Woodbury, 2008-06-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world's literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work Artful Lives Beth Gates Warren, 2011 Sumario Prologue Edward Weston a Midwestern upbringing 1886 1905 Weston takes on Tropico 1906 1912 Margrethe Mather an inauspicious start 1886 1912 The City of the Angels 1850 1913 Getting established early 1913 Getting acquainted late 1913 to 1914 Challenges 1915 Outside influences 1916 The tide turns 1917 War and pestilence 1918 Exhilaration 1919 Seeking acclaim 1920 Fame and angst 1921 Tragedies and triumphs 1922 Endings and beginnings 1923 Epilogue Afterword EDWARD WESTON Nancy Wynne Newhall, 1975 Weston and Charlot Lew Andrews, 2011-12-01 Edward Weston 1886 1958 was one of the most celebrated photographers of the twentieth century Jean Charlot 1898 1979 a classically trained French artist best known for his murals woodcuts and paintings celebrating Mexican culture played a key role as a participant and chronicler of the Mexican Renaissance This book based on letters that Weston and Charlot exchanged from the early 1920s until Weston's death in 1958 documents a friendship that says as much about art about photography and fresco practice criticism and history as it does about the intersection of a number of fascinating characters the ups and downs of the correspondents daily lives the pursuit of their dreams and aspirations and the support and encouragement they gave each other Lew Andrews crafts a multivalent narrative that reconfigures our understanding of Weston Charlot and their era shedding new light on specific events and artwork While giving us rare insight into the everyday life of these artists this work also supplies an important chapter in the history of twentieth century art and photography seen close up and from the inside

Edward Weston Edward Weston, 1995-10-30 This new book surveys Edward Weston's work more comprehensively and exhaustively than any previous work A combination of biography and critical analysis it offers more than 320 meticulously reproduced duotone images nearly a quarter of which have never been reproduced in books before The selected photographs trace Weston's career from his early days through formative years in Mexico and on through the balance of his career which ended because of the onset of Parkinson's disease ten years prior to his death in 1958 Treated chronologically and emphasizing Weston's creative preoccupations in each period the book includes work that he created in 1938 and 1939 with funds from the first two Guggenheim Foundation grants ever awarded to a photographer To illustrate the book vintage prints have been selected from the copious Weston Archives at the Center for Creative Photography in Tucson Arizona and the highly important Lane Collection at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts Nearly 10 000 photographs have been examined in order to select those reproduced in the book The Daybooks of Edward Weston: Mexico Edward Weston, 1973 For more than fifteen years Edward Weston kept a diary in which he recorded his struggle to understand himself his society and his medium Seldom has an artist written about his life as vividly intimately or sensitively His journal has become a classic of photographic literature A towering figure in twentieth century photography Weston sought to awaken human vision His restless quest for beauty and the mystical presence behind it created a body of work unrivaled in the medium For more than fifteen years Edward Weston kept a diary in which he recorded his struggle to understand himself his society and his medium Seldom has an artist written about his life as vividly intimately or sensitively His journal has become a classic of photographic literature A towering figure in twentieth century photography Weston sought to awaken human vision His restless quest for beauty and the mystical presence behind it created a body of work unrivaled in the medium Edward Weston Edward Weston, 1989 Weston spent the greatest part of his towering career setting a standard of photographic portraiture Included are images of Diego Rivera Frida Kahlo Tina Modotti and James Cagney Together these photographs create a powerful volume that demands a fresh look at this central endeavor of his life's work Alternative Process Photography for the Contemporary Photographer Morgan Post, 2022-08-22 A comprehensive textbook Alternative Process Photography for the Contemporary Photographer explores the ways in which the materiality and science of photography and aesthetic concepts of contemporary photography can work together in an accessible way The book explores processes such as calotype wet plate collodion cyanotype platinum and palladium gum bichromate and digital It explains not only the historical context behind these processes but draws on examples from contemporary practitioners to show how the processes can be used within the field of contemporary photography Author Morgan Post exemplifies the creative ways in which a contemporary photographer can engage with alternative process photography as a beginner and includes contributions from Takashi Arai Alida Rodrigues Binh Danh Diana H Bloomfield and many others from around the world The textbook is accompanied by a companion website offering accessible step by step video instructions that demonstrate the processes explored Bridging analogue and digital media the textbook is ideal for students of photography and amateur photographers with an interest in alternative methods to photography The History of Photography Alma Davenport, 1999 A compact readable up to date overview of the history of photography Edward Weston Ben Maddow, 1989 An extensive portrait of the pioneering organic life photographer draws on his journals letters and the accounts of friends and family to reveal the artist behind the work The New Criterion, 2006 Conversations with Contemporary Photographers Nan Richardson, 2005

