The Undergraduate's Companion to African Writers and Their Web Sites Miriam E. Conteh-Morgan, 2005-10-30 Now a firmly established part of world literature course offerings in many general education curricula African literature is no longer housed exclusively with African Studies programs and is often studied in English French Portuguese Women s Studies and Comparative Studies departments This book helps fill the great need for research materials on this topic presenting the best resources available for 300 African writers These writers have been carefully selected to include both well known writers and those less commonly studied yet highly influential They are drawn from both the Sub Sahara and the Maghreb the major geographical regions of Africa The study of Africa was introduced into the curriculum of institutions of higher learning in the United States in the 1960s when the Black Consciousness movement in the United States and the Cold War and decolonization movements in Africa created a need for the systematic study of other regions of the world Between 1986 and 1991 three Africans won Nobel literature prizes Soyinka Mahfouz and Gordimer and the visibility of African writers increased They are now a firmly established part of world literature courses in many general education curricula throughout North America African Writers is meant to serve as a resource for introductory material on 300 writers from 39 countries These writers were selected on the basis on two criteria that there is material on them in an easily available reference work and that there is some information of research value on free Web sites Each writer is from the late 19th or 20th century with the notable exception of Olaudah Equiano an 18th century African whose slave narrative is generally considered the first work of African Literatures in the Eighties, 2023-12-21. Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies, historiography, the social sciences and cultural anthropology. Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities. The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western technology. These days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution. It is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available. It creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news, storytelling and political debate. Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa, to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates, to overcoming notions of absolute cultural, ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world. Matatu will be published as a journal as of 2016. All back volumes are still available in print.

De la littérature coloniale à la littérature africaine. Riesz János, 2007-07-01. La littérature africaine en langues européennes est confrontée depuis ses origines à une masse de textes issus de la littérature coloniale d'une grande variété tant par les genres et la technique que par le talent de leurs auteurs. L'évolution de la littérature africaine peut être décrite comme processus de positionnement et d'émancipation face à cette vaste bibliothèque coloniale. Nous ne voulons pas nier l'influence des langues et cultures africaines indigènes respectives sur les littératures europhones naissantes. Mais elles sont spécifiques et se rapportent à la langue-culture d'origine de chaque auteur ou groupe d'auteurs, tandis que les clivages par rapport aux littératures européennes parlant de l'Afrique sont communs aux auteurs venant de langues et cultures différentes. Situer les littératures africaines en langues européennes par rapport aux littératures européennes de l'époque coloniale et post coloniale c'est souligner leur unité. On se pose en s'opposant selon la célèbre formule de Sartre. La langue du colonisateur enseigne le colonialisme ou l'armée et intervient par des procédés tels que la citation ou la mimorisation transportée avec elle des conceptions multiformes allant d'une imagerie un répertoire de savoir populaire incrusté dans des locutions figées et des métaphores qui ne sont plus perçues comme telles, une vision du monde qui régit et détermine la vie en société aussi bien que les relations avec autrui depuis les relations personnelles jusqu'aux rapports de forces entre collectivités, des jalousies individuelles aux rivalités économiques, querelles territoriales jusqu'aux guerres civiles et entre nations.

Recognition and Difference. Scott Lash, Mike Featherstone, 2002-07-26. Are there any cultural universals left? Does multiculturalism inevitably involve a slide into moral relativism? This timely and insightful book examines questions of politics and identity in the age of multiculturalism. It draws together the contribution of outstanding contributors such as Fraser, Honneth, O'Neill, Bauman, Lister, Gilroy and De

