An approach to self, Miss conception of achieving happiness from worldly objects through wealth health prestige and power and being ignorant of vast unfathomable ocean of bliss in Self realization is the cause of suffering and bondage in the circle of life and death This eternal truth preached by Upanishads along with four measures to be adopted for being eligible for self realization and thereafter meditating on four Mahavakyas extracted one from each of four Vedas is the only way to feel eternal Bliss and to be free from bondage of life and death has been explained by me in my two books Aatm

chintnam in Hindi and An Approach to self in English Impeccability and Temptation Johannes Grössl, Klaus von Stosch, 2021-04-13 In Christian theology the teaching that Christ possessed both a human and divine will is central to the doctrine of two natures but it also represents a logical paradox raising questions about how a person can be both impeccable and subject to temptation This volume explores these questions through an analytic theology approach bringing together 15 original papers that explore the implications of a strong libertarian concept of free will for Christology With perspectives from systematic theologians philosophers and biblical scholars several chapters also offer a comparative theology approach examining the concept of impeccability in the Muslim tradition Therefore this volume will be of interest to scholars and graduate students working in analytic theology biblical scholarship systematic theology and Christian Islamic dialogue
