Economic Freedom of the World 2007 Annual Report James Gwartney,Robert Lawson,Joshua C. Hall,2008-04 As the most comprehensive index of economic freedom in the world this annual report ranks 141 jurisdictions and countries according to a degree of personal choice voluntary exchange freedom to compete and protection of person and property enjoyed by their citizens Constructed under the leadership of the Fraser Institute and Nobel Laureate Milton Friedman the report is the only index that uses reproducible measures appropriate for peer reviewed research and it remains the most objective and accurate measure of economic freedom published by any organization to date Une économie plus dynamique dans un Canada fort et prospère Mike Harris,Preston Manning,Fraser Institute (Vancouver, B.C.),Institut économique de Montréal,2006 Des dépenses publiques et une imposition excessives restreignent la liberté économique des individus et des entreprises en réduisant leur revenu et en transférant le pouvoir de décisions économiques dans les mains de politiciens et de fonctionnaires Economic Freedom of the World ... Annual Report ,2008 Globalization Jan-Erik Lane,2014-07-25 Efforts at coordination between nations are at the heart of the challenges of globalization Despite steadily growing interdependencies individual nations still have specific interests that present obstacles to globalization While some challenges inspired by the need to coordinate are viewed as inevitable by many they are less optimistic about prospects for success Jan Erik Lane argues that one should focus objectively upon the possibility of failures Lane analyzes four kinds of challenges to interdependency all of which are growing in geopolitical relevance First countries need to diminish their dependency on fossil fuel and shift to a reliable supply of energy because fossil fuels are diminishing Second environmental degradation must be addressed because it is accelerating under the strain of earth's population Lane advocates an ecological footprint approach Third a single global market economy and its complexities must be addressed as national economies are increasingly opened Finally as traditional state sovereignty weakens foreign military intervention in both international and intra state conflicts increases Governments are attempting to address these interdependencies or reply to the challenges they pose mainly through international organizations and regionalism These efforts are discussed at length In addition problems with international law are reviewed as Lane warns against the utopian hopes of global constitutionalism Globalization also examines the potential consequences of failing to address the need for coordination in efforts to address
