Verzeichniß von Büchern, welche auf der hiesigen Generalsuperintendentur d. 7. Okt. ... meistbietend verkauft werden sollen, 1799      Economics of Black Community Development Frank G. Davis, 1978      Black Economics Jawanza Kunjufu, 2002 Jawanza Kunjufu examines how to keep black businesses and the more than 450 billion generated by them in the black community      Black Economic Development Midwest Assembly on Black Economic Development, Lake, Ozark, Mo., 1970, 1970      Black Economic Development American Assembly, 1969 Used as background reading for the thirty fifth American Assembly Arden House Harriman New York April 24 27 1969      African American Economic Development and Small Business Ownership Kilolo Kijakazi, 2014-06-03 First Published in 1997 This book examines the history of economic development in the African American community and the use of entrepreneurship to improve the economic well being of its members The research in this book improves upon previous studies by analyzing factors related to business success by industry and region Finally this book sets forth for policy makers recommendations soundly based on a comprehensive understanding of the history and dynamics of African American enterprise      Economic Development and Black Employment in the Nonmetropolitan South James L. Walker, 1977      Black Economic Development American Assembly, 35th, New York, 1969, 1969      Growth, Equity, And Self-reliance Ampah G. Johnson, 2019-04-02 This book explores what is for many African countries a new and controversial policy of relying on private actors rather than on government organizations to foster economic growth and development The contributors explore key issues such as the impact of private enterprise on the development process small and medium sized businesses as a vehicle for growth and strategies for the expansion of markets and trade The contributors analyze the historical social cultural and economic obstacles to the development of private enterprise in Africa the roles of government women and business organizations access to capital and the function of financial institutions private initiative and agriculture the use of skilled and semi skilled labor and technology transfer Arguing that private sector forces are crucial to African socioeconomic development the contributors recommend economic policy reform establishment of more private enterprises and encouragement of new domestic and foreign investment      Entrepreneurship-centered Economic Development Wylin Jenelle Dassie, 1998      Financing Black Economic Development Timothy Mason Bates, William D. Bradford, 1979      African Economic Development Christopher Cramer, John Sender, Arkebe Oqubay, 2020-06-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries using the striking variation in economic performance as a starting point African Economic Development Evidence Theory and Policy highlights not only difference between countries but also variation within countries It focuses on issues relating to gender class and ethnic identity such as neo natal mortality school dropout and horticultural and agribusiness exports Variations in these areas point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past African Economic Development rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice criticizing a range of orthodox and heterodox economists for their cavalier attitude to evidence Instead it shows that seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be if certain impediments were removed Drawing on decades of research and policy experience this book combines careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with economic insights to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment Black Economic Development Flournoy A. Coles,1975 On Black Economic Development Edward D. Irons,1971 Black Economic Development William Levi Cash,Lucy R. Oliver,1975 Black Business and Economics George H. Hill,1985 Black Economic Development William F. Haddad,G. Douglas Pugh,1969 Used as background reading for the thirty fifth American Assembly Arden House Harriman New York April 24 27 1969 On the Road to Economic Freedom Robert L. Woodson,1987 African Economic Development ,2020 This book challenges conventional wisdoms both about economic performance and about policies for economic development in African countries Its starting point is the striking variation in economic performance unevenness and inequalities form a central fact The authors highlight not only differences between African countries but also variations within countries differences often organized around distinctions of gender class and ethnic identity For example school dropout and neonatal mortality have been reduced particularly for some classes of women in some areas Horticultural and agribusiness exports have grown far more rapidly in some countries than others These variations and many others point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other African policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and legacies of a colonial past The book rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice but does pay close attention to the results of policy in more industrialized parts of the world Seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development is likely to be a smooth linear process or that it would be were certain impediments removed The authors criticize a wide range of orthodox and heterodox economists especially for their cavalier attitude to statistical sources Drawing on decades of research and policy experience they combine careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with heterodox political economy insights mainly derived from Kalecki Kaldor and Hirschman to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment The Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment (BBBEE). How to Deal as a Foreign Investor Kristina Wagner,2019-09-20 Seminar paper from the year 2017 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1 7 University of Applied
