature and culture

The Philosophy of Umberto Eco Sara G. Beardsworth,Randall E. Auxier,2017-05-09 The Philosophy of Umberto Eco stands out in the Library of Living Philosophers series as the volume on the most interdisciplinary scholar hitherto and probably the most widely translated The Italian philosopher's name and works are well known in the humanities both his philosophical and literary works being translated into fifteen or more languages Eco is a founder of modern semiotics and widely known for his work in the philosophy of language and aesthetics He is also a leading figure in the emergence of postmodern literature and is associated with cultural and mass communication studies His writings cover topics such as advertising television and children's literature as well as philosophical questions bearing on truth reality cognition language and literature The critical essays in this volume cover the full range of this output This book has wide appeal not only because of its interdisciplinary nature but also because of Eco's famous high and low approach which is deeply scholarly in conception and very accessible in outcome The short essay Why Philosophy included in the volume is exemplary in this regard it will appeal to scholars for its wit and to high school students for its intelligibility

The Modern Afterlives of Old Irish Travel Narratives Natalia I. Petrovskaia, 2025-07-24 This book explores the reception of the medieval Irish tradition of fantastic journey tales in Jonathan Swift's Gulliver's Travels C S Lewis's The Voyage of the Dawn Treader Umberto Eco's Baudolino and the science fiction television franchises Star Trek and Stargate In doing so the book opens the door to a new history of literary reception using Old Irish genre categories to analyse post medieval texts It aims to show that there is a family of texts produced in the post medieval period that are heirs of the medieval Irish literary tradition of fantastic voyage narratives and that using Old Irish genre categories to analyse post medieval works can open up new perspectives in our understanding of these works

New Essays on Umberto Eco Peter Bondanella, 2009-07-02 An introduction to Eco's contributions to a wide range of academic disciplines as well as to his literary works placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries operates Book Jacket

Discourses of Mourning in Dante, Petrarch, and Proust Jennifer Rushworth, 2016 This book brings together in a novel and exciting combination three authors who have written movingly about mourning two medieval Italian poets Dante Alighieri and Francesco Petrarca and one early twentieth century French novelist Marcel Proust Each of these authors through their respective narratives of bereavement grapples with the challenge of how to write adequately about the deeply personal and painful experience of grief In Jennifer Rushworth's analysis discourses of mourning emerge as caught between the twin conflicting demands of a comforting readable shared generality and a silent solitary respect for the uniqueness of any and every experience of loss Rushworth explores a variety of major questions in the book including what type of language is appropriate to mourning What effect does mourning have on language Why and how has the Orpheus myth been so influential on discourses of mourning across different time periods and languages Might the form of mourning described in a text and the form of closure achieved by that same text be mutually formative and sustaining In this way discussion of the literary representation of mourning extends to embrace topics such as the medieval sin of acedia the proper name memory literary epiphanies the image of the book and the concept of writing as promise In addition to the three primary authors Rushworth draws extensively on the writings of Sigmund Freud Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Roland Barthes These rich and diverse psychoanalytical and French theoretical traditions provide terminological nuance and frameworks for comparison particularly in relation to the complex term melancholia

Narrativizing Theories Benjamin John Peters, 2020-02-06 Ours is an age of offense a time of reactionary shock always received never given Ours is an age that has forgone cultural narratives a time of individualism wherein personal identities trump the collective spirit Ours is an age of failing earth a time of ecological collapse yet the consumption of global capitalism continues to run amok But don't fear You have the correct worldview the best solutions It's not your fault these things are happening It's the president's the immigrant's and the Islamicist's Or perhaps It's the socialist's the tree hugger's and the baby killer's But it's not your fault Never yours For the world exists as you see it in an echo chamber lined with golden pixels Do I still have your attention Then join me Within the covers of Narrativizing Theories I dive into ambiguity and aesthetics to depict how clashing worldviews exist side by side yet remain mutually incompatible I examine how cultures distinguish between acceptable and unacceptable beliefs embodiments and identities And I outline an aesthetic theory of ambiguity that highlights through the twists and turns of literature the provisionality of knowledge and the narrativization of reality

Medieval Crime Fiction Anne McKendry, 2019-05-14 Combining elements of medievalism the historical novel and the detective narrative medieval crime fiction capitalizes upon the appeal of all three the most famous examples being Umberto Eco's The Name of the Rose one of the best selling books ever published and Ellis Peters' endearing Brother Cadfael series Hundreds of other novels and series fill out the genre in settings ranging from the so called Celtic Enlightenment in seventh century Ireland to the ruthless Inquisition in fourteenth century France to the mean streets of medieval London The detectives are an eclectic group including weary ex crusaders former Knights Templar enterprising monks and nuns and historical poets such as Geoffrey Chaucer This book investigates the enduring popularity of the largely unexamined genre and explores its social cultural and political contexts

