Heavenly Visions The Art Of Minnie Evans:

Heavenly Visions Mitchell Douglas Kahan, Minnie Evans, North Carolina Museum of Art, 1986      Heavenly Visions Mitchell D. Kahn, 1986      Heavenly Visions Minnie Evans, Mitchell D. Kahan, North Carolina Museum of Art, 1986

Heavenly Visions Mitchell D. Kahan, 1986      Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, Shirelle Phelps, 1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk's Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence      A Southern Collection, 1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution's inaugural exhibition Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day the museum's opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history

African Americans in the Visual Arts Steven Otfinoski, 2014-05-14 While social concerns have been central to the work of many African American visual artists painters      Coming Home! Carol Crown, 2004 A fascinating examination of the Bible's influence on seventy three self taught artists and 122 works of art      The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Carol Crown, Cheryl Rivers, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-06-03 Folk art is one of the American South's most significant areas of creative achievement and this comprehensive yet accessible reference details that achievement from the sixteenth century through the present This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture explores the many forms of aesthetic expression that have characterized southern folk art including the work of self taught artists as well as the South's complex relationship to national patterns of folk art collecting Fifty two thematic essays examine subjects ranging from colonial portraiture Moravian material culture and southern folk pottery to the South's rich quilt making traditions memory painting and African American vernacular art and 211 topical essays include profiles of major folk and self taught artists in the region

Let it Shine High Museum of Art, 2001 During 1996 and 1997 T Marshall Hahn donated a substantial portion of his collection of contemporary folk art to the High Museum of Art in Atlanta His gift was the first major collection of self taught art primarily from the South to be given to a general interest American museum The Hahn Collection comprises more than 140 paintings works on paper and sculptures created by more than forty artists and is particularly strong in work by African American self taught artists The three essays in this book provide a context for this extraordinary gift An interview with Hahn by Lynne E Spriggs the High s Curator of Folk Art traces his personal collecting history An essay by Joanne Cubbs the High s first curator of folk art explores conceptual and aesthetic themes common to Southern folk art and an essay by Lynda Roscoe Hartigan Chief Curator at the Smithsonian American Art Museum presents an overview of the developing awareness of and market for Southern folk art The catalogue section features color reproductions and short essays on eighty five of the most significant objects in the Collection Passionate Visions of the American South Alice Rae Yelen,1993 In recent years the artwork of the self taught has gained increasing recognition in the mainstream art world The New Orleans Museum of Art a leading institution in the field organized this exhibition identifying and documenting the superb aesthetic achievement of selected artists from thirteen Southern states who by definition have not sought didactic art training traditional diplomas or association with other artists or with the established art world in general This overview of painting and sculpture is the first large scale effort to consider the work of self taught Southern artists according to intrinsic artistic merit and without regard to race religion or gender Adapted from foreword p 6 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller,Nancy G. Heller,2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century A Biographical Dictionary was created to fill a gap of there being a comprehensive reference work like this available even though the bibliography in English on various aspects of the history of women artists has grown exponentially during the past ten years As researchers the editors have been frustrated many times by being unable to locate basic information about many of the artists included in this volume especially those working outside the United States This leads directly to another reason for producing this particular kind of reference book to try and create a better understanding between and among the artists and art audiences in these countries Souls Grown Deep William Arnett,2000 The first comprehensive overview of an important genre of American art Souls Grown Deep explores the visual arts genius of the black South This first work in a multivolume study introduces 40 African American self taught artists who without significant formal training often employ the most unpretentious and unlikely materials Like blues and jazz artists they create powerful statements amplifying the call for freedom and vision Shattered Forms Allen S. Weiss,1992-01-01 Art Brut also termed Outsider Art has long been suppressed from most art historical writing Why this rejection The hyperbolic expressions of Romanticism and Symbolism nourished a desire for derangement and dissociation that inspired both Expressionism and Surrealism Simulated delirium became the object of the new art experimental avant garde modernist which arose from the fragmented codes the shattered forms of everyday communication But what of those artists whose works and often whose deliria are the manifestations of sheer eccentricity of social isolation and marginalization or of madness In this book Weiss investigates the origins of the unrestricted contemporary artistic field seeking its sources in those works hitherto absent from the official histories of art works that constitute art's dark interior its disturbing netherworld Secluded occluded excluded Art Brut nevertheless extends the limits of artistic creativity and aesthetic discourse regardless of whatever anxieties such works may produce Shattered Forms explores the relations between Art Brut the psychopathology of expression and avant garde Modernism attempting to show how the consideration of Art Brut should lead to a revision of our theoretical and museological paradigms

Signs of Diaspora / Diaspora of Signs Grey Gundaker, 1998-07-30 Challenging monolithic approaches to culture and literacy this book looks at the roots of African American reading and writing from the perspective of vernacular activities and creolization It shows that African Americans while readily mastering the conventions and canons of Euro America also drew on knowledge of their own to make an oppositional repertoire of signs and meanings Distinct from conventional script literacy on the one hand and oral culture on the other these creolized vernacular practices include writing in charms use of personal or nondecodable scripts the strategic renunciation of reading and writing as communicative tools and writing that is linked to divination trance and possession Based on extensive ethnographic research in the Southeastern United States and the West Indies Gundaker offers a complex portrait of the intersection of outsider conventions with insider knowledge and practice
