Ecumenicity And Evangelism:

Understanding Evangelism J. D. Payne, 2025-09-30 When seeking to understand evangelism it can be difficult to know where to begin due to the wealth of written material available on the topic This one stop textbook offers a comprehensive introduction to evangelism from an evangelical perspective It draws from the diverse and vast literature on the topic to help readers share the gospel at home and throughout the world Understanding Evangelism emerges from the author's experiences as a pastor missionary evangelist and professor of evangelism and from his expertise as a scholar in the field The book provides the necessary biblical knowledge cultural awareness and practical insights for every Christ follower to participate in the privilege of partnering with the Spirit in the world The first part of the book covers contemporary definitions of evangelism the global status of world evangelization and personal motives and ethics for evangelism The second part addresses its biblical and theological foundations while the third part offers a historical overview The fourth part focuses on cultural contexts and effective communication of the gospel The book concludes with contemporary issues that offer practical guidance in the ministry of evangelism Pedagogical tools including case studies sidebars figures and reflection questions help students retain information An Evangelical Christology Bernard L. Ramm, 1993-02 In this book Bernard Ramm offers us an introduction to Christology Focusing on the work of Rudolf Bultmann his study includes a discussion of the trends in the contemporary Christological debate as well as a defence of the historic Christology of the Christian church Book jacket South African Perspectives on Notions and Forms of Ecumenicity Ernst M. Conradie, 2013-12-01 South African Perspectives on Notions and Forms of Ecumenicity is the second in a series of publications on the interface between ecumenical theology and social transformation in the South African context It explores the underlying tensions in the ecumenical movement from within the South African context by analysing various notions of what ecumenicity entails It includes a leading essay by Ernst Conradie and 13 responses to the theme by experts in the field A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston, 2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church Ecumenicity and Evangelism David M. Stowe,1970 Donald McGavran, His Early Life and Ministry: Vern Middleton,2011-06-28 This biography is more than one man s interpretation of another person s life it has numerous traits of an autobiography Donald McGavran His Early Life and Ministry An Apostolic Vision for Reaching the Nations includes insights gleaned from archives as well as hours of discussion with both Donald and Mary McGavran about the interpretation applied to particular events The Pastor as Evangelist ,1984-01-01 From a minister professor and recognized leader in the field of evangelism comes a challenge to pastors to take a new look at their mission Richard Stall Armstrong invites pastors to put on evangelistic glasses to perceive what it means to be a pastor evangelist in terms of personal relationships and in light of the various factors that define evangelism Clearly and compellingly Armstrong shows how to take the responsibility for evangelism seriously He analyzes in a concrete way the many contexts of evangelism the difference between witnessing to the young and the old to individuals and groups on the telephone or on television He counsels pastors to adopt not a particular method but rather a style that is nondogmatic that blends consistency with flexibility and above all one that reflects the integrity and power of the Christian message Biblically based theologically sound and vocationally relevant this book is full of useful ideas and practical suggestions that will benefit pastors professors and seminarians The Pastor-evangelist in Worship ,1986-01-01 The role of the pastor as worship leader and preacher takes on additional significance when viewed in the context of evangelism Building on the foundation laid in his earlier book The Pastor as Evangelist Richard Stoll Armstrong provides practical down to earth guidance for the minister who wants to participate more fully in the church s mission of evangelism Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie,Charl E Fredericks,2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics Evangelization from a Liberation Perspective Priscilla Pope-Levison,1991 In this pioneering work Dr Pope Levison marshalls an enormous amount of material on the topic of evangelization in Latin American liberation theology By analyzing the writings of ten theologians she demonstrates convincingly that evangelization serves uniquely as a bridge between theology and praxis This study is indispensable for students of contextual theology and evangelization In addition the introductory discussion of evangelization in recent documents from the Roman Catholic Church and the World Council of Churches renders this an invaluable tool for ecumenical studies as well A History of the Ecumenical Movement, Volume 2 Harold C. Fey,2009-12-01 Volume 2 1948 1968 first appeared in 1970 It covers the history of the World Council of Churches from its first assembly at Amsterdam to its fourth assembly at Uppsala Sweden analyzes the development of regional ecumenical organizations and recounts the impact of the Second Vatican Council on the ecumenical witness of the Roman Catholic Church Understanding World Christianity William R. Burrows,Mark R. Gornik,Janice A.

McLean, This work introduces Walls's work and explores its wide ranging implications for the understanding of history mission the formative place of Africa in the Christian story and the cross cultural transmission of faith History of Evangelism Paulus Scharpff, 1966 The Pastor-Evangelist in the Parish Richard Stoll Armstrong, 1990-01-01 Accomplished author Richard Stoll Armstrong speaks openly and honestly about how a pastor functions with evangelical sensitivity in the roles of visitor counselor teacher discipler administrator and public figure He describes the specific opportunities for evangelism in each of these functions Ways are suggested in which pastors can lead conversations and group or class meetings that open up opportunities for discussion of faith questions Christianity in East and Southeast Asia Kenneth R. Ross, 2020-02-03 No detailed description available for Christianity in East and Southeast Asia The Ecumenical Review, 1989 The Book of Church Growth Thom S. Rainer, 1998-09-01 The Church Growth Movement has divided devout Christians Even though Rainer is an advocate his aim here is to present an objective view of the movement its history the theology associated with it and the principles which seem to separate churches that grow from those that don't Ecumenical & Interreligious Perspectives Russell E. Richey, 2018-09-12 Ecumenical Interreligious Perspectives Globalization in Theological Education is a collection of articles on the wide ranging effects of ecumenism on theological education Fifteen eminent historians theologians missiologists Christian educators and ecumenists in the United Methodist Church and other denominations have addressed such topics as the critical redefinition of ecumenism global inclusiveness and the cultural assumptions implicit in interreligious dialogue These important essays show that the seminaries are responding to the new global awareness with vigor and sensitivity Together they give us a picture of theological education that is spiritually and intellectually prepared to face the challenges of the twenty first century Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Walter A. Elwell, 2001-05 This thoroughly updated edition of a standard reference tool covers systematic historical and philosophical theology as well as theological ethics Controversies in Mission Rochelle Cathcart Scheuermann, Edward L. Smither, 2016-09-15 Crossing social cultural and religious barriers and making disciples of all nations has probably never been without some level of controversy This book is an attempt to hit the pause button on this rapid paced world and to reflect on how we do mission especially in light of the new layers of complexity that globalization brings While the contributors engage in new aspects of mission and cultural encounter unique to the twenty first century the underlying issues of each chapter are age old topics that have reared their heads at various times throughout history priorities in mission power struggles perspectives on cultural others and contextualization With that in mind our aims are twofold 1 to carefully consider issues causing tension and contention within current mission thought practice and strategy and then 2 to engage in serious but charitable dialogue for the sake of God's mission and the salvation of all peoples