Conversations is a landmark series in photography featuring extensive interviews by major international critics with living masters on aesthetics craft and culture The book traces the heritage of the medium in fascinating informal discourses on topics ranging from the personal to the political covering intimate detail and theoretical background alike Complete with biographies bibliographies and self portraits of each featured artist it is both a vital record of contemporary photography and an engaging read

BOOK JACKET PHOTOGRAPHY: A CONCISE HISTORY Donald Kahn, 2014-07-10 A dedicated amateur photographer all my adult life I have often thought of writing a concise history of the subject It isn't that there are no other histories of the subject But most of these are reference works or just specialized studies dedicated to one or a few photographers I know of no work that pretends to cover the entire subject yet could be read over a weekend One might think of including enough references so that a potential reader could track down all the further details There is no longer a need for a Monster Book where every thought is illustrated by a picture

Edward Weston Susan Danly, Jonathan Spaulding, Edward Weston, Jennifer A. Watts, Jessica Todd Smith, 2003 This is the first major book to celebrate the Huntington's collection of five hundred Edward Weston photographs all of them selected and printed for the institution by the artist in the 1940s The Guggenheim photographs lie at the heart of this legacy but Weston also included in his gift still life studies from the early 1920s and 1930s as well as later landscapes from the 1940s Weston selected these photographs as representative of his best work and they are reproduced here complemented by investigations into the influences that shaped them

The ^ADream Endures Kevin Starr, 2002-11-28 What we now call the good life first appeared in California during the 1930s Motels home trailers drive ins barbecues beach life and surfing sports from polo and tennis and golf to mountain climbing and skiing sportswear a word coined at the time and sun suits were all a part of the good life perhaps California's most distinctive influence of the 1930s In The Dream Endures Kevin Starr shows how the good life prospered in California in pursuits such as film fiction leisure and architecture and helped to define American culture and society then and for years to come Starr previously chronicled how Californians absorbed the thousand natural shocks of the Great Depression unemployment strikes Communist agitation reactionary conspiracies in Endangered Dreams the fourth volume of his classic history of California In The Dream Endures Starr reveals the other side of the picture examining the newly important places where the good life flourished like Los Angeles where Hollywood lived Palm Springs where Hollywood vacationed San Diego where the Navy went the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena where Einstein went and changed his view of the universe and college towns like Berkeley We read about the rich urban life of San Francisco and Los Angeles and in newly important communities like Carmel and San Simeon the home of William Randolph Hearst where each Thursday afternoon automobiles packed with Hollywood celebrities would arrive from Southern California for the long weekend at Hearst Castle The 1930s were the heyday of the Hollywood studios and Starr brilliantly captures Hollywood films and the society that surrounded the studios Starr offers an astute discussion of the European refugees who arrived in Hollywood during the period prominent European film actors and artists and the creative refugees who were drawn to Hollywood and Southern California in these years Igor Stravinsky Arnold Schoenberg Man Ray Bertolt Brecht Christopher Isherwood Aldous Huxley Thomas Mann and Franz Werfel Starr gives a fascinating account of how many of them attempted to recreate their European world in California and how others like Samuel Goldwyn provided stories and dreams for their adopted nation Starr reserves his greatest attention and most memorable writing for San Francisco For Starr despite the city's beauty and commercial importance San Francisco's most important achievement was the sense of well being it conferred on its citizens It was a city that magically belonged to everyone Whether discussing photographers like Edward Weston and Ansel Adams hard boiled fiction writers or the new breed of female star Marlene Dietrich Jean Harlow Bette Davis Carole Lombard and the improbable Mae West The Dream Endures is a brilliant social and cultural history in many ways the most far reaching and important of Starr's California books

The Soul of the Camera David duChemin, 2017-06-14 As both an art form and a universal language the photograph has an extraordinary ability to connect and communicate with others But with over one trillion photos taken each year why do so few of them truly connect Why do so few of them grab our emotions or our imaginations It is not because the images lack focus or proper exposure with advances in technology the camera does that so well these days Photographer David duChemin believes the majority of our images fall short because they lack soul And without soul the images have no ability to resonate with others They simply cannot connect with the viewer or even if we're being truthful with ourselves
