Gothic Other:

The Gothic Other Ruth Bienstock Anolik, Douglas L. Howard, 2014-09-26 Literary use of the Gothic is marked by an anxious encounter with otherness with the dark and mysterious unknown From its earliest manifestations in the turbulent eighteenth century this seemingly escapist mode has provided for authors a useful ground upon which to safely confront very real fears and horrors The essays here examine texts in which Gothic fear is relocated onto the figure of the racial and social Other the Other who replaces the supernatural ghost or grotesque monster as the code for mystery and danger ultimately becoming as horrifying threatening and unknowable as the typical Gothic manifestation The range of essays reveals that writers from many canons and cultures are attracted to the Gothic as a ready medium for expression of racial and social anxieties The essays are grouped into sections that focus on such topics as race religion class and centers of power The Condition of Women and Children Among the Celtic, Gothic, and Other Nations John M'Elheran, 1858 A New Companion to The Gothic David Punter, 2012-02-20 The thoroughly expanded and updated New Companion to the Gothic provides a series of stimulating insights into Gothic writing its history and genealogy The addition of 12 new essays and a section on Global Gothic reflects the direction Gothic criticism has taken over the last decade Many of the original essays have been revised to reflect current debates Offers comprehensive coverage of criticism of the Gothic and of the various theoretical approaches it has inspired and spawned Features important and original essays by leading scholars in the field The editor is widely recognized as the founder of modern criticism of the Gothic The Goths & Other Stories Sasha Kaoru Zamler-Carhart, 2020-07-07 In the winter of 476 A D the Ostrogoths hungry and exhausted from wandering for months along the barren confines of the Byzantine Empire wrote to Emperor Zeno in Constantinople requesting permission to enter the walled city of Epidaurum and just kinda crash and charge their phones Closer to home Orpheus walks Eurydice through a suburban refrigerator as a matter of tax planning In The Goths prose fiction experimental poetry philosophy and design theory intersect and breed The poetics of car accidents capitalist consumption and anarchist terrorism unfold at a Southern California car dealership Readers of all centuries will feel at home in this book The smell of seafood and speculative urban planning merge into a 1990s computer game Abidjan has 12 756 streets with no way to go from one to another an apocalypse of tax law and classical mythology descends upon suburbia and reveals a medieval theology of design theater and light The book's six stories are set in different times and places sometimes within the same narrative but have in common a slippery approach to the boundaries between fiction and theory between ontological planes between the comical and the moral Together they also form a treatise on the nature of writing as a branch of design one whose medium is easier to reveal than to define Sasha Kaoru Zamler Carhart is a singer medievalist composer designer and formerly a linguist and a lawyer Their artistic practice is reversible like an air conditioner Sometimes it's forensic and archeological and the machinery is pointed at an existing object this is their stance as a medievalist and a linguist Sometimes it's toggled to output and used to make a new design object this is their work as a composer designer and writer and formerly as a tax lawyer Sasha is a lecturer at The New School where they teach speculative design at Parsons School of Design and history at Mannes School of Music Sasha is also the vocalist of a improv band and a frequent performer of contemporary vocal music They used to teach medieval music and Latin at the Royal Conservatoire The Hague and direct a medieval polyphony ensemble They graduated from Stanford with a JD an MA in linguistics and a BA in linguistics and philosophy They have composition degrees from University of London Royal Holloway and the Royal Conservatoire The Hague

Oriental Wells Md. Monirul Islam, 2021-10-15 Oriental Wells explores the manifold ways in which the East was a major source of inspiration for the British Romantic poets who generously borrowed from the Eastern sources in their effort to reinvent the British poetic tradition It examines the orientalization of Romantic poetry using works of William Blake William Wordsworth Samuel Taylor Coleridge Robert Southey and Walter Savage Landor Analyzing the Romantic poets multifaceted engagement with the East the book raises the questions What led Blake to formulate his thesis that All Religions Are One Why do Coleridge s poetry and the play Osorio echo some of the passages from Wilkins translation of The Bhagvat Geeta as well as other prominent Eastern religious texts What made Southey write his Hindu epic The Curse of Kehama and his Islamic tale Thalaba the Destroyer What was the exact nature of the negotiations between William Jones Orientalism and Wordsworth s poetics as formulated in the Preface to Lyrical Ballads The Prelude and other poems The book convincingly argues that the introduction of cultural goods from the East played a crucial role in shaping the form and substance of British Romanticism while acknowledging that the Romantics reception of the East was tempered by their ideological concerns and religious background

Miles Alfred Henry Miles, 1900 The Vampyre and Other Tales of the Macabre John Polidori, 2008-09-11 Upon her neck and breast was blood and upon her throat were the marks of teeth having opened the vein to this the men pointed crying simultaneously struck with horror a Vampyre a Vampyre John Polidori's classic tale of the vampyre was a product of the same ghost story competition that produced Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Set in Italy Greece and London Polidori's tales is a reaction to the dominating presence of his employer Lord Byron and transformed the figure of the vampire from the bestial ghoul of earlier mythologies into the glamorous aristocrat whose violence and sexual allure make him literally a lady killer Polidori's tale introduced the vampire into English fiction and launched a vampire craze that has never subsided The Vampyre was first published in 1819 in the London New Monthly Magazine The present volume selects thirteen other tales of the macabre first published in the leading London and Dublin magazines between 1819 and 1838 including Edward Bulwer's chilling account of the doppelganger Letitia Landon's elegant reworking of the Gothic romance William Carleton's terrifying description of an actual lynching and James Hogg's ghoulish exploitation of the cholera epidemic of 1831

National Bureau of Standards,1964 The Great God Pan and Other Horror Stories Arthur Machen,2018-01-12
Something pushed out from the body there on the floor and stretched forth a slimy wavering tentacle Perhaps no figure better embodies the transition from the Gothic tradition to modern horror than Arthur Machen In the final decade of the nineteenth century the Welsh writer produced a seminal body of tales of occult horror spiritual and physical corruption and malignant survivals from the primeval past which horrified and scandalised late Victorian readers Machen s weird fiction has influenced generations of storytellers from H P Lovecraft to Guillermo Del Toro and it remains no less unsettling today This new collection which includes the complete novel The Three Impostors as well as such celebrated tales as The Great God Pan and The White People constitutes the most comprehensive critical edition of Machen yet to appear In addition to the core late Victorian horror classics a selection of lesser known prose poems and later tales helps to present a fuller picture of the development of Machen s weird vision The edition s introduction and notes contextualise the life and work of this foundational figure in the history of horror Art and Scenery in Europe, with Other Papers Horace Binney Wallace,1857
