Montes, 2002-05-22 The Asian road to the market has generally been seen as a model of success and the object of widespread admiration This volume evaluates the actual experience and debunks some of the most widespread myths It does so by identifying the link between alternative transition models public policies and household responses on the one hand and key welfare changes on the other Even in countries experiencing sustained growth there have been unmistakable signs of deep social strain Research Activities of the IMF, January 1991-December 1998 International Monetary Fund, 1999-09-24 A selective index of major research papers prepared by IMF staff in 1991 98 IMF Macroeconomic Research on Low-Income Countries International Monetary Fund, 2004-01-30 Summarizes the forward looking analytical work program on macroeconomic issues related to the Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper approach The program is evolving through a process that began with a technical workshop participants from low income countries donors academia and civil society drafted guidance on selected issues and identified priority research topics Partners policymakers and economic scholars are encouraged to share their perspectives and findings through respective team leaders whose e mail addresses are provided The publication also summarizes IMF analytical work and contains a bibliography of nearly 1 000 papers Research Activities of the IMF, January 1991-December 1999 International Monetary Fund, 2000-01-01 Research activity in the IMF emphasizes the links between the organization's policy and operational concerns The main objectives of research is IMF staff understanding of policy and operational issues relevant to the institution and to improve the analytical quality of the work prepared for management and the Executive Board and the advice provided to member countries The scope of research in the IMF is defined by the purposes and functions of the institution In order to foster innovation and ensure quality control the IMF makes much of its research available outside the institution and encourages staff to interact with academia and other research organizations through conferences seminars and occasional joint research projects The visiting scholar's program has also enhanced the quality of research done in the IMF This program brings in leading members of the economics profession from around the world to assist in the preparation of papers for the Executive Board and to conduct research on IMF related issues The Rebirth of Uzbekistan Resul Yalcin, 2002 This title examines Uzbekistan's development since the break up of the Soviet Union its social political and economic orientation in the modern world and its role as a bridge between East and West North and South Ukraine--review of Farm Restructuring Experiences Zvi Lerman, Csaba Csáki, 2000-01-01 Restructuring has produced a definite favorable impact on labor relations and workers behavior in the reorganized farms Managers of reorganized farm enterprises give a much more positive assessment of the behavioral patterns of their workers than managers of non reorganized farms Agriculture remains the main source of employment and livelihood for the large rural population of many transition countries especially among the former Soviet republics Accordingly the World Bank continuously monitors the progress of land reform and farm restructuring in the region because of the potential impact of these processes on rural development and poverty alleviation in rural areas The present study on Ukraine is the latest addition to a long and growing series of World Bank publications on land reform and farm restructuring in the former socialist countries of Europe and Central Asia The unique feature of all these publications is their reliance on first hand empirical information collected through extensive farm surveys of various rural constituencies Farm surveys have been conducted by the World Bank in many countries of the CIS Russia Ukraine Moldova Armenia Georgia Turkmenistan Belarus and Central and Eastern Europe Poland Romania Bulgaria Hungary Albania Analysis of survey findings enables the World Bank to base its policy dialogue with governments in the region on solid empirical facts making the Bank's recommendation much more credible and relevant The new findings for Ukraine will similarly provide a platform for useful policy discussions with this country's government and supply the many international donors active on the local scene with essential information for the design of their strategic programs

Transition, Bleak Future? Hooman Peimani, 2002-04-30 Peimani challenges the practical indifference of many Western and non Western countries with interests in Central Asia and the Caucasus to their plight Independence in 1991 suddenly worsened all the economic and social problems of the countries of the Caucasus Azerbaijan Armenia and Georgia and Central Asia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan Their failure to address their numerous economic problems and to develop their economies has created a suitable ground for the rise of social and political popular dissent including ethnic conflicts in all these multi ethnic countries Concerned about the stability of their political systems their ruling elites have all opted for authoritarianism The prevailing intolerance of dissent and the suppression of opposition political parties have paved the way for the emergence of anti government extremist ideologies and political groups The domestic situation has become ripe for the rise of violent political activities and ethnic conflicts with a great possibility for their escalation to civil wars The ethnic structure of both the Caucasus and Central Asia makes their development into interstate wars a strong possibility The unsettled ethnic and territorial conflicts within and between countries which turned into wars in the early 1990s could easily re emerge There is a potential for the further escalation of military conflicts in those regions because of the intentional or unintentional intervention of Iran China Turkey Russia and the United States which have long term interests in the two regions Given the geographical characteristics of the Caucasus and Central Asia as a link between Asia and Europe war and instability in those regions could destabilize the two continents hosting six declared nuclear powers Of particular interest to scholars and other researchers involved with Eurasian Central Asian and Caucasian countries Farm Sector Restructuring in Belarus Csaba Csáki, Zvi Lerman, Serge?
