Paul Maloney,2016-10-13 Focusing on Glasgow s earliest surviving music hall the Britannia later the Panopticon this book explores the role of one of the city s most iconic cultural venues within the cosmopolitan entertainment market that emerged in British cities in the nineteenth century Shedding light on the increasing diversity of commercial entertainment provided by such venues offering everything from music hall early cinema and amateur nights to waxworks menageries and freak shows this study also encompasses the model of community based working class music hall which characterised the Panopticon s later years challenging narratives of the primacy of city centre variety Providing a comprehensive analysis of this dynamic popular theatre of the industrial age Maloney examines the role of the hall s managers marketing and promotional strategies audiences and performing genres from the hall s opening in 1859 until final closure in 1938 The book also explores stage representations of Irish and Jewish immigrant communities present in surrounding city centre areas demonstrating the Britannia s diasporic links to other British cities and centres in North America thus providing a multifaceted and pioneering account of this still extant Victorian music hall Hunger on the Stage Elisabeth Angel-Perez,Alexandra

Poulain,2009-10-02 In his short story The Hunger Artist Kafka imagined the theatrical career of a professional faster whose performance consists merely in displaying his own starving body before an avid audience Kafka thus paradoxically suggested that hunger mere emptiness working its way through declining bodies may be a privileged theatrical object Hunger often signals an anchorage in socio historical reality and invites extreme situations on stage articulating large scale cataclysms famines the devastation of war with personal tragedies hunger strikes anorexia etc in which characters experience the tenuousness of their own lives Whether in the comic or in the tragic mode staged hunger metaphorizes various kinds of starvation material greed spiritual emotional sexual starvation and even linguistic insufficiency This volume explores the aesthetic and ethical issues raised by hunger on the stage in the English speaking world It investigates the paradox of the hypervisibility of the thinning body and shows how throughout history hunger has given shape to innovative powerfully transgressive dramaturgies Elements of the Table Lynn Rosen,2007 Offers a complete overview of all things for the tabletop describing different types of china silver and flatware crystal and table decor from where to put a place card and creative napkin foldings to basic etiquette The Grand Life: Confessions of an Old School Hotelier in the Digital

Age Patrick L Griffin OAM, A funny moving and heartfelt memoir of social upheaval from postwar Britain to the digital age Patrick Langley Griffin OAM grew up in the post war years of a gloomy Britain in the 40s and 50s and his career spanned fifty years as a hotelier in Grand hotels across the UK Europe and Australia His memoir is filled with characters famous infamous and hitherto unknown From his first star encounter with Charlie Chaplin the memoir is filled with tales of film stars rock legends celebrities Heads of State and politicians as well as the British Royal Family No less enjoyable are the tales of ordinary folk just as full of laughs tears and crazy behaviour The memoir is full of humour candour and genuine empathy for the common humanity that binds us all Born in Rugby England in 1946 his early youth was spent in Swanage Dorset where the family had moved to escape the German bombing while their father served in the RAF Although not academically inclined his charm wit and unfailing ability to make lemonade when he was given lemons ensure his childhood and public school years are filled with adventures and hilarious mishaps His career started in 1963 as a trainee manager at The Grand Hotel in Eastbourne a very traditional Victorian era five star hotel where he found his passion for hospitality Half a century of social and political change comes to life from post war austerity and bureaucracy through the Swinging 60s and the Summer of Love in Amsterdam to England s industrial upheaval and Winter of Discontent of the 70s He moved to Australia at the dawn of a new century to open two new upscale hotels and survived and thrived in the global financial crisis that shook the world
