cultural heritage and promote cultural rights thereby contributing to social cohesion and inclusive development. However, challenges such as funding limitations, cultural commodification, and the impact of digital technology require ongoing dialogue and innovation in policy approaches. On the other hand, cultural policies in nondemocratic regimes are often used as tools for political control, censorship, and the promotion of state ideology. Nevertheless, cultural practitioners and activists in these contexts demonstrate resilience and creativity in navigating restrictive environments, often using digital technology to amplify their voices and preserve cultural identity. In various countries, existing legislation greatly influences the implementation of cultural policies and sustainable development. In Indonesia, for example, Law Number 5 of 2017 concerning Culture serves as the main foundation for the development of sustainable cultural policies. This law promotes the protection, preservation, development, utilization, and fostering of culture as an integral part of national development. Law Number 5 of 2017 concerning the Advancement of Culture and Cultural Policy and Sustainable Development are interrelated concepts and are the main focus of this conference, where appropriate cultural policies can strengthen sustainable development, reinforce cultural identity, and improve the quality of life for communities. In the context of the conference theme, Cultural Policies in Democratic and Nondemocratic Regimes, it is important to consider the differences in cultural policy approaches between these two types of regimes. This forum aims to facilitate communication among Law Faculty Academics worldwide with the agenda of the 1st International Conference on Cultural Policy and Sustainable Development (ICPSD) Cultural Policies in Democratic and Nondemocratic Regimes. Proceedings of 5th Borobudur International Symposium on Humanities and Social Science (BISHSS 2023) Zulfikar Bagus Pambuko, Muji Setiyo, Chrisna Bagus Edhita Praja, Agus Setiawan, Fitriana Yuliastuti, Lintang Muliawanti, Veni Soraya Dewi, 2024-08-01.