Swann to explore how difference and multiculturalism take on the arguments of universalist humanism The approach taken derives from the traditions of cultural sociology and cultural studies rather than political science and philosophy The book takes seriously the argument that the social bond and recognition are in danger through globalization and deterritorialization It is a major contribution to the emerging debate on the form of post national forms of civil society Critical Perspectives on Cameroon Writing Ndumbe Eyoh, Albert Azeyeh, 2013-07-24 This landmark volume brings together a very rich harvest of forty critical essays on Cameroon literature by Cameroon literary scholars The book is the result of the Second Conference on Cameroon Literature which took place at the University of Buea in 1994 The Buea conference was motivated by a determination to look at Cameroon literature straight into its face and criticize it using literary criteria of the strictest kind Gone were the times when the criticism was complacent because it was believed that a nascent literature could easily be stifled by application of rather strict canons of literary criticism Both writers and critics had a lot to say Subjects dealt with ranged from general topics on literature survival and national identity through specialized articles on prose poetry drama translation language folklore childrens literature Journalism and politics It is the hope of the volume editors that the publication of these papers will instigate the kind of actions that were recommended and that the prolific nature of Cameroon literature will equally give rise to a prolific and robust criticism Security, crime and segregation in West African cities since the 19th century Laurent Fourchard, Isaac Olawale Albert, Institut français de recherche en Afrique, 2003-01-01 Les questions de s curit et de criminalit sont devenues de nouveaux objets d tudes en Afrique essentiellement en raison de la multiplication r cente des formes de criminalit urbaine ou organis e et de la privatisation avanc e de grandes portions d espaces urbains ph nom nes que l on pouvait croire limit s aux Am riques L end micit de la crise conomique l accroissement de la pauvret la criminalisation de l tat et la faillite des polices tropicales ont consid rablement accru les sentiments d ins curit et acc l r le d veloppement d agences priv es qui prennent le relais d tats incapables d assumer le contr le du corps social Les auteurs de ce livre interrogent l efficacit des fonctions r galiennes de l tat s curit police justice et leur ventuelle d volution des organismes priv s associations groupes d autod fense milices ils rendent compte d un groupe et de sa cat gorisation criminels d linquants et proposent un nouveau regard sur une certaine gestion urbaine de l ins curit s gr gation Alors que de nombreuses tudes se sont naturellement focalis es sur les vingt derni res ann es la quasi absence d tudes historiques sur la s curit et la criminalit laisserait supposer que ces ph nom nes sont nouveaux en Afrique L une des priorit s de ce livre est de reconsid rer ces questions en proposant une approche pluridisciplinaire histoire science politique g ographie sociologie litt rature De nombreuses tudes empiriques t moignent de la vari t des trajectoires criminelles des r les successifs des polices coloniales et postcoloniales de la multiplicit des agences de s curit priv e et des formes s gr gatives d organisation de l espace urbain en Afrique de l Ouest En raison de la taille et du nombre de ses villes et de l paisseur historique de la criminalit urbaine le Nigeria tient une place singuli re dans ce livre Premier pays de la r gion entrer dans l re

The Contemporary Francophone African Intellectual Natalie Edwards, 2013-07-29 The Contemporary Francophone African Intellectual examines the issues with which the contemporary African intellectual engages the fields she occupies her residence and perspective and her relations with the State and the people In an increasingly economically deprived Africa in which some states are ruled by dictators what chances do people have of becoming intellectuals using their critical faculties to challenge hegemony enacting the transformative power of ideas in a public forum Do intellectuals who remain in Africa run the risk of being swallowed into a vortex of hagiography What is the responsibility of the intellectual in the face of an event such as the Rwandan genocide What influence does religion have upon the contemporary intellectual's work Is migration one of the only paths available for African intellectuals a number of whom have been critiquing their continent from within Europe This volume focuses on the intellectual's engagement across literature philosophy journalism and cultural criticism It contains studies of established writers and philosophers as well as new voices An African writer and public intellectual describes her own experience in and out of Africa in one chapter a Philosophy Professor discusses his intellectual trajectory in another Overall this timely volume which includes analysis of the work of intellectuals from North East West and Central Africa problematizes our current understandings of the intellectual legacy of Africa and opens up new avenues into this understudied area

Présentation du Cameroun Gilad James, PhD, Le Cameroun est un pays d'Afrique centrale bordé par le Nigeria à l'ouest le Tchad au nord-est la République centrafricaine à l'est la Guinée équatoriale au sud et le Gabon au sud-ouest Sa géographie est diversifié notamment des plaines cultivées des forêts tropicales des savanes et les sommets volcaniques du mont Cameroun à l'ouest. Le Cameroun abrite plus de 250 groupes ethniques différents, chacun ayant sa propre langue et ses propres traditions culturelles. Le français et l'anglais sont les deux langues officielles du pays, ce qui reflète son histoire coloniale en tant que protectorat de l'Allemagne puis en tant que mandat de la Société des Nations administré par la France et la Grande-Bretagne avant son indépendance en 1960. Le Cameroun est l'un des pays les plus développés de la région avec un système politique relativement stable et une économie en pleine croissance basée sur les ressources naturelles telles que le pétrole, le cacao et le bois. Elle est toutefois confrontée de nombreux défis sociaux et économiques, notamment des niveaux élevés de pauvreté, d'inégalité et de corruption. Malgré cela, le Cameroun possède une scène artistique et musicale dynamique et a produit des personnalités culturelles célèbres telles que l'auteur Mongo Beti et le musicien Manu Dibango. Son équipe nationale de football, connue sous le nom de Lions indomptables, a également connu un succès international en remportant la Coupe d'Afrique des Nations cinq reprises.
