Description For most ancient Egyptians life on earth was short But death was not an end it was merely the entering of a new phase of being They believed that the afterlife was a real place but various obstacles torments and judgements had to be overcome to reach it To ensure a safe passage wealthy Egyptians took with them specially commissioned compilations of spells written on papyrus rolls There was a large number of spells to choose from spells for obtaining air food and water for transforming your body into another form such a bird or lotus for warding off hostile snakes and crocodiles for preventing your heart from disclosing all your sins for not permitting others to steal your body parts and soul for not doing work in the realm of the dead and so on Through these fragile papyrus texts and vignettes and a selection of other funerary objects this book reveals what the ancient Egyptians believed lay between life and the afterlife The Author John H Taylor is a curator at the British Museum specializing in ancient Egyptian funerary archaeology The Egyptian Book of the Dead E.
