Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Economic Stabilization, 1991 Captives of the Cold War Economy John J. Accordino, 2000-07-30 The end of the Cold War in 1989 gave rise to hopes for a new more peaceful international system and for the redirection of military expenditures over one half of annual U S federal discretionary spending toward education and health care renewing the nation s infrastructure environmental mitigation and alternative energy sources At the beginning of the 21st Century U S military spending remains stuck at 85% of the Cold War average Why As Accordino explains at the federal level the Iron Triangle comprised of the Pentagon defense contractors and a conservative Congress maintained defense spending at Cold War levels encouraging contractors to stay focused on defense When some procurement cutbacks and base closures occurred growth interests recruited lower wage branch plants sports and entertainment facilities rather than supporting the hard work of defense conversion that creates higher paying jobs Nevertheless some defense contractors and community interests did embrace conversion showing remarkable potential Of particular interest to scholars and researchers involved with urban and regional planning public administration and local politics and regional economic development Economic Earthquakes Patrick Lloyd Hatcher, 1994 North Atlantic Civilization at War Patrick Lloyd Hatcher, 2016-07-01 This book recounts the World War II journeys of a soldier a ship and a bottle of spirits through and around five great turning point battles Those battles were influenced more by geography and climate than by generals and admirals Properly titled they would be known as the Battles of the Sky Britain the Sand El Alemein the Snow Stalingrad the Sea North Atlantic and the Shore Normandy Slogging their way through this quintet are an eighteen year old G I from Missouri as seen through his letters home an ugly duckling of a Liberty ship as seen through its Armed Guard reports and a bottle of rum as traced by those who after the war made money in selling war souvenirs It is the history of the North Atlantic sea basin and its extensions at war the story of the lulls between battles when America s teenage warriors often watched war movies Humphrey Bogart made and Warner Brothers released seven during the war sang or listened to popular tunes by songsmiths like Irving Berlin and drank rum and Coke while listening to Dick Haymes sing the hit Rum Coca Cola While accessible and vastly entertaining this is a serious work of history By treating World War II in Europe much as Fernand Braudel treated the origins of Western civilization in his masterpiece The Mediterranean and the Mediterranean World in the Age of Philip II Hatcher brings Braudelian detachment to his narrative The Sorrows of Empire Chalmers Johnson, 2024-09-04 The New York Times bestseller from the author of Blowback Impressive a powerful indictment of U S military and foreign policy Los Angeles Times Book Review In the years after the Soviet Union imploded the United States was described first as the globe s one superpower then as a reluctant sheriff next as the indispensable nation and now in the wake of 9 11 as a New Rome Here Chalmers Johnson thoroughly explores the new militarism that is transforming America and compelling its people to pick up the burden of empire Reminding us of the classic warnings against militarism from George Washington s farewell address to Dwight Eisenhower s denunciation of the military industrial complex Johnson uncovers its roots deep in our past Turning to the present he maps America s expanding empire of military bases and the vast web of services that supports them He offers a vivid look at the new caste of professional warriors who have infiltrated multiple branches of government who classify as secret everything they do and for whom the manipulation of the military budget is of vital interest Among Johnson s provocative conclusions is that American militarism is putting an end to the age of globalization and bankrupting the United States even as it creates the conditions for a new century of virulent blowback The Sorrows of Empire suggests that the former American republic has already crossed its Rubicon with the Pentagon leading the way Trenchantly argued comprehensively documented worthy of the republic it seeks to defend The Boston Globe A frightening picture of a military industrial complex grown into exactly the powerful secretive force that Dwight D Eisenhower warned against The New York Times Book Review International Restructuring and Conversion of the Arms Industries and the Military Sector Wolfram Elsner,2001 The international 2001 Bremen conference was a comprehensive convention of all the relevant researchers trade unions and companies other regional and national agents and their European networks This volume represents settled experiences sector analyses spatial and company case studies and perspectives for proactive change management in the coming decade Renewing the Economic Development Administration United States.
