between housing crises urban unrest and the evolution of real estate markets The book develops a historicist framework to understand residential capitalism an important contribution for an age in which real estate markets have come to determine the rhythms of global capital Addressing key issues and debates in the field including the financialisation of housing the politics of scale and urban entrepreneurialism the political economy of the Eurozone and the history of capitalist development this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of political economy as well as those engaged in crossover fields such as housing studies urban geography or financial geography
