Credibility Without Rules

Mr. Carlo Cottarelli, Curzio Giannini, 1997-12-23 During the last 25 years monetary practice in most countries has increasingly been characterized by the attempt to achieve credibility of purpose while expanding the freedom of monetary authorities in controlling policy instruments Thus the world has moved toward monetary frameworks in which through appropriate institutional devices a better trade off between credibility of goals and flexibility of instruments could be achieved This attempt surveyed in this paper has taken many forms depending on the countries economic institutional and cultural specificities Economic Policy Georges de Menil, 1985 Output Measurement in Science and Technology C. Freeman, 2013-10-22 Output Measurement in Science and Technology Essays in Honor of Yvan Fabian focuses on the processes methodologies and indicators of the advancement in science and technology The selection first offers information on a technology gap approach to why growth rates differ and the impact of technological innovation on international trade patterns Discussions focus on industrial innovation and international trade performance use of patents in international trade analyses technology gaps innovation and economic growth and economic and technological levels of development The text then elaborates on a survey of literature on patents and the measurement of technological change and patents as indicators of corporate technological strength including patents as predictors of financial performance and corporate technological strength improving the patent information and patents in the innovation process The manuscript ponders on an empirical study on patents and inventors and a study of innovation in the pesticide industry Topics include market demand and environmental concern quantitative and qualitative analysis of pesticide innovations over time and a review of innovation in pesticides The selection is a dependable reference for researchers wanting to study the output measurement in science and technology Labour Relations and Economic Performance Carlo Dell'Aringad, 2016-07-27 This volume contains the proceedings of a conference held to assess the current state of the analysis of the labour market and of industrial relations and their relationship to economic performance IMF Working Paper, 1992 Economic Policy in a Highly Dollarized Economy International Monetary Fund, 2003-09-30 This study examines the challenges and issues facing policymakers in highly dollarized economies Focusing on Cambodia which achieved almost complete dollarization during 1991-95 the authors review recent developments in the literature on dollarization and examine the costs and benefits of dollarization in Cambodia including the ensuing macroeconomic policy implications They carry out an econometric estimation of cash foreign currency circulation in Cambodia in order to gauge the degree of dollarization In addition to this analysis the authors present a short description of Cambodia's economic financial and structural background Staff Studies for the World Econ Outlook, August 1987 International Monetary Fund, 1987-01-01 This paper reviews the long term growth performance of the major industrial countries and discusses some of the many factors that have been identified as possible sources of the marked slowdown in growth since the early 1970s According to the view of different demographic developments across countries it is useful to break the growth of output down into changes in labor input and changes in labor productivity in order to obtain a basis for cross country comparisons Wage behavior in the face of energy price shocks appears to have differed considerably among the major industrial countries Increased uncertainty reflecting in particular changes in the international economic environment and the stop go financial policies of several of the major countries during the 1970s and is frequently cited as a possible reason for the slowdown in growth mainly through its impact on private investment Views on the contribution of slower net capital accumulation to the deceleration in growth depend upon assessments of whether the efficiency of investment declined significantly after 1973 and on assumptions made about technological change and the embodiment of technical progress
