Heaven-and-Earth House Mary Swander,1996-02-27 Heaven and Earth House Mary Swander,1998-05-01 From the House of Heaven and Earth Susan Sheppard,1991 The Poetry of Home: a Poem, Etc Goodwyn Barmby,1853

The Poets and the Poetry of the Nineteenth Century Alfred Henry Miles,1905 A Concordance to the Poems of Emily Dickinson S. P. Rosenbaum,2019-06-30 A Concordance to the Poems of Emily Dickinson is the third volume in the distinguished series Cornell Concordances Like the others it was programmed on an IBM 704 electronic computer and provides an alphabetical list of all significant words each word given in context In order to provide variants it was based on Thomas H Johnson s three volume edition of all the known texts of Emily Dickinson s poems Included are an analytical preface by the editor and an index of words in the order of frequency New-Church Messenger ,1904 Doctrine and Poetry Bernard F. Huppe,1959-06-30 Augustinian literary doctrine religious in its orientation held that the purpose of literature is the promotion of charity to the end that God may be enjoyed that the true basis for eloquence is the truth in the meaning of words not in the words themselves This tightly defined frame allowed none of the individualistic fancies we now associate with poetry Dr Huppe has illustrated the continuing influence of this theory by references to Isidore of Seville the obscure rhetorician Vergil of Toulouse Bede and his continental successors Alcuin and Rabanus and to John Scotus Erigena The conscious and unconscious influence of this doctrine and of Christian thought in general was felt not only in the interpretation of poetry but in its creation as well Dr Huppe s most dramatic example is the work of Caedmon an unschooled but devout layman Caedmon s famous Hymn the first Christian poem in English and its reception by learned ecclesiastics vividly demonstrate the convergence of doctrine and poetry Old English as well as Latin Along with Caedmon s Hymn and the Caedmonian Genesis Dr Huppe analyzes other Old English classics In relating them to Latin poetic theory he indicates a whole new direction for their study His basic hypothesis may well be extended to relate Old English to Late Medieval verse thus establishing the latter s rightful place in the mainstream of Christian poetry The author has added his own translations of the Latin and Old English poetry treated in the text which facilitates the reading of this most rewarding book A Paradise of English Poetry: Love. Home affections and friendship Henry Charles Beeching,1893 A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton,Benjamin Franklin Stelter,1924 English Poetry (1170-1892). John Matthews Manly,1907 Gender and the Garden in Early Modern English Literature Jennifer Munroe,2008 An investigation into early modern gardens gender and writing this study considers not only published literary representations of gardens but also actual garden landscapes and unpublished evidence of everyday gardening practice Jennifer Munroe here analyzes how writers appropriated the developing gendered tension in gardening that stemmed from a shift from the garden as a means of feeding a family to the garden as an aesthetic object imbued with status Slave Species of the Gods Michael Tellingner,2012-09-10 Our origins as a slave species and the Anunnaki legacy in our DNA Reveals compelling new archaeological and genetic evidence for the engineered origins of the human species first proposed by Zecharia Sitchin in The 12th Planet Shows how the Anunnaki created us using pieces of their own DNA controlling our physical and mental capabilities by inactivating their more advanced DNA Identifies a recently discovered complex of sophisticated ruins in South Africa as the city of the Anunnaki leader Enki Scholars have long believed that the first civilization on Earth emerged in Sumer some 6 000 years ago However as Michael Tellinger reveals the Sumerians and Egyptians inherited their knowledge from an earlier civilization that lived at the southern tip of Africa and began with the arrival of the Anunnaki more than 200 000 years ago Sent to Earth in search of life saving gold these ancient Anunnaki astronauts from the planet Nibiru created the first humans as a slave race to mine gold thus beginning our global traditions of gold obsession slavery and god as dominating master Revealing new archaeological and genetic evidence in support of Zecharia Sitchin s revolutionary work with pre biblical clay tablets Tellinger shows how the Anunnaki created us using pieces of their own DNA controlling our physical and mental capabilities by inactivating their more advanced DNA which explains why less than 3 percent of our DNA is active He identifies a recently discovered complex of sophisticated ruins in South Africa complete with thousands of mines as the city of Anunnaki leader Enki and explains their lost technologies that used the power of sound as a source of energy Matching key mythologies of the world s religions to the Sumerian clay tablet stories on which they are based he details the actual events behind these tales of direct physical interactions with god concluding with the epic flood a perennial theme of ancient myth that wiped out the Anunnaki mining operations Tellinger shows that as humanity awakens to the truth about our origins we can overcome our programmed animalistic and slave like nature tap in to our dormant Anunnaki DNA and realize the longevity and intelligence of our creators as well as learn the difference between the gods of myth and the true loving God of our universe