The Birth of Territory Stuart Elden, 2022-12-22 Political theory professor Stuart Elden explores the history of land ownership and control from the ancient to the modern world in The Birth of Territory Territory is one of the central political concepts of the modern world and indeed functions as the primary way the world is divided and controlled politically Yet territory has not received the critical attention afforded to other crucial concepts such as sovereignty rights and justice While territory continues to matter politically and territorial disputes and arrangements are studied in detail the concept of territory itself is often neglected today Where did the idea of exclusive ownership of a portion of the earth's surface come from and what kinds of complexities are hidden behind that seemingly straightforward definition The Birth of Territory provides a detailed account of the emergence of territory within Western political thought Looking at ancient medieval Renaissance and early modern thought Stuart Elden examines the evolution of the concept of territory from ancient Greece to the seventeenth century to determine how we arrived at our contemporary understanding Elden addresses a range of historical political and literary texts and practices as well as a number of key players historians poets philosophers theologians and secular political theorists and in doing so sheds new light on the way the world came to be ordered and how the earth's surface is divided controlled and administered The Birth of Territory is an outstanding scholarly achievement a book that already promises to become a classic in geography together with very few others published in the past decades

Political Geography An impressive feat of erudition American Historical Review

Transmissions of Memory Patrizia Sambuco, 2018-03-19 Transmissions of Memory Echoes Traumas and Nostalgia in Post World War II Italian Culture discusses cultural products films poetry fiction architectural buildings autobiographical writing and social media to individuate through them the dynamics of memory The field of analysis is Italian culture from World War II to the contemporary times and the volume has in a gendered approach one of its focuses offering an encompassing view on cultural memory and highlighting the similarities between gendered revisitation and revisitation of the past The volume is divided into three sections cultural transmissions fractured memories and nostalgia In the chapters herewith the study of memory through these forms hints at a sense of transformation and often enrichment or resilience individual or collective that values more the present and the future rather than the past

Context in Literary and Cultural Studies Jakob Ladegaard, Jakob Gaardbo Nielsen, 2019-06-24 Context in Literary and Cultural Studies is an interdisciplinary volume that deals with the challenges of studying works of art and literature in their historical context today The relationship between artworks and context has long been a central concern for aesthetic and cultural disciplines and the question of context has been asked anew in all eras Developments in

Postmodern Artistry in Medievalist Fiction Earl R. Anderson, 2018-06-21 Focusing on modern day fiction set in the Middle Ages or that incorporates medieval elements this study examines storytelling components and rhetorical tropes in more than 60 works in five languages by more than 40 authors Medievalist fiction got its postmodern start with such authors as Calvino Fuentes Carpentier and Eco Its momentum increased since the 1990s with writers whose work has received less critical attention like Laura Esquivel Tariq Ali Matthew Pearl Matilde Asensi Ildefonso Falcones Andrew Davison Bernard Cornwell Donna Woolf Cross Ariana Franklin Nicole Griffith Levi Grossman Conn Iggulden Edward Rutherford Javier Sierra Alan Moore and Brenda Vantrease The author explores a wide range of medievalizing tropes discusses the negative responses of postmodernism and posits four hard problems in medievalist fiction

Contemporary Italian Narrative and 1970s Terrorism David Ward, 2017-02-13 This book is about literary representations of the both left and right wing Italian terrorism of the 1970s by contemporary Italian authors In offering detailed analyses of the many contemporary novels that have terrorism in either their foreground or background it offers a take on postmodern narrative practices that is alternative to and more positive than the highly critical assessment of Italian postmodernism that has characterized some sectors of current Italian literary criticism It explores how contemporary Italian writers have developed narrative strategies that enable them to represent the fraught experience of Italian terrorism in the 1970s In its conclusions the book suggests that to meet the challenge of representation posed by terrorism fiction rather than fact is the writer's best friend and most effective tool

A Communication Universe Igor E. Klyukanov, 2010-09-02 A Communication Universe Manifestations of Meaning Stagings of Significance presents a new theoretical understanding of communication Igor E Klyukanov conceptualizes the process of communication in terms of space and time i.e. as a continuous process of meaningful spatiotemporal transformation He goes on to examine four fundamental transformations and the four theoretical perspectives on the nature of communication From the first perspective communication appears to be pure space then time comes into play more and more actively and from the fourth perspective communication appears to be pure time Following the fourth transformation communication is seen as returning back to the first stage where it again appears as pure space however now its reality contains all meanings created in the process of the previous transformations Based on these four transformations the process of communication is understood as a universe meaning whole entire turned into one Borges' Classics Laura Jansen,2018-06-14 Reads the oeuvre of the Argentine author Jorge Luis Borges as a radically globalized model for reimagining our relationship with the classical past The first in depth exploration of Borges engagement with classical antiquity in any language and a major contribution to the field of global classics and to Borges studies JEGP, Journal of English and Germanic Philology Gustaf E.
