Introduction

Given the accelerated rate of turbulence in the business environment, maintaining good and effective communication as a human resource strategy remain critical to building industrial harmony, where employees are highly motivated to keep the organization competitive through increased productivity and sustained growth Chukwuka (2015). Equally, the cost of communication has been drastically reduced with the advent of technological advancement therefore using the right communication approaches will drive positive outcome to the benefit of the organization.

It is against this background that Suparna (2017) argue that robust conversation is essential to any group's success - whether or not it is a small operation or a multinational corporation. Potent verbal exchange is a valuable point for human useful resource leaders. Martin et al (2011) states that every employee and manager believe that communication is essential to the success of any company. Employees and managers should be prepared to examine and solve problems that will lead to growth and development of the organization. Hence, Chukwuka (2015) argue that low
