Egyptian Ideas of the Future Life Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge,1900 Egyptian Ideas Of The Future Life Illustrateed E a Wallis Budge,2020-10 This book is intended to give the reader an account of the principal ideas and beliefs held by the ancient Egyptians concerning the resurrection and the future life which is derived wholly from native religious works

Egyptian Ideas of the Future Life Sir E A Wallis Budge,2021-04-26 The chief source of our information concerning the doctrine of the resurrection and of the future life as held by the Egyptians is of course the great collection of religious texts generally known by the name of Book of the Dead The various recensions of these wonderful compositions cover a period of more than five thousand years and they reflect faithfully not only the sublime beliefs and the high ideals and the noble aspirations of the educated Egyptians but also the various superstitions and childish reverence for amulets and magical rites and charms which they probably inherited from their pre dynastic ancestors and regarded as essentials for their salvation It must be distinctly understood that many passages and allusions in the Book of the Dead still remain obscure and that in some places any translator will be at a difficulty in attempting to render certain important words into any modern European language But it is absurd to talk of almost the whole text of the Book of the Dead as being utterly corrupt for royal personages and priests and scribes to say nothing of the ordinary educated folk would not have caused costly copies of a very lengthy work to be multiplied and illustrated by artists possessing the highest skill unless it had some meaning to them and was necessary for the attainment by them of the life which is beyond the grave The finds of recent years in Egypt have resulted in the recovery of valuable texts whereby numerous difficulties have been cleared away and we must hope that the faults made in translating to day may be corrected by the discoveries of to morrow In spite of all difficulties both textual and grammatical sufficient is now known of the Egyptian religion to prove with certainty that the Egyptians possessed some six thousand years ago a religion and a system of morality which when stripped of all corrupt accretions stand second to none among those which have been developed by the greatest nations of the world
